INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Westport Capital Markets, LLC
Westport, CT

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Westport Capital Markets, LLC as of June 30, 2015, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Westport Capital Markets, LLC at June 30, 2015 in conformity with principles generally accepted in the United States.

WESTPORT CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC
NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
JUNE 30, 2015

Note A – Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Westport Capital Markets, LLC (the "Company"), is a securities broker-dealer servicing both institutional and retail clients.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with three months or less to maturity at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Advances on Commissions

It is the Company's policy to make advances to commissioned brokers. These advances are repaid as commissions are earned. As of June 30, 2015 the Company has outstanding advances in the amount of $8,486.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed currently, while renewals and betterments extend the life of an asset are capitalized. The costs of assets sold, retired, or otherwise disposed of, and the related allowance for depreciation, are eliminated from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized. Depreciation is provided on accelerated and straight-line methods over lives ranging from 3 to 5 years.

Revenue Recognition

The Company generates its revenues principally by providing securities trading, investment management and brokerage services. Revenues for these services are transaction based. As a result, the Company's revenues could vary based on the performance of the financial markets.

Non-recognition of commissions arising from unsettled customer transactions is not considered to have a material effect on either the Company's financial statements or net capital computations.

The Company clears all securities transactions through JP Morgan Clearing Corp. (JP Morgan) and National Financial Services (NFS), on a fully disclosed basis.

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its members, has elected to report its operations for tax purposes as a partnership. As such, it incurs no direct income tax liability, but its income and losses are passed through to its members for reporting on the members' tax returns. On June 11, 2015, the managing member purchased the remaining 49% interest in the Company. As of that date, the Company with the consent of its sole member, elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be taxed as an "S" Corporation and all taxable income or loss will flow through to its member.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and the disclosure of contingencies in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from the estimates included in the financial statements.

Note A – Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Fair Value Measurements

The Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement and Disclosure defines fair value, establishes an framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC Topic 820-10-35 are described below:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;

Level 2 - Quoted prices in markets that are not considered to be active or financial instruments for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly;

Level 3 - Prices or valuations that require inputs that are significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable

A financial instrument’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

At June 30, 2015, the Company has classified all of its securities owned at fair market value at Level 1 for ASC Topic 820 Fair Value Measurement purposes.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events were evaluated through August 25, 2015 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note B – Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consist of the following:

Office equipment	$ 4,604
Less: accumulated depreciation	4,604
Property and equipment, net	$ -

Note C – Member’s Equity and Distributions

On June 11, 2015, the managing member purchased the remaining 49% interest in the Company.

The managing member may make distributions of available cash or liquid assets of the Company based upon formulas in the membership agreement.

Note D – Clearing Broker and Off-Balance Sheet Risk

Beginning in April of 2015, the Company used National Financial Services (NFS) to clear its securities transactions and to provide custodial and other services for which it pays a fee on a per transaction basis and interest on amounts borrowed. In connection with its clearing agreement, the Company must maintain a minimum deposit with NFS of $100,000. Pursuant further to its clearing agreement, the customers' money balances and security positions are carried on NFS's books. Under certain conditions, the Company has agreed to indemnify NFS for any related losses, if any, that NFS may sustain. Both the Company and NFS monitor collateral on securities transactions to minimize exposure to loss.

Prior to April of 2015, the Company used JP Morgan to clear its securities transactions and to provide custodial and other services for which it pays a fee on a per transaction basis and interest on amounts borrowed. In connection with its clearing agreement, the Company had to maintain a minimum deposit with JP Morgan of $100,000. Pursuant further to its clearing agreement, the customers' money balances and security positions were carried on JP Morgan's books. Under certain conditions, the Company would have to indemnify JP Morgan for any related losses, if any, that JP Morgan sustained. Both the Company and JP Morgan monitored collateral on securities transactions to minimize exposure to loss.

Note E – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At June 30, 2015, the Company had net capital of $171,191, which was $71,191 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .49 to 1.

Note F – Retirement Plan

Beginning January 1, 2014, the Company adopted a Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees (SIMPLE) covering substantially all employees.

Note G – Commitment and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company executes, as agent, transactions on behalf of customers. If the agency transactions do not settle because of failure to perform by either the customer or the counter party, the Company may be obligated to discharge the obligation of the nonperforming party and, as a result, may incur a loss if the market value of the security is different from the contract amount of the transactions. The Company does not anticipate nonperformance by customers or counterparts. The Company has a policy of reviewing, as considered necessary, the credit standing of customers and counter parties with which it conducts business.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
JUNE 30, 2015

Note H – Operating Lease Commitment

The Company entered into a building lease for a term of five years beginning in June 2015.

The future minimum rent under this lease is as follows:

Fiscal Year Ending
June 30, 2016	$ 69,967
June 30, 2017	69,967
June 30, 2018	70,155
June 30, 2019	72,224
June 30, 2020	66,205
Total	$ 348,518

Note I – Uncertain Tax Positions

As of June 30, 2015, the Company believes it is reasonably possible the balance of the gross unrecognized tax benefits is zero and will continue to be zero in the next twelve months based on conservative income tax positions and the expiration of statute of limitations. The Company continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law, and new authoritative rulings.

The Company's policy is to recognize accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions as part of the income tax provision. As of July 1, 2014, accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions is zero. For the year ended June 30, 2015, accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions is zero.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and the State jurisdiction of Connecticut. None of these taxing jurisdictions have active examinations of Company income tax returns. The Company has timely filed all required income tax returns, and its Federal and State income tax returns prior to calendar year 2011 were closed by statute on September 15, 2014

Note J – Subsequent Events

Subsequent to the year end, it was determined that a possible regulatory issue exists that could result in a liability to the Company pertaining to the year ended June 30, 2015. That amount cannot be estimated at this time and accordingly no liability has been recorded on these financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors of
Westport Capital Markets, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying exemption report, in which Westport Capital Markets, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Westport Capital Markets, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 under Section (k)(2)(ii) and Westport Capital Markets, LLC stated that Westport Capital Markets, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Westport Capital Markets, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Westport Capital Markets, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Alperin, Nebbia & Associates, CPA, PA
