Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors and Member
Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC
Plymouth, Minnesota

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2013 that is filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statement.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC as of December 31, 2013, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2013

1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC (the "Company") is a privately held Minnesota limited liability company operating as a registered securities broker-dealer with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wealth Enhancement Group, LLC (the "Parent"), which is ultimately owned by WEG Holdings, LLC ("WEG Holdings"). The Parent has agreed to contribute capital, as needed, to fund the operations of the Company. The Company does not receive customer or other securities. The Company has a clearing agreement through Linsco/Private Ledger Corp. (also known as LPL Financial).

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist principally of receivables from its clearing broker, LPL Financial. The Company believes its clearing broker is a high quality institution and there is no significant credit risk with respect to these amounts.

Receivables from Clearing Broker

The Company evaluates the collectability its receivables based on a combination of factors and records a specific reserve when it becomes aware of any collection issues. As of December 31, 2013, no allowance for uncollectable accounts has been reflected on the accompanying statement of financial condition. If circumstances change, the Company's estimates of collectability could be reduced by a material amount.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives revenue primarily through commissions on products sold. Revenue is recognized as earned, with commission revenue and related expenses recorded on a trade date basis.

Income Taxes

The Company and the Parent are treated as disregarded entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, therefore, are treated as branches of WEG Holdings. WEG Holdings is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, there is no provision for income taxes in the Company's financial statements.

Wealth Enhancement Brokerage Services, LLC

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2013

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board guidance. This guidance provides a recognition threshold and a measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. For entities taxed as a partnership, tax positions include decisions to file or not to file income tax returns in certain tax jurisdictions that can assess delinquent taxes against the Company. The Company believes any income tax filing positions and deductions attributable to the Company in WEG Holdings' partnership tax return will be sustained upon examination and, accordingly, no reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties, have been recorded or allocated to the Company by WEG Holdings at December 31, 2013. In accordance with this guidance, the Company has adopted a policy under which, if required to be recognized in the future, interest related to the underpayment of income taxes will be classified as a component of interest expense and any related penalties will be classified in operating expenses in the statement of income. WEG Holdings' remaining open tax years subject to examination include the years ended December 31, 2010 through 2012.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15c3-1"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined under such provisions, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. The Company has at all times maintained its net capital above the Commission's required level. At December 31, 2013, the Company's net capital of $418,280 was $338,872 in excess of its required net capital of $79,408. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 2.85 to 1 at that date.

The Company claims exemption from Rule 15c3-3 of the Commission under Section (k)(2)(ii) of that rule. Therefore, the Company is not required to make periodic computations of reserve requirements for the exclusive benefit of customers.

3. Related-Party Transactions

The Company and its Parent have a cost sharing agreement for certain shared expenses. Under the agreement, the Parent incurs services and costs and allocates to the Company its applicable share of these costs.

During 2013, the Parent allocated commission expense and broker-dealer fees to the Company which approximate the charges incurred by the Parent for similar expenses. In addition, certain other expenses, including occupancy, compensation and other administrative costs, are paid by the Parent or its affiliates, and allocated to the Company. At December 31, 2013, $1,188,628 was payable to the Parent related to these expenses and reflected as payable to Parent on the accompanying statement of financial condition.

The Company is significantly reliant on the operating services provided by the Parent.
