Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Rockfleet Financial Services, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Rockfleet Financial Services, Inc. which comprise the statement of financial condition as of March 31, 2014, and the related statements of operations, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of creditors, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Rockfleet Financial Services, Inc. as of March 31, 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 10, the Company has incurred a significant net loss in the current fiscal year ended March 31, 2014 that raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to this matter are also described in Note 10. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. My opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Supplemental Information

My audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental schedules is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In my opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

(k) Fair Value Hierarchy

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the assets or liability either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 - Inputs are unobservable for the assets or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent the valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining the fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

For further discussion of fair value, see "Note 9 Fair Value"

3 Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At March 31, 2014, the Company's net capital and required net capital were $14,152 and $100,000, respectively, resulting in a net capital deficiency of $85,848. The Company's net capital ratio was 2.0691 to 1.

4 Clearing Agreement with Off Balance Sheet Risk

To facilitate securities transactions on behalf of its customers, the Company entered into an agreement with another broker/ dealer (Clearing Broker/Dealer) whereby the Company forwards (introduces) securities transactions to the Clearing Broker/Dealer on a fully disclosed basis. The processing, and if applicable any financing pertaining to any introduced transactions are preformed by the Clearing Broker/Dealer.

The Company may be held responsible for any losses arising when the customers introduced by the Company to the Clearing Broker/Dealer fail to meet their contractual commitments pertaining to the purchase, sale and possible financing of securities transactions. The Company may therefore be exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and it is necessary for the Clearing Broker/Dealer to purchase or sell the securities at a loss. The Company's exposure to risk would consist of the amount of loss realized and any additional expenses incurred pertaining to the transaction or other customer activity.

The Company is required, according to the agreement to maintain a $100,000 deposit with the Clearing Broker/Dealer of which $50,000 has been made to assure the Company's performance under this agreement. The minimum clearing charges are $2,500 per month.

5 Credit Risk and Concentrations

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which the counter-parties primarily include broker dealers, banks, municipalities, other financial institutions and the Company's own customers. In the event the counter-parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to credit risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counter party or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counter party.

The Company maintains its cash balance at one financial institution. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures the Company's bank account up to $250,000. The Company has not experienced any losses on this account and believes it is not subject to any significant credit risk.

Fair value of the shares granted was approximately $100,000 for the year ended March 31, 2014. No shares are expected to be repurchased in the following annual period in connection with this equity compensation.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended March 31, 2014

7 Liabilities Subordinated to Claims of General Creditors

In March 2010 the Company entered into two separate subordinated loan agreements in the amount of $120,000. The notes are dated March 10, 2010 and March 30, 2010 and are payable in full on the maturity date. The subordinated lenders are shareholders of the Company.

Subordinated Loans

Due April 25, 2016	$ 65,000

	$ 120,000

The notes are payable in three years from the date of signing and bear interest at the rate of prime plus 3% subject to approval by FINRA. However, appendix D of SEC Rule 15c3-1 requires the prior written approval of FINRA before any repayment of a subordination agreement can be made. The Company has made no principal payments in the year ended March 31, 2014. In addition, to the extent that such borrowing's are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, they may not be repaid.

8 Lease

During the year the Company terminated its office leasing agreements.

9 Fair Value

Cash and cash equivalents, receivables, accounts payable and other current liabilities are reflected in the financial statements at carrying value which approximates fair value because of the short-term maturity of these instruments.

10 Managements Plans

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and have the ability to meet its statutory net capital requirements. The Company has incurred significant losses for the year ended March 31, 2014.

Management is diversifying into other retail offerings by hiring retail brokers. In addition, the Company has taken steps to significantly reduce its operating expenses.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the success of the above plan outline by the Company, and the availability of additional financing or capital contributions.
