INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Members

Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC
Rockville, Maryland

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of income, and changes in members' equity, changes in subordinated borrowings, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Auditing Standards Board (United States) and in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC as of December 31, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC (the Company) was organized on August 27, 2001, pursuant to the laws of the State of Maryland. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and regulated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), formerly the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). The Company provides merger and acquisition advisory and related consulting services.

Basis of Accounting

The Company's financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, whereby revenues, if any, from placement fees are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash in bank and on hand to be classified as cash and cash equivalents for cash flow purposes. The Company considers financial instruments with less than 90 days to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a limited liability company and is taxed as a partnership. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal and state income taxes. These taxes are the responsibility of the members, who include their share of the Company's income and deductions in their respective income tax returns.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

1. Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Income Taxes (continued)

With few exceptions, the statute of limitations for the examination of the Company's tax returns is generally three years from the due date of the tax return including extensions. The tax years open for assessments are the years ending on or after December 31, 2009.

Fair Value

Cash is considered a short-term instrument; the carrying amount is a reasonable estimate of fair value.

2. Related Party Transactions

On April 8, 2002, the Company entered into a management agreement with a ninety-nine percent (99%) member of the Company. This agreement provides that the member will provide funding, as needed, to operate the Company's business by providing additional capital contributions or by issuing subordinated loans. All professional staff personnel's related expenses paid by the member, attributable to the Company, will be charged to the Company based on a per-hour standard billing rate for the individual staff which performed the functions on behalf of the Company. The member will be solely responsible for all general and administrative expenses associated with the shared facilities and administrative staff. The Company will not be responsible to repay any of these general and administrative expenses, as they will be part of the per-hour standard billing rate for personnel. These standard billing rate charges will be recorded monthly as a liability and related management fee expense. Under this management agreement, the Company expensed the member $1,808,081 for the year ended December 31, 2012. The balance due from the member to the Company was $3,845 at December 31, 2012, relating to the overpayment of management fees.

3. Net Capital Requirement

As a broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC regulations and operating guidelines, which require the Company to maintain a specific amount of net capital, as defined, and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, not to exceed 15:1. Net capital and the related ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2012, the Company had net capital of $572,692 which was $567,692 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 0.0161 to 1 at December 31, 2012.

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission since the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities. All accounts are on a fully disclosed basis. Therefore, the Company is not required to make a periodic computation of the reserve requirements for the exclusive benefit of customers.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company has a potential concentration of credit risk in that it maintains deposits with financial institutions in excess of amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). Management has determined that the concentrations subject the Company to minimal risk only.

5. Transactions with Major Customers

Due to the nature of the Company's business, large transactions with customers will occur each year. Transactions with two (2) major customers accounted for approximately eighty-one (81%) of revenues for the year ended December 31, 2012.

6. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through February 21, 2013, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued and determined that no subsequent events, that would require disclosure have occurred through this date.

The Members
Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC
Rockville, Maryland

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, and have issued our report thereon dated February 21, 2013, which expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements, appears on pages 1 and 2. Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information contained in Schedules I and II required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Schedule II
Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Broker-Dealers Under Rule 15c3-3
of the Securities and Exchange Commission
As of December 31, 2012

Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC is exempt from the reserve requirement of Rule 15c3-3, as it does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, its customers. Accordingly, the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 and information relating to the possession or control requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 are not applicable. In the opinion of management, the Company complied with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3 throughout the year ended December 31, 2012.

Report on Internal Control Required By SEC Rule 17a-5 (g) (1) for a Broker-Dealer Claiming an Exemption From SEC Rule 15c3-3

The Members

Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC
Rockville, Maryland

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC (the Company), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, (on which we have issued our report thereon dated February 21, 2013), in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards established by the Auditing Standards Board (United States) and in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a) (11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's previously mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purposes described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2012, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the members, management, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5 (g) under the Securities Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

Independent Accountants' Report
On Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures
Related to an Entity's SIPC Assessment Reconciliation

The Members

Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC
Rockville, Maryland

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7)] to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2012, which were agreed to by Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC, and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC's compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC's management is responsible for Aronson Capital Advisors, LLC's compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

- 1) Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records (cancelled check), noting no differences;
- 2) Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2012, as applicable with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2012, noting no differences;
- 3) Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences, as there were no adjustments proposed;
- 4) Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences, as there were no adjustments proposed; and
- 5) Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed noting no differences, as there was no prior overpayment applied.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
