Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2013 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statement
December 31, 2013

(1) Organization

UniCredit Capital Markets, LLC (the “Company”) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of UniCredit U.S. Finance LLC (UCIUSF). The Company, formerly UniCredit Capital Markets Inc., was incorporated in New York in 1978. UCIUSF is a wholly-owned subsidiary of UniCredit Bank AG, Munich (UCB Bank or the Parent). On November 1, 2010, UniCredit Capital Markets Conversion, LLC (UCMC) was established and on December 30, 2010, UniCredit Capital Markets Inc. was merged into UCMC (the “Merger”) under a tax-free liquidation pursuant Section 332 of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon the Merger, the name of UCMC was changed to UniCredit Capital Markets LLC.

Each share of capital stock of UniCredit Capital Markets Inc. issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger was deemed canceled. After the Merger, UCIUSF continued to be the sole member of the Company and owned all of the limited liability company interest in the Company.

On September 30, 2013, the Company returned equity of $300 Million to UCIUSF as a result of not commencing its security lending business.

The Company is based in the United States of America and conducts business from its offices in New York City. The Company, which is engaged in brokerage-related activities, generates a significant portion of its revenues from customers of the Parent, its affiliates, and other institutional clients. Such activities primarily include foreign securities order flow. In addition, the Company provides corporate and financial services to both its clients and customers of the Parent and its affiliates in the U.S. market.

The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities and, accordingly, is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pursuant to paragraph (k)(2)(i) and (ii) of Rule 15c 3-3. The Company clears its transactions through another broker dealer, on a fully-disclosed basis.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company’s financial statements have been prepared under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue Recognition

Commissions are recorded on a trade date basis. Firm underwriting and selling fees are recorded upon deal closure (trade-date), net of related costs.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers balances at banks and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

(e) Securities Transactions

Securities owned, at fair value is primarily comprised of U.S. Treasury Notes. Securities transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis. The Company's trading activities may include selling equity securities short. Subsequent market fluctuations may require the Company to purchase securities at prices which may differ from the fair value reflected in the Company's statement of financial condition. Securities owned or securities sold, not yet purchased are stated at quoted market price, with unrealized gains or losses reflected in principal transactions.

Securities not readily marketable, primarily investments in private investment companies, are recorded under the equity method, which the Company believes approximates fair value.

(f) Income Taxes

The Company is a Limited Liability Company which is 100% owned by UCB Bank. For the tax year ended December 31, 2013, the Company is included in the consolidated federal income tax return of UCB Bank, but files separate tax returns for New York State and City. As such, state and local income taxes are determined on a stand-alone basis. The Company and UCB Bank have entered into a tax sharing agreement effective January 1, 2011, which provides that the income tax liability of the Company will be determined as if the Company filed separate income tax returns. Any benefit arising from losses or credits from the Company utilized by UCB Bank in computing its tax liability on a consolidated basis shall be reimbursed by UCB Bank. Tax payable, receivables and benefits are reflected as a component of due from affiliated companies (See Note 8).

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained.

(3) Investment in a Private Investment Company

The Company has an investment in a private investment company at December 31, 2013 as follows:

Boston Capital Partners V, LLC	$194,444

The Boston Capital Partners investment is recorded under the equity method, which the Company believes approximates fair value.

(4) Employee Benefit Plans

The Company participates in a defined contribution retirement plan established under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code sponsored by its ultimate parent, UCB Bank. The New York branch of UCB Bank administers the plan. All full-time employees who meet eligibility requirements may elect to participate in the plan. Participants may contribute up to 15% of eligible compensation on a pretax basis, not to exceed $17,500 for the 2013 calendar year. The Company contributes an additional 50% of the contributions made by the participants.

In addition, the Company participates in a profit sharing plan sponsored by its parent UCB Bank, which offers benefits to substantially all employees who meet certain age and eligibility requirements.

(5) Income Taxes

Pursuant to its intercompany tax sharing agreement with the Parent (note 2), the Company maintains all tax related balances as a component of the due from affiliated companies balances with UCB Bank. The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities at December 31, 2013 are principally comprised of the effects of accrued bonus, deferred compensation and accumulated net operating loss (NOL) carryforward. As of December 31, 2013, the tax effect of these temporary differences resulted in deferred tax assets of approximately $5,950,860.

