Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cretus Securities, LLC, as of December 31, 2012.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of Cretus Securities, LLC, at December 31, 2012, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

CRETUS SECURITIES, LLC
(A Company in the Development Stage)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2012

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Organization

Cretus Securities, LLC (the “Company”) was organized as a limited liability company in Delaware on May 7, 2008. The Company became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority on April 23, 2009.

Since May 7, 2008 (date of inception), the Company has been in the development stage.

Nature of Business

The Company conducts a securities business limited to private placement of securities.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition

Commission fee income will be recognized when services are provided. Related expenses are recorded when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company’s policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Additionally, cash balances are held principally at one financial institution and may exceed the $250,000 insurable limit. The Company believes it mitigates its risk by investing in or through major financial institutions. Recoverability is dependent upon the performance of the institution.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not expect any recent accounting pronouncements to have any material impact on its financial condition or results of operations.

NOTE 3 – NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain minimum "Net Capital" of the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of "Aggregate Indebtedness", as these terms are defined. Net Capital and Aggregate Indebtedness may change daily. The Company had Net Capital of $11,636 at December 31, 2012 which exceeded the regulatory requirement of $5,000 by $6,636. The ratio of Aggregate Indebtedness to Net Capital was 1.29 to 1 at December 31, 2012.

NOTE 4 – INCOME TAXES

The Company is a single member limited liability company and is treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the accompanying financial statements as these taxes are the responsibility of the member.

NOTE 5 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Since its inception, the owner of the managing member of the Company contributed $102,500 of capital to the Company.
