Benefit Finance Securities, LLC

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Benefit Finance Securities, LLC (a Missouri limited liability company), which comprise the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2014, and the related statements of income, changes in member's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements and supplemental information. Benefit Finance Securities, LLC's management is responsible for these financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of Benefit Finance Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2014, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Schedule 1, Computation of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1 and Schedule 2, Exemption Report has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Benefit Finance Securities, LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Benefit Finance Securities, LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Benefit Finance Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company formed in 1997 under the laws of the State of Missouri. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bancorp Services, LLC ("Bancorp"). The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as a broker-dealer selling variable life insurance annuities and private placements. Also, the Company provides plan administration services for these variable life insurance contracts. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and operates under the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(1). The latest date upon which the Company is to dissolve is December 31, 2050.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"), Accounting Standards Codification, (the "FASB ASC"), which is the source of authoritative, non-governmental accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). All references to authoritative accounting guidance contained in our disclosures are based on the general accounting topics within the FASB ASC.

Use of Estimates in Financial Statements

The preparation of the Company's financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company adopted "FASC 820, Fair Value Measurements", which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in GAAP, and expands disclosures about fair value investments. This guidance applies whenever fair value is the applicable measurement. The three general valuation techniques used to measure fair value are the market approach, cost approach, and income approach. The guidance establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into Levels 1, 2, and 3. Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments and have the highest priority. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable. Level 3 inputs are unobservable and are given the lowest priority. Carrying amounts of certain financial instruments such as cash and cash equivalents, receivables and accounts payable approximate fair value due to their short maturities or because the terms are similar to market terms.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms.

The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts equal to the estimated losses that will be incurred in the collection of accounts receivable, if any. When necessary, this estimate is based on historical experience coupled with a review of the current status of existing receivables. The allowance and associated accounts receivable are reduced when the receivables are determined to be uncollectible. Currently, the Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist principally of cash and cash equivalents and receivables. The Company maintains its cash primarily with two financial institutions. Deposits in interest bearing and non-interest bearing accounts at these banks are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. At December 31, 2014, there were no cash balances in excess of federally insured limits at the bank. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers, as needed, for potential credit losses. Although the Company is directly affected by the financial stability of its customer base, management does not believe significant credit risk exists at December 31, 2014.

Revenue Recognition

The Company receives commissions from the sale of certain corporate life insurance products. Revenue from premium related commissions is recognized at the point the premiums are paid. Other products pay commissions over time based on the value of assets held in the product. For these types of products, commission income is accrued and recognized over time.

Plan administration fees are derived and recognized over the term of the contract from policy administration pursuant to the sale by a retail broker-dealer of a related variable insurance contract.

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASU 2014-09), which supersedes nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP. The primary focus of ASU 2014-09 is to recognize revenues when promised goods or services are transferred to customers reflecting an amount that considers when an entity expects to be entitled to those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 defines a five step process to achieve this core principle and, in doing so, more judgment and estimates may be required within the revenue recognition process than are required under existing U.S. GAAP. The standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods therein, using either of the following transition methods: (i) a full retrospective approach reflecting the application of the standard in each prior reporting period with the option to elect certain practical expedients, or (ii) a retrospective approach with the cumulative effect of initially adopting ASU 2014-09 recognized at the date of adoption. We are currently evaluating the impact of our pending adoption of ASU 2014-09 on our financial statements and have not yet determined the method by which we will adopt the standard in 2017.

Income Taxes

The Company is formed as a single-member limited liability company and as such its operations are included in Bancorp's tax returns. Earnings are included in the personal tax returns of the members. Accordingly, the financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes.

The Company is required to evaluate tax positions taken (or expected to be taken) in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns and recognize a tax liability if the Company has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authorities. The Company has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2014, there are no uncertain tax positions taken, or expected to be taken, that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements.

If applicable, the Company recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities in the statement of income.

Management is required to analyze all open tax years, as defined by the Statute of Limitations, for all major jurisdictions, including federal and certain state taxing authorities. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by taxing authorities for years before 2011. As of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company did not have a liability for any unrecognized taxes. The Company has no examinations in progress and is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax liabilities will significantly change in the next twelve months.

NOTE 2 NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to regulatory net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2014, the Company had net capital of $23,633, which was $18,633 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .07193 to 1.

NOTE 3 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company and BFP Securities, LLC ("BFPS"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Benefit Finance Partners, LLC ("BFP"), which is 50 percent owned by Bancorp, are related by common ownership.

During 2014, the Company received commissions of $316,889, through an agreement with BFPS.

Commissions, plan administration fees, and other advances may be due to and receivable from BFP and BFPS. As of December 31, 2014, the Company had a balance due from BFPS of $39,832.

The Company has an Expense Agreement with Bancorp to pay a monthly management fee of $7,500 for office space, and support in administration, finance, equipment, technology, sales, and marketing. Expenses under the agreement totaled $90,000 for the year ended December 31, 2014.

NOTE 4 RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Changes to the Internal Revenue Code and other factors may affect the demand for variable insurance contracts. Also, a large part of the Company's customer base consists of companies in the banking industry. Economic difficulties by customers could lead to the surrender of existing insurance contracts and the resulting recognition of surrender charges. It is not currently possible for the Company to determine the likelihood or potential impact of the above uncertainties.

Revenue from three customers was approximately 99 percent of the Company's revenue for the year ended December 31, 2014. Receivable from one of these customers was 100 percent of the company's receivables at December 31, 2014.

NOTE 5 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 24, 2015, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. It was concluded there were no events or transactions occurring during this period that required recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Schedule 2 - Exemption Report, in which (1) Benefit Finance Securities, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Benefit Finance Securities, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3:Provisions (1) and (2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Benefit Finance Securities, LLC stated that Benefit Finance Securities, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Benefit Finance Securities, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Benefit Finance Securities, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) and (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
