STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

DECEMBER 31, 2015

Brittany Capital Group, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statement
December 31, 2015

1. General

Brittany Capital Group, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer and is subject to regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

The Company works with alternative asset managers, assisting them in raising capital from institutional investors. In addition, the Company provides corporate finance advisory services.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

Fees include cash retainers which are earned when the contract is executed, advisory fees which are earned ratably over the contract, and transaction success fees which are recorded when the financing closes.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

Deferred taxes represent the tax effects of differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities at the enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. The Company evaluates the recoverability of deferred tax assets and establishes a valuation allowance when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Income tax expense consists of the tax payable for the period and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities, net of any valuation allowance.

The Company has adopted the authoritative guidance under ASC No. 740 "Income Taxes" relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. This standard prescribes a more-likely-than-not threshold for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken by the Company. As of December 31, 2015, the Company determined that it had no uncertain tax positions which affected its financial position, its results of operations or its cash flows. The Company will continue to evaluate for uncertain tax positions in the future. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations for years before 2012.

3. Administration Agreement

The Company has entered into an administration agreement whereby facilities, equipment and office services are provided. The agreement commenced May 1, 2005. This agreement was amended on October 1, 2013 to occupy an additional office. The agreement is on a month-to-month basis, for a monthly fee of $6,080 plus additional miscellaneous fees unless either party cancels.

4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the uniform net capital requirements of Rule 15c3-1 of the SEC, which requires a broker-dealer to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to cover current indebtedness. In accordance with the rule, the Company is required to maintain defined minimum net capital to the greater of $5,000, or 1/15 of aggregate indebtedness as defined. At no time may the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $90,452, which exceeded its required minimum net capital of $5,000 by $85,452. Aggregate indebtedness at December 31, 2015 totaled $3,200. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.035 to 1.

Should the need arise, the stockholders intend to infuse sufficient working capital to ensure continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements and fund working capital as necessary.

5. Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company does not maintain margin accounts for its customers and, therefore, there were no excess margin securities.

100% of revenue in 2015 was from two customers.

6. Taxes

The primary temporary difference and its deferred income tax effect as of December 31, 2015 is as follows:

Deferred tax asset:
Net operating loss carry-forward	$ 40,300
Less: Valuation allowance	(40,300)
Net deferred tax asset	$ -

As of December 31, 2015, the Company has available approximately $155,000 of unused operating loss carryforwards expiring through 2034, of which approximately $42,000 is going to be utilized to offset current year's taxable income.

At December 31, 2015, management of the Company believes that it is more likely than not that the Company will not generate a sufficient level of taxable income within the foreseeable future to utilize the deferred tax assets. Accordingly, a valuation allowance has been recorded to cover the entire deferred tax asset balance at December 31, 2015. The valuation allowance has decreased from 2014 by $12,300.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events occurring between the year ended December 31, 2015 and February 11, 2016, the date the financial statement was available for issuance.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders
of Brittany Capital Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Brittany Capital Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2015, and the related notes to the financial statements. This financial statement is the responsibility of Brittany Capital Group, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Brittany Capital Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2015 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
