Independent Auditors' Report

To the Partners of Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. New York, NY

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. as of June 30, 2012, and the related statements of income, changes in partners' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. as of June 30, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

1) NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. (the "Company") is a Limited Partnership registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company was formed on December 20, 2001 under the laws of the State of Delaware and its office is located in New York, New York. The Company is exempt from rule 15c3-3 of the SEC under paragraph (k)(2)(i) of that rule.

The Company is a health care merchant banker, providing strategic advisory and capital raising services to emerging through mid-sized healthcare companies. It also engages in the private placement of securities and corporate finance consulting to institutional investors.

Basis of Accounting

Revenue and expenses are recorded on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments, except for those held for longterm investment, with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Fee and commission revenue due but not yet received that is expected to be collected within one year is recorded as accounts receivable at net realizable value. If amounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation for property and equipment is provided using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes at rates based on the following estimated useful lives:

Years 5

Office equipment

1) NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

Property and Equipment (cont'd)

Upon sale or retirement, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the respective accounts, and the resulting gain or loss is reported. Expenditures for major renewals and improvements that extend the useful lives of the property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

Fee and commission revenue, which includes fees earned from placement services and investment advising, is recognized when the transaction closes and realization is reasonably assured.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred. Advertising expense for the year ended June 30, 2012 was $195.

Income Taxes

The Company is classified as a Partnership for Federal and New York State tax purposes, whereby the Company's income or loss is reported by the partners on their own income tax returns. Accordingly, no provision has been made for Federal and New York State taxes. The Company remains liable for New York City Unincorporated Business Tax.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclose contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Date of Management's Review

Management has evaluated subsequent events through August 20, 2012, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

EDGEMONT CAPITAL PARTNERS, L.P. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS JUNE 30, 2012

2) FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Company has a number of financial instruments, none of which are held for trading purposes. The Company estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at June 30, 2012, does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying statement of financial condition. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Company using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is necessarily required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value, and accordingly, the estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

3) ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable represents fee and commission revenue due but not collected as of the financial statement date. These amounts are generally collected within one year. The Company believes its receivables to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts was recorded for the year then ended.

4) NOTE RECEIVABLE

In 2009, the Company admitted an equity limited partner. In exchange for 10% of the partnership units, the Company issued an interest-free note receivable in the amount of $24,844, with three equal payments of $8,281 due February 12, 2009, January 1, 2010, and June 30, 2011, respectively. During the current year, the partner was given an informal one year extension on the remaining balance due as of June 30, 2012 of $8,281.

5) PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The following is a summary of property and equipment less accumulated depreciation as of June 30, 2012. Depreciation expense for the year ended June 30, 2012 was $37.

Office equipment	$	2,173
Less accumulated depreciation	_	(37)
	$	2,136

During the yearended June 30, 2012, fully-depreciated equipment and related accumulated depreciation totaling $36,219 was written-off.

6) RELATED PARTY AND EXPENSE SHARING AGREEMENT

Effective January 1, 2007, Edgemont Advisors L.P. ("Advisors"), an entity commonly owned and operated with the Company, assumed most of the Company's non-broker dealer business. As of that date, most of the existing non-broker dealer contracts with the Company's clients were assigned to Advisors, and the related operating expenses of that business were assumed and paid by Advisors.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company and Advisors entered into an expense sharing agreement by which their operating expenses (i.e. office rent, office expenses. insurance, payroll related taxes, employee benefits, retirement plan contributions, professional fees, travel and entertainment, etc.) are allocated to each entity based on their respective revenue for the year. Expenses specific to Advisors, such as retirement plan contributions, NYC unincorporated business tax, taxes and licenses, and depreciation, are not allocated between the entities. Each entity is charged individually for these expenses.

The Company shall reimburse Advisors for such operating expenses by paying Advisors a monthly payment. The size of the monthly payment will be adjusted periodically to reflect the changes in the Company's relative revenue. At the end of each fiscal quarter, the Company and Advisors shall determine whether the aggregate monthly payments made during that quarter appropriately reimbursed Advisors for operating expenses provided to the Company, and shall make such end-of-quarter adjustments as reasonably appropriate.

For the year ended June 30, 2012, the revenue of the Company represented 33% of the total revenue of both entities; therefore the Company was charged with 33% of the operating expenses of both entities.

For the year ended June 30, 2012, Advisors paid expenses totaling $127,852 on behalf of the Company. As of June 30, 2012, the Company has a balance due to Advisors of $27,813, classified as an interest-free short term liability.

The Company leases office space occupied by both entities. Advisors pays the monthly rent which is allocated between the entities pursuant to the expense sharing agreement discussed above.

7) CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

The Company maintains its cash balances at a major financial institution. As of June 30, 2012, the cash balances are fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). The FDIC's temporary unlimited coverage is scheduled to remain in effect until December 31, 2012.

7) CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK (CONT'D)

Report on Internal Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5 for a Broker-Dealer Claiming Exemption From SEC Rule 15c3-3

To the Partners of Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. New York, NY

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Edgemont Capital Partners, L.P. (the "Company") for the year ended June 30, 2012 (on which we issued our report dated August 20, 2012), we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exempt provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control and of the practices and procedures, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the Commission) above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Report on Internal Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5 for a Broker-Dealer Claiming Exemption From SEC Rule 15c3-3 (Cont'd)

Our consideration of the Company's internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the Company's internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a reportable condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the Company's internal control and its operation, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at June 30, 2012, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the board of directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and should not be used for any other purpose.
