INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholder of Spring Investor Services, Inc.:

Report on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Spring Investor Services, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2012 that is filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether this financial statement is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in this financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of this financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of this financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Spring Investor Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2012 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2012

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Spring Investor Services, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated in Massachusetts on November 30, 1995 under the name QED Market Advisors, Inc. The Company changed its name to Spring Investor Services, Inc. on November 20, 2000 and commenced operations as a broker dealer on September 5, 2001. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The major business line of the Company was to market private placement products to accredited investors. The Company has suspended its regular operations while awaiting the outcome of the litigation discussed in Note 5 below. The remaining sole purpose of the Company is to collect money's owed it by hedge funds that, before 2006, agreed to pay the Company trailing fees for its services.

The Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities. The Company does not have any clearing or execution arrangements with any firms. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Company maintains its books and records in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements bears no material effect on these financial statements.

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months, that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

The Company maintains cash in bank deposit accounts which at times exceed the federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in these accounts.

NOTE 2. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the 'applicable' exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2012, the Company had net capital of $48,659, which was $43,659 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.26 to 1.

NOTE 3. INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision in the State of Massachusetts. Accordingly, the corporation is not considered a taxable entity for federal and state purposes. Any taxable income, losses or credits are reported by the shareholder on his individual tax returns.

7 The Company is subject to the Massachusetts Excise Tax. A provision for this tax has been made and is reflected on the statement of operations in other expenses.

The Company has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions which require adjustments or disclosure on the financial statements. The tax years that remain subject to examination by taxing authorities are 2009, 2010 and 2011.

NOTE 4. USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 5. ALLOWANCE FOR DOUBTFUL ACCOUNTS

7 During 2007, the Company initiated an action against a party for consulting fees. As the outcome of the action is uncertain, management has decided to book an allowance for doubtful accounts of approximately 50% of the uncollected balance due. At December 31, 2012, an allowance for doubtful accounts in the amount of $1,402,264 is included in the statement of financial condition.

NOTE 6. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

7 The Company had no lease or equipment rental commitments, no underwriting commitments, no contingent liabilities and is not a named party in any lawsuit, other than the one described in Note 5 above, at December 31, 2012 or during the year then ended.

NOTE 7. GUARANTEES

τ

FASB ASC 460, Guarantees, requires the Company to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. FASB ASC 460 defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying factor (such as an interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or non-occurrence of a specified event) related to an asset, liability or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement, as well as indirect guarantees of the indebtedness of others.

The Company has issued no guarantees effective at December 31, 2012 or during the year then ended.

NOTE 8. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

τ

Subsequent events have been evaluated and no events have been identified which require disclosure.
