Consequently, I make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. 1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursements records entries in the Bank of America account noting no difference.
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2015, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2015, noting no differences.

I was not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. Had I performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to my attention that would have been reported to you.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Consilium Partners LLC
Boston, Massachusetts

I have examined management's assertion included in its representation letter dated February 22, 2016 that Consilium Partners LLC maintained effective internal control over financial reporting and safeguarding securities as of December 31, 2015 and the Company was in compliance with 17 C.F.R. sec. 240.15c3-1 (the "net capital rule") as of December 31, 2015 and the information used to state that the company was in compliance with the net capital rule was derived from the Company's books and records. The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal control over compliance that has the objective of providing the Company with reasonable assurance that non-compliance with the net capital rule be prevented or detected on a timely basis. My responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's statements based on my examination.

I conducted my examination in accordance with the standards of the public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that I plan and perform the examination to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Company's internal control over compliance was effective during the period January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015; the Company complied with the net capital rule as of December 31, 2015; and the information used to assert compliance with the net capital rule as of December 31, 2015 was derived from the Company's books and records. My examination includes testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control over compliance, testing and evaluating the Company's compliance with the net capital rule and reserve requirements rule, determining whether the information used to assert compliance with the net capital rule and reserve requirements rule was derived from the Company's books and records, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

I believe that my examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Sincerely,

George J. Roberts, CPA, PC

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying exemption statement report, in which (1) Consilium Partners LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which Consilium Partners LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (exemption provision—(k)(2)(i)) Consilium Partners LLC stated that Consilium Partners LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Consilium Partners LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Consilium Partners LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) exemption provision of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Dear George:

In connection with your annual audit of Consilium, we are providing this letter confirming the exemption we claim under SEC Rule 15c3-3 regarding reserves related to customer funds or securities. As a 'non-carrying' broker, we believe Consilium qualifies for an exemption under paragraph (k)(2)(i) which states "The provisions of this rule shall not be applicable to a broker or dealer that does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers and effectuates all financial transactions between the broker or dealer and its customers through one or more bank accounts". As you know, Consilium does not and has never held customer funds or securities or owe money for securities to customers.

Further we hereby confirm that Consilium met this exemption provision throughout 2015 without exception.

Please let me know if you have any comments or questions.

Sincerely,

Richard D. Briggs Jr.

Note 2 - Summary of significant accounting policies.

This summary of significant accounting policies of the Company is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management who is responsible for its integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the presentation of the financial statements.

Revenue recognition:

Advisory revenues are recognized in two different types of engagements. The first consists of a monthly retainer fee for advisory services based on the signed engagement. The second consisting of advising, consulting and execution in a merger, acquisition or a capital raise, in which the engagement is signed and the revenue is based on the percentage in the signed engagement.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents:

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly-liquid, short term investments with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

Concentrations of credit risk:

The Company deposits the majority of its cash in one commercial bank. From time to time, cash balances in this account exceed federally-insured limits.
