INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
Cameron, Murphy and Spangler, Inc.
Pasadena, California

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Cameron, Murphy and Spangler, Inc. as of December 31, 2012 and the related statements of comprehensive loss, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. The financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Cameron, Murphy and Spangler, Inc. as of December 31, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained on pages 10 and 11 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not required as part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole and in conformity with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist the reader in understanding and evaluating the financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Business Activity

Cameron, Murphy and Spangler, Inc. (the Company) provides investment advisory services for its clients. The Company is a registered broker-dealer as a member of FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority). The Company receives much of its revenues from one of the stockholders (see note 7). All investments are maintained by brokerage companies and the Company does not own any of the funds it invests on behalf of its clients. The Company generally receives revenues in the form of commissions, typically by the brokerage houses. Most of the Company's clients are located in the Southern California area.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Basis of Accounting

The company maintains its accounting records on the accrual basis of accounting. Security transactions are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date.

Building, Property and Equipment

Plant, property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided by the straight-line method over the useful lives of the related assets, from five to thirty years.

Bond Amortization

The Company amortizes bond premiums and discounts on the straight-line method over the remaining life of the bond, based on the date of purchase.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company's stockholders have elected to be taxed as an S-corporation and therefore the corporation incurs no Federal tax liability. Accordingly, any income or losses are taxed directly to the individual stockholders. The Company incurs a minimum state income tax liability.

Marketable Securities

In accordance with SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities," the Company determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase and reassesses the appropriateness of the classification at each reporting date. At December 31, 2012, all marketable securities held by the Company have been classified as available-for-sale and, as a result, are stated at fair value, based upon quoted market price as determined in active markets, with unrealized gains and losses included as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income in the accompanying balance sheet. Most of the securities consist of various municipal bonds with varying rates of interest and maturity dates.

Regulatory Requirements

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission (Rule 15c3-1) which requires that the minimum net capital, as defined, shall be the greater of $50,000 or one-fifteenth of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. At December 31, 2012, the Company had net capital of $ 651,760 which exceeded its requirement by $ 601,760.

A computation of reserve requirements and information relating to possession and control are not applicable to Cameron, Murphy and Spangler, Inc. as the Company qualifies for exemption under Rule 15c3-3(k) (2) (II).

2. BUILDING, PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Plant, property and equipment consist of the following:

Property and equipment consist of the following:

Building	$ 248,000
Equipment, furniture and fixtures	188,812
Automobiles	154,200
Leasehold improvements	72,553
Land	62,000
	725,565
Less: accumulated depreciation	(458,375)
	$ 267,190

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

The Company has a loan outstanding to a relative of the stockholder. The loan is unsecured with interest at approximately 4% per annum. As the loan is not expected to be repaid within the year, it has been classified as non-current on the accompanying balance sheet. The loan is personally guaranteed by one of the stockholders of the Company.

4. UNSECURED LOAN

The Company has an unsecured loan outstanding for $192,414. Interest accrues at 1.5% below the Bank of England Base Rate (which is lower than 1.5%), therefore no interest has been accrued. As the loan is not expected to be repaid within the year, it has been classified as non-current on the accompanying balance sheet.

5. NOTE RECEIVABLE

The Company has a note receivable from an individual for $59,824 secured by a commercial truck, due in June 2016 with interest payable at 15.71% per annum, payable in monthly installments ranging from $1,100 to $2,400, including interest.

CAMERON, MURPHY AND SPANGLER, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012

6. PROFIT SHARING PLAN

The Company sponsors a profit sharing plan retirement plan (the Plan) covering substantially all employees who have one year of continuous service. Each year, the Company may elect to make a discretionary match of 20% of each employee's compensation, subject to legal limits. The Company's contributions are vested over a six year period. Employees may typically start receiving benefits at the age of 55. The Company reserves the right to terminate the Plan at any time, at which point all of the contributions made to the Plan would become 100% vested.

Contributions made by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2012 were $98,401.

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

One of the stockholders pays the Company $50,000 per month for management fees. In return, the Company provides supporting services to manage a portfolio of customer accounts. Total management fees for the year end December 31, 2012 amounted to $600,000.

8. SUPPLEMENTARY DISCLOSURES OF CASH FLOW INFORMATION

Cash paid during the year ended December 31, 2012 for interest and income taxes amounted to $0 and $4,912, respectively.

Board of Directors
Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the consolidated financial statements and supplemental schedules of Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2012, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc. including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5 (g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a) (11) and for determining compliance with the exempt provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc. does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of federal reserve regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and the procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurances that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal accounting control procedures or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specified internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2012, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties or anyone else not familiar with the adequacy of such procedures herein.

Board of Directors
Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have performed the following procedures with respect to the accompanying schedule (Form SIPC-7) of Securities Investor Protection Corporation assessments and payments of Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2012. Our procedures were performed solely to assist you in complying with rule 17a-5(e)(4), and our report is not to be used for any other purpose. The procedures we performed were as follows:

1. Compared listed assessment payments with respective cash disbursement records entries;
2. Compared amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the period from January 01, 2012 to December 31, 2012, with the amounts reported in the general assessment reconciliation (Form SIPC-7);
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers;
4. Verified the mathematical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules; working papers and supporting adjustments; and
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was computed.

Because the above procedures do not constitute an audit made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we do not express an opinion of the schedule referred to above. In connection with the procedures referred to above, nothing came to our attention that would cause us to believe that the amounts shown on Form SIPC-7 were not determined in accordance with applicable instructions and forms. This report relates only to the schedule referred to above and does not extend to any financial statements of Cameron, Murphy & Spangler, Inc. taken as a whole.
