PROSPERO CAPITAL, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2015

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Prospero Capital, LLC ("the Company") is a broker-dealer, registered with the Securities Exchange Commission ("SEC"), a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). The Company was organized in the State of Connecticut on January 11, 2000.

As is typical in the industry, the Company engages in activities with various financial institutions and brokers. In the event these counter parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risks.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash accounts, which are not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties, and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash balances in excess of FDIC and similar insurance coverage are subject to the usual banking risks associated with funds in excess of those limits. At December 31, 2015, the Company had no uninsured cash balances.

Commission Income

The Company's commission income is substantially derived from consulting contracts. Commissions are recorded as earned.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its member, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be a Limited Liability Company for both federal and state income tax purposes. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the members of a Limited Liability Company are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position included an entity's status, including its status as a pass-through entity, and the decision not to file a tax return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that no provision or liability for income taxes is necessary. The shareholders and the Company are generally not subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax examinations related to the Company's activities for tax years before 2011.

At December 31, 2015, the Company had excess net capital of $5,259 and a net capital ratio of 0.3%.

Note 3 – Commitments and contingencies

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors and Members
Prospero Capital, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Prospero Capital, LLC Exemption Report, in which (1) Prospero Capital, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which Prospero Capital, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Prospero Capital, LLC stated that Prospero Capital, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Prospero Capital, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Prospero Capital, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
