Report on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of UGR, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2013, and the related notes to the financial statement that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of UGR, LLC as of December 31, 2013, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Notes to Financial Statement

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Nature of Business: UGR, LLC (the "Company"), is a limited liability company organized in the District of Columbia and is a wholly owned subsidiary of United Global Resources, LLC (the "Parent"), a Delaware company. The Company operates as a broker-dealer in the United States and provides financial advisory services in connection with mergers and acquisitions and the private placement of investment funding.

As a broker-dealer, the Company is subject to regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

Basis of Accounting: The financial statement of the Company is prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP").

Risks and Uncertainties: Financial instruments which potentially expose the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and accounts receivable. The Company maintains its cash balances in financial institutions insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000.

At December 31, 2013, one customer accounted for 100% of accounts receivable.

Cash: The Company considers cash to include cash on deposit with financial institutions and money market investments with original maturities of 90 days or less. Cash equivalents are stated at cost, which approximates fair value.

Accounts Receivable: The Company's receivables consist of advisory and consulting fees due from the Company's client. The allowance for uncollectible accounts was $22,587 at December 31, 2013. Accounts receivable are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded when received. A receivable is deemed past due when it has been outstanding longer than 30 days. The Company does not have a policy of charging interest on past due receivables.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued:

Goodwill: The Company evaluates the potential impairment of goodwill annually as required by Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance.

In determining whether or not an impairment may exist, the Company considers certain qualitative factors to determine whether the existence of events or circumstances leads to a determination that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Such circumstances could include, but are not limited to: (1) deterioration in general economic or industry and market conditions, (2) increasing cost factors, (3) declining financial performance or negative cash flows, or (4) other relevant entity-specific events. If the Company were unable to determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is more than the carrying amount, then the Company would perform the first step of the quantitative goodwill impairment test required by generally accepted accounting principles. After consideration of all qualitative factors, the Company determined that it was more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit exceeded its carrying amount at December 31, 2013 and thus, the quantitative test was not necessary and no impairment charge was recorded at December 31, 2013.

Income Taxes: The Internal Revenue Service approved the Company's election filed on Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, to be taxed as a C corporation effective January 1, 2010.

The Company accounts for deferred income taxes by the liability method. Deferred income tax liabilities are computed based on the temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and income tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse.

The Company follows FASB guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed and presented in the financial statement. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained "when challenged" or "when examined" by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax expense and liability in the current year.

Management has evaluated the effect of guidance surrounding uncertain income tax positions and concluded that the Company has no significant financial statement exposure to uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2013. The Company's income tax returns for years since 2010 remain open for examination by tax authorities. The Company is not currently under audit by any tax jurisdiction.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued:

Use of Estimates: The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events: Management has evaluated subsequent events through February 21, 2014, the date the financial statement was available for issuance, and has determined that no additional disclosures are necessary.

2. Income Taxes:

The Company has elected to pay taxes on a cash basis. The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets (liabilities) at December 31, 2013 consists of the following:

Accounts receivable	$ (142)
Prepaid expenses and other assets	(7,108)
Accounts payable and accrued expenses	293
Net deferred tax liability	$ (6,957)

3. Related Party Transactions:

The Company has entered into an Expense Sharing Agreement (the "Agreement") with the Parent. The Agreement calls for the Company to pay the Parent $2,443 per month for the use of office space, furniture, business equipment, office supplies, IT support, and mail and communication charges.

4. Guarantees:

As permitted or required under District of Columbia corporation law, the Company has certain obligations to indemnify its managers and officers for certain events or occurrences while the manager or officers are, or were serving, at the Company's request in such capacities. The maximum liability under these obligations is unlimited; however, the Company's insurance policies serve to limit its exposure.

5. Net Capital Requirements:

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, of not more than 15 to 1. At December 31, 2013, the Company had net capital of $162,529, which was $157,529 in excess of required minimum net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.09 to 1.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL
REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17A-5(G)(1) FOR A BROKER-DEALER
CLAIMING AN EXEMPTION FROM SEC RULE 15C3-3

Board of Managers
UGR, LLC
Washington, D.C.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statement of UGR, LLC (the "Company"), as of December 31, 2013, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statement, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of the financial statement in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statement will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2013, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, FINRA, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
