First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Lake St. Louis, Missouri

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of First Heartland Capital, Inc. (a Missouri corporation), which comprise the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2014, and the related statements of income and comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements and supplemental information. First Heartland Capital, Inc.'s management is responsible for these financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of First Heartland Capital, Inc. as of December 31, 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Schedule 1, Computation of Net Capital, Aggregate Indebtedness, and Ratio of Aggregate Indebtedness to Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1 and Schedule 2, Exemption Report has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of First Heartland Capital, Inc.'s financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of First Heartland Capital, Inc.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

1. Nature of Operations and Basis of Presentation

Nature of Operations

First Heartland Capital, Inc. (the "Company"), was incorporated in Missouri on March 23, 1993 and is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. The Company's customer base includes other institutional clients as well as individuals and entities, all of which effect transactions in a wide array of financial instruments.

The Company has an agreement with a national broker-dealer to clear certain of its proprietary and customer transactions on a fully disclosed basis. This agreement requires that $100,000 of cash and/or securities be maintained with the broker-dealer. At December 31, 2014, the Company has $100,000 included in deposits relating to this requirement.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standard Board ("FASB"), Accounting Standards Codification (the "FASB ASC"), which is the source of authoritative, non-governmental accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). All references to authoritative guidance contained in our disclosures are based on the general accounting topics within the FASB ASC.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Variable Interest Entities

The Company follows guidance issued by the FASB on the consolidation of variable interest entities. A variable interest entity ("VIE") is a legal entity whose equity investors do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or do not have sufficient equity at risk to permit the entity to finance its own activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. Guidance issued by the FASB provides the framework for determining whether a VIE should be consolidated based on the power to direct the activities that most significantly impact the VIE's economic performance, the obligation to absorb expected losses of the VIE, or the right to receive the expected residual returns of the VIE. A variable interest holder that consolidates the VIE is called the primary beneficiary. The primary beneficiary should include VIE's assets and liabilities and results of operations in its consolidated financial statements until a reconsideration event, as defined by FASB, occurs to require deconsolidation of the VIE. At the deconsolidation date, the assets and liabilities of the VIE are removed from the consolidated financial statements and any assets and liabilities of the Company that were eliminated in the consolidation are restored.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows guidance issued by the FASB on fair value measurements, which establishes a framework for measuring fair values, clarifies the definition of fair value within that framework, and expands disclosures about the use of fair value measurements. This guidance applies whenever fair value is the applicable measurement. The three general valuation techniques used to measure fair value are the market approach, cost approach, and income approach. The guidance established a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into Levels 1, 2, and 3. Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments and have the highest priority. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable. Level 3 inputs are unobservable and are given the lowest priority.

Carrying amounts of certain financial instruments such as cash and cash equivalents, receivables, and accounts and other payables approximate fair value due to their short maturities or because the terms are similar to market terms.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all temporary cash investments with an original maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Investments

As of December 31, 2014, the Company classifies all investments as trading securities. Trading securities are carried at fair value with unrealized holding gains and losses included in earnings. Realized gains and losses are included in earnings and are derived using the average cost method for determining the cost of securities sold. Dividend and interest income is recognized when earned.

Concessions Receivable

Concessions receivable are uncollateralized obligations due under normal trade terms generally requiring payment within 30 days of the invoice date.

The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts equal to the estimated losses that will be incurred in the collection of concessions receivable, if any. When necessary, this estimate is based on historical experience coupled with a review of the current status of existing receivables. The allowance and associated concessions receivable are reduced when the receivables are determined to be uncollectible. Currently, the Company considers concessions receivable to be fully collectible.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Major additions and improvements are capitalized, while maintenance and repairs are expenses as incurred. When assets are sold or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts. Any gain or loss arising from such disposition is included as income or expense in the year of disposition.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which is estimated to be 5 years.

First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, and investments. The Company maintains its cash primarily with three financial institutions. Deposits in non-interest bearing accounts at these banks are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. At December 31, 2014, the Company has approximately $1,639,000 of uninsured funds. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers and maintains allowances, as needed, for potential credit losses. Although the Company is directly affected by the financial stability of its customer base, management does not believe significant credit risk exists at December 31, 2014. The Company maintains its investments and brokerage deposit with one brokerage firm. Securities held at this firm are insured by the SIPC up to $500,000.

Revenue Recognition

Concessions income is recognized as earned with billed but not collected amounts reflected as concessions receivable.

Income Taxes

The stockholders of the Company elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Earnings and losses after the date of election are included in the personal income tax returns of the stockholders. Accordingly, the financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes.

The Company is required to evaluate tax positions taken (or expected to be taken) in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns and recognize a tax liability if the Company has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authorities. The Company has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2014, there are no uncertain tax positions taken, or expected to be taken, that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements.

If applicable, the Company recognized interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities in the statement of income and comprehensive income.

Management is required to analyze all open tax years, as defined by the Statute of Limitations, for all major jurisdictions, including federal and certain state taxing authorities. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by taxing authorities for years before 2011. As of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company did not have a liability for any unrecognized taxes. The Company has no examinations in progress and is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax liabilities will significantly change in the next twelve months.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 25, 2015, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. It was concluded that there were no events or transactions occurring during this period that required recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

3. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment at December 31, 2014, is as follows:

Computer hardware	$ 297,124
Computer software	214,217
Furniture and fixtures	14,961
	526,302
Less accumulated depreciation	417,157
	$ 109,145

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2014 totaled $27,192.