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, the Company considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, if any, projected taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment.

In order to fully recognize the deferred tax asset, the Company will need to generate sufficient future taxable income prior to the expiration of the NOL carryforwards starting 2031 through 2033. As of December 31, 2013, the cumulative gross NOL is approximately $9,206,367. Considering the level of historical taxable losses and based on projections for future taxable income over the periods in which the deferred tax assets are deductible and considering management's ability to implement tax planning strategies related to intercompany cost allocation and revenue sharing arrangements, management believes it is more-likely-than-not that the Company will realize the benefits of these deductible differences at December 31, 2013. The amount of the deferred tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carryforward period are reduced.

UniCredit Capital Markets LLC
(A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of UniCredit U.S. Finance LLC)
Notes to Financial Statement
December 31, 2013

The Company evaluates the uncertainties of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a return based on the probability of whether the position taken will be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The Company uses a more-likely than not threshold for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or to be taken in a tax return. The Company concluded that it has no material uncertain tax liabilities to be recognized as of December 31, 2013.

In accordance with the accounting guidance on the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, the Company assessed its tax positions for all open tax years as of December 31, 2013 as follows:

Federal	Year 2010 through 2013
State and Local (UBT)	Year 2010 through 2013

If there are interest and penalties on tax positions, the Company's policy is to classify these as general, administrative and other expense.

(6) Commitments and Contingencies

Clearing Broker Agreement

The Company introduces its customer transactions to Pershing LLC, a clearing broker, with which it has a correspondent relationship for execution and clearance in accordance with the terms of a clearance agreement. In connection therewith, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain as a result of the failure of the Company's customers to satisfy their obligations in connection with their normal delivery versus payment transactions. Securities purchased in connection with these transactions are collateral for amounts owed. The Company has a receivable of $792,262 for its clearing broker including a deposit for $252,765. This receivable represents a concentration of credit risk.

(7) Net Capital Requirements

As a registered broker-dealer and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital of $250,000. As of December 31, 2013, the Company had net capital of $14,901,874, which exceeded the regulatory requirement by $14,651,874.

(8) Related Party Transactions

Investment Banking

Referral fees relating to underwriting fee income totaling $289,617 were payable to UCB Bank at December 31, 2013 and were included on the Statement of Financial Condition in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

Notes to Financial Statement

Income from Affiliates

In 2013, the Company realized income from UCB Bank (London Branch) relating to services provided by the Company's fixed income sales department to the affiliate. The service level agreement with UCB Bank provides that the Company will earn such revenue based on expenses incurred plus 10%.

Due from Affiliated Companies

Due from affiliated companies is comprised of a receivable from UCB Bank for $7,058,929. The UCB Bank receivable is a net balance of the tax sharing agreement between the Company and UCB Bank of approximately $5,950,860, a receivable relating to the fixed income sales department of $466,921 and cash held at UCB Bank of $641,148 for the purpose of paying expenses for normal operating activities of the Company.

Rent and Occupancy

The Company utilizes office space of an affiliate during 2013.

Overhead Allocation – Affiliated Company

The Company paid affiliates for intercompany allocation of various general and administrative costs including, but not limited to, technology, human resources and other back office charges, depreciation and amortization of office furniture and equipment. Service level agreements between the Company and the Parent or affiliate exist to govern expenses that are not directly charged to the Company.

(9) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Generally accepted accounting standards require the disclosure of the fair value of financial instruments, as defined, for both assets and liabilities reported in the statement of financial condition. Primarily all of the Company's financial instruments are carried at, or approximate, fair value.

(10) Fair Value Measurements

The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, which establishes a framework for measuring fair value by three level hierarchy and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. The Company records certain assets and liabilities at fair value.

The three-level hierarchy for fair value measurements is defined as follows:

- Level 1 Pricing inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 Pricing inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and the inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations when there is few, if any, market activity for the investment. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant management judgment or estimation.
