GLEN EAGLE WEALTH LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2015

1. General

Glen Eagle Wealth, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware on June 19, 2002 for the purpose of doing business as a fully disclosed broker dealer registered under The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company commenced business operations on May 9, 2003 and was originally named Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Glen Eagle Investments, Inc. On July 1, 2015, Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC was renamed Glen Eagle Wealth, LLC. At the same time a new company was formed and named Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC. The new Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC assumed the Registered Investment Advisor activities that had previously been a part of the Company. Now, Glen Eagle Wealth, LLC, operates as a fully disclosed broker dealer and Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC operates as a Registered Investment Advisor. Both firms remain wholly owned subsidiaries of Glen Eagle Investments, Inc.

The Company acts as a broker dealer and is exempt from The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph k (2) (ii) and is not responsible for compliance with Section 4(c) of Regulations T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as all customer accounts, as defined by such rules, are carried by the clearing firm.

2. Regulation

The Company is registered as a broker/dealer with the SEC. The securities industry in the United States is subject to extensive regulation under both federal and state laws. The SEC is the federal agency responsible for the administration of the federal securities laws. Much of the regulation of broker/dealers has been delegated to self-regulatory organizations, such as the FINRA, which is designated by the SEC as the Company's primary regulator. These self-regulatory organizations adopt rules, subject to approval by the SEC, that govern the industry and conduct periodic examinations of the Company's operations. The primary purpose of these requirements is to enhance the protection of customer assets. These laws and regulatory requirements subject the Company to standards of solvency with respect to capital requirements, financial reporting requirements, record keeping and business practices.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash Equivalents –

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and in the bank, as well as all short-term securities held for the primary purpose of general liquidity. Such securities normally mature within three months from the date of acquisition.

Due from Broker –

Receivables consist primarily of commissions earned as an introducing broker dealer pertaining to the sale of mutual funds and variable annuities. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its receivables and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts, if necessary, based on credit considerations. At December 31, 2015, there no allowance was required for this receivable.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Property and Equipment –

Property and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated using the double-declining method or the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of five or seven years.

Revenue Recognition –

Commission income and related expenses, including clearing charges, are recorded on a trade date basis as securities transactions occur.

Use of Estimates –

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes –

As the Company is a single member limited liability company, it is not a taxpaying entity for federal or state income tax purposes. The member is taxed individually on the taxable income, whether or not distributed, and may be entitled to deduct any losses. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

Concentration of Credit Risk –

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counter parties primarily include broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions. In the event counter parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the credit worthiness of the counter party or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit worthiness of each counter party.

Financial instruments that are potentially subject to credit risk include cash and cash equivalents and amounts due from broker. The balances in these accounts may periodically exceed federally insured limits.

4. Related Parties

The Company has related party balances with its registered investment advisor affiliate, Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC, a related party through common ownership under an expense sharing agreement. As of December 31, 2015, Glen Eagle Advisors, LLC, owes the Company $36,585. The sole source of commission income of the Company is derived from the clients whose assets are managed by the affiliated company.

5. Restricted Cash

At December 31, 2015, the Company had $25,000 deposited with Pershing, L.L.C. ("Pershing"), which is the entity the Company uses as its clearing broker. Per the terms of the clearing agreement with Pershing, the Company must maintain a balance of $25,000 deposited at all times.

6. Property and Equipment

At December 31, 2015, property and equipment consists of:

Computer equipment	$	31,259
Furniture and fixtures		10,541
Telephone system		1,837
Less: Accumulated depreciation		(31,421)
Total property and equipment, net	$	12,216

An adjustment of $5,837 was made in 2015 to reduce depreciation expense and correct recorded accumulated depreciation.

7. Commitments

The Company is a party to leases for its office space and certain equipment. Future minimum lease payments for all leases with terms of one year or more are as follows:

Year Ending December 31, 2016	$	63,617
----------------------------------	----	---------------

Rent expense for the above operating leases amounted to $66,425 for the year ended December 31, 2015.

8. Limited Liability Company

Since the Company is a limited liability company, no member manager, agent or employee of the Company shall be liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company. The duration of the Company is perpetual.

December 31, 2015

9. Minimum Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to The Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum regulatory net capital, as defined, and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to regulatory net capital not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2015, the Company's net capital under these rules was $44,176 which was $37,808 in excess of its minimum requirement of $6,368. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 2.16 to 1.

10. Customer Protection Rule

The Company had no items reportable as customers' fully paid securities: (1) not in the Company's possession or control as of the audit date (for which instructions to reduce to-possession or control had been issued as of the audit date) but for which the required action was not taken by the Company within the time frames specified under SEC Rule 15c3-3 or (2) for which instructions to reduce to possession or control has not been issued as of the audit date, excluding items arising from "temporary lags which result from normal business operations" as permitted under SEC Rule 15c3-3.

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to the exemptive provisions under sub-paragraph (k)(2)(ii).

11. Off Balance Sheet Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company's activities may expose it to off-balance sheet credit risk in the event a counterparty or customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations. The Company is therefore exposed to risk of loss on these transactions in the event of a counterparty being unable to meet the terms of their contracts, which may require the Company to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices.

12. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated events occurring after December 31, 2015 and through February 26, 2016, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, to determine whether any items were noted, which necessitated adjustments to or disclosure in the financial statements. No such subsequent events were identified.