4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum regulatory net capital of $50,000 and requires the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to regulatory net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2014, the Company was in compliance with both of the above stated net capital rules.

5. Related Party Transactions and Variable Interest Entities

Leasing Arrangements

The Company leases its offices in Lake St. Louis, Missouri from an affiliated corporation which the owner of the Company also controls. The affiliated corporation leases the offices from a limited liability company in which the sole stockholder of the Company has a 40% interest. Rent expense amounted to $71,174 for the year ended December 31, 2014. This expense is recorded with the administrative fees discussed below.

Variable Interest Entities

The Company has evaluated the above leasing arrangement to determine whether they hold a significant variable interest in a VIE and are the primary beneficiary. The affiliated corporation leases 44% of their portion of the building to the Company. The Company has no exposure to loss as a result of this lease due to the fact that the lease is with an affiliated corporation. The Company has concluded that since it does not have the power to direct the activities of the VIE that most significantly impact its economic performance, the Company is not the primary beneficiary and, accordingly, consolidation of the VIE is not required.

Administrative Fees

The Company receives administrative fees from three affiliated entities, all of which are controlled by the Company's owner, for their share of certain operating expenses. Administrative fees consist of payroll, rent, and other operating expenses and are allocated on a per employee basis. Allocations have been based primarily of actual time spent by Company employees with respect to each entity. The Company believes that such allocation methods are reasonable. Administrative fees totaled $2,124,387 for the year ended December 31, 2014. These fees are netted against administrative fee expense paid to affiliated entities.

6. Retirement Plans

The Company provides retirement benefits to all of its employees under various retirement plans.

Defined Benefit Plan

The Company sponsors a noncontributory, cash balance defined benefit plan for eligible employees who have reached the age of 20.5 and completed one year of service. Benefits are based on years of service from January 1, 2008 to normal retirement, as defined. All participants become 100 percent vested after 3 years of service. Participant "accumulation" accounts are credited annually with pay credits based upon a percentage of eligible compensation, as defined, and interest credits based upon 5 percent of beginning of the year accumulation account balances. The Company's funding policy is to contribute annually at least the minimum amount required under the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA). Company contributions for the year ending December 31, 2014 are expected to be approximately $333,000. The Company uses a calendar year-end measurement date for this plan.

The following tables set forth further information about the Company's defined benefit pension plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Pension plan obligations and funded status:

Benefit obligation at December 31	$ 2,400,671
Plan assets at fair value December 31	2,304,462
Funded status	$ (96,209)
Accumulated benefit obligation at December 31	$ 2,400,671

Amounts recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income consist of:

Net periodic pension cost for the year ended December 31, 2014 was	$ 327,880

The following assumptions were used in accounting for the pension plan:

Weighted average assumptions to determine benefit obligations at December 31, 2014:
Discount rate	6.51%
Rate of compensation increase	N/A

Weighted average assumptions to determine net pension benefit cost for the year ended December 31, 2014:
Discount rate	5.00%
Expected return on plan assets	5.00%
Rate of compensation increase	N/A

The expected rate of return on plan assets is determined by those assets' historical long-term investment performance, current asset allocation, and estimates of future long-term returns by asset class.

The Company's overall investment strategy is to achieve a mix of investments for long-term growth and near-term benefit payments with a diversification of asset types. The target allocations for plan assets are approximately 60 percent to equities and 40 percent to fixed income securities, excluding cash equivalents.

The fair values of the Company's plan assets at December 31, 2014, by asset category are as follows:

Asset Category	Total	Quoted Prices In Active Markets (Level 1)	Significant Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)

Defined Contribution Plan

The Company maintains a contributory profit sharing plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code covering substantially all employees who meet certain eligibility requirements. Employer contributions to the plan totaled $207,641 for the year ended December 31, 2014.

7. Contingencies

In the normal course of business the Company is party to litigation and arbitration actions involving their broker activities. In the opinion of management and legal counsel, all such matters are adequately covered by insurance, or if no so covered, are without merit or involve such amounts that unfavorable disposition would not have a material effect on the financial position of the Company.

First Heartland Capital, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014

8. Risk Associated with Financial Instruments

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer and clearing agent activities involve the execution and settlement of various customer security transactions. These activities may expose the Company to certain risks in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company must purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

The Company does not anticipate nonperformance by customers or its clearing broker in the above situations. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing, as considered necessary, the credit standing of the customers, the clearing broker, and financial institutions with which it conducts business.

9. Revenue from Contracts with Customers

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASU 2014-09), which supersedes nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP. The core principal of ASU 2014-09 is to recognize revenues when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled for those goods and services. ASU 2014-09 defines a five step process to achieve this core principle and, in doing so, more judgment and estimates may be required within the revenue recognition process than are required under existing U.S. GAAP. The standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, and interim periods therein, using either of the following transition methods: (i) a full retrospective approach reflecting the application of the standard in each prior reporting period with the option to elect certain practical expedients, or (ii) retrospective approach with the cumulative effect of initially adopting ASU 2014-09 recognized at the date of adoption (which includes additional footnote disclosures). We are currently evaluating the impact of our pending adoption of ASU 2014-09 on our financial statements and have not yet determined the method by which we will adopt the standard in 2018.
