Board of Directors
ThomasLloyd Capital LLC

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ThomasLloyd Capital LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2012, that is filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ThomasLloyd Capital LLC as of December 31, 2012, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. ORGANIZATION

ThomasLloyd Capital LLC ("the Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of ThomasLloyd Global Asset Management (Americas), LLC (the Parent), is a broker-dealer. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company has agreed to limit its business to corporate finance and investment banking activities. The Company does receive trail commissions from mutual fund products. The Company is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities and changes in interest rates, which have an impact on the Company's liquidity. The Company is organized as a limited liability company in the State of Delaware.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and Cash Equivalents – Periodically during the year, the Company's cash accounts exceeded the related amount of federal depository insurance. The Company has not experienced any loss in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

The Company considers financial instruments with a maturity of less than 90 days to be cash equivalents.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Investment Banking Revenue - Investment banking revenue is recorded upon the close of the related transaction.

Concentration of Credit Risk - The Company is engaged in various investment banking, trading, and brokerage activities. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Income Taxes - The Company is a Delaware limited liability company and has elected to be treated as a partnership as defined in the Internal Revenue Code. Under this election, the taxable income or loss is taxed directly to the member. Accordingly, the Company records no provision for federal income taxes.

The Company recognizes and discloses uncertain tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). As of, and during the year ended December 31, 2011 the Company did not have liability for unrecognized tax benefits.

Accounting Estimates - Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with GAAP. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenue and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through February 15, 2013 the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined that a subsequent event has occurred that requires disclosure in these financial statements. (See note 8)

7. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONCEMENT

In December 2011, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2011-11 (the "Pronouncement") related to disclosures about offsetting assets and liabilities. The amendments in this ASU require an entity to disclose information about offsetting and related arrangements to enable users of its financial statements to understand the effect of those arrangements on its financial position. The ASU is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013, and interim periods within those annual periods. The Pronouncement requires retrospective application for all comparative periods presented.
