INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders of
Tor Brokerage, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Tor Brokerage, LLC (the "Company"), and the related notes as of December 31, 2014.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2014, for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TOR BROKERAGE, LLC
NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2014

1. NOTES ON SIGNIFICANT BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Tor Brokerage, LLC (the "Company") was organized in the State of Delaware in February 2005 and began doing business as a registered broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission in October 2005. The principal sources of the Company's income is generated from the private placement of securities. In this capacity the firm places assets with investment managers for its qualified individual and institutional customers. It also executes both riskless principal and agency transactions for its customers through its broker, Interactive Brokers LLC. Additionally, the Company was approved to conduct soft dollar transactions by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In the normal course of its business, the Company enters into financial transactions where the risk of potential loss due to changes in market (market risk) or failure of the other party to the transaction to perform (counterparty risk) exceeds the amounts recorded for the transaction.

The Company's policy is to continuously monitor its exposure to market and counterparty risk through the use of a variety of financial, position and credit exposure reporting and control procedures. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing the credit standing of each broker-dealer, clearing organization, customer and/or other counterparty with which it conducts business.

The Company introduces its customer transactions to its clearing broker Interactive Brokers LLC., In accordance with the terms of its clearance agreement. In connection therewith, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain related to the Company's customers. After December 31, 2014, all amounts related to such transactions were received from customers. Securities purchased by customers in connection with those transactions are held by the clearing broker as collateral for the amounts owed.

The clearing and depository operations for the Company's proprietary and customer transactions are performed by its clearing broker pursuant to the clearance agreement. At December 31, 2014, the receivable from clearing broker reflected on the statement of financial condition was substantially in cash.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company records securities transactions and related revenues and expenses on a trade date basis.

Security transactions and financing with the clearing broker are classified as operating activities on the statement of cash flows since this is the Company's principal business.

The Company maintains its books and records on an accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which require management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. CASH IN BANK

The Company maintains cash and cash equivalents with financial institutions. Funds deposited with a single bank are insured up to $250,000 in the aggregate by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). Deposits with a single brokerage institution are insured up to $500,000 per customer, including up to $250,000 for cash deposits, by the Securities Investor Protection Corp. ("SIPC"). The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity date of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. A times, cash balances may exceed the insured limits. The Fund has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

4. INCOME TAXES

The Company is recognized as a Limited Liability Company, (an "LLC"), by the Internal Revenue Service. As an LLC, the Company is not subject to income taxes. The members are liable for federal and state income taxes on the Company's taxable income. The Company is liable for State of New Jersey Franchise Taxes.

FASB provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed and presented in the financial statements. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Partnership's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained "when challenged" or "when examined" by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense and liability in the current year. For the year ended December 31, 2014 management has determined that there are no material uncertain income tax positions.

5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with a related entity whereby they share rent, telephone and internet connection fees equally.

6. RULE 15C3-3

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph (k)(2)(ii) in that the Company carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds and delivers all securities received, does not otherwise hold funds or securities for or owe money or securities to customers and effectuates all financial transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis.

7. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2014, the Company had net capital of $69,329 which exceeded the minimum requirement of $5,000 by $64,329. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .39 to 1.

8. LIABILITIES SUBORDINATED TO THE CLAIMS OF GENERAL CREDITORS

As of December 31, 2014, the Company had not entered into any subordinated loans agreements.

9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Company had no underwriting commitments, no contingent liabilities and had not been named as defendant in any lawsuit at December 31, 2014 or during the year then ended.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Events have been evaluated through February 23, 2015, the date that these financial statements were available to be issued and no further information is required to be disclosed.
