INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Benjamin Securities, Inc.:

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Benjamin Securities, Inc. as of June 30, 2013, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's' equity, and cash flow for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Benjamin Securities, Inc. as of June 30, 2013, and the results of its operation and cash flow for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

My audit has been made primarily for the purpose of forming the opinion stated in the preceding paragraph. The data contained in Schedules I, II and III, although not considered necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, are presented as supplementary information and have been subjected to the audit procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements. In my opinion, this data is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements, taken as a whole.

To Benjamin Securities, Inc.:

I have examined the financial statements of Benjamin Securities, Inc. as of June 30, 2013 and have issued my report thereon dated August 19, 2013. As part of my examination, I reviewed and tested the system of internal accounting control to the extent I considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Rule 17a-5 contemplates that the scope of the review and tests should be sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that any material weaknesses existing at the date of my examination would be disclosed. Under these standards and that Rule the purpose of such evaluation is to establish a basis for reliance thereon in determining the nature, timing and extent of other auditing procedures that are necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements and to provide a basis for reporting material weaknesses in internal control.

The objective of internal accounting control is to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance as to the safeguarding of assets against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and the reliability of financial records for preparing financial statements and maintaining accountability for assets. The concept of reasonable control should not exceed the benefits derived and also recognizes that the evaluation of these factors necessarily requires estimates and judgments by management. However, for the purpose of this report under Rule 17a-5, the cost – benefit relationship has been disregarded in determining weaknesses to be reported.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of internal accounting control. In the performance of most control procedures, errors can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness, or other personal factors. Control procedures whose effectiveness depends upon segregation of duties can be circumvented by collusion. Similarly, control procedures can be circumvented intentionally by management with respect either to the execution and recording of transactions or with respect to the estimates and judgments required in the preparation of financial statements. Further, projection of any evaluation of internal accounting control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, and that degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

My study and evaluation of the system of internal accounting control for the period ended June 30, 2013, which was made for the purposes set forth in the first paragraph above and which would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system which may have existed during the period under review, disclosed no weaknesses that I believe to be material.

I did not find any material weaknesses in internal accounting control or a condition which would reasonably be expected to (a) inhibit the company from promptly completing securities transactions or promptly discharging its responsibilities to customers, other broker/dealers or creditors; (b) result in material financial loss; (c) result in material misstatements of the company's financial statements; or (d) result in violation of the SEC's record keeping or financial responsibility rules to an extent that could reasonably be expected to result in the conditions described in (a), (b) or (c) above.

To the Board of Directors of Benjamin Securities, Inc.:

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, I have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7)] to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the period from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013, which were agreed to by Benjamin Securities, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and SIPC, solely to assist you and other specified parties in evaluating Benjamin Securities, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). Benjamin Securities, Inc.'s management is responsible for Benjamin Securities, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. The agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, I make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures I performed and my findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payment for the prior period in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursements records entered in the general ledger, the check cleared in the company's bank statement, and SIPC acknowledgement of receipt of the prior period payment.

2. Compared the total revenue amounts of the audited Form X-17A-5 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2013 less revenues reported on the FOCUS reports for the period from July 1, 2012, to June 30, 2013 as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the period from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013 noting no significant differences;

3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers, (Assessment Analysis of SIPC-7 for the year ended June 30, 2013) noting no significant differences;

4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers, (Assessment Analysis of SIPC-7) supporting the adjustments noting no significant differences;

5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed noting no significant differences.

I was not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. Had I performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to my attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not to be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
