In forming our opinion on Schedule I, we evaluated whether Schedule I, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, Schedule I is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note A – Organization and Nature of Business

McNamee Lawrence Securities, LLC (the “Company” or “MLS”) is registered as a broker-dealer in securities under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”) and is a non clearing member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company was created pursuant to the corporation laws of the State of Maine in October 1998. The Company does not carry customer accounts and is accordingly exempt from the Act’s rule 15c3-3 (the Customer Protection Rule) pursuant to provision k(2)(i) of that rule.

The Company engages in the investment banking business by providing financial advisory services primarily to institutional customers, advising and arranging capital sourcing, mergers and acquisitions, and providing fairness opinions.

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of McNamee Lawrence & Co. LLC (“MLC”).

Note B – Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue

Revenues are recorded by MLS when MLC or its affiliate has earned its related revenue and the amount of income earned is reasonably determinable and collectible.

Cash

The Company considers all balances in demand deposit bank accounts to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

MLC as the sole member has elected to treat the Company as a disregarded entity for income tax purposes and includes the Company’s income and deductions in its tax returns. Thus, generally, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes is included in these financial statements.

The Company's current policy is that taxes due or paid, relating to the filing of the consolidated tax return, will be the sole responsibility of MLC. MLC intends not to have the Company reimburse or be reimbursed for any taxes due or reduction of tax on the consolidated level attributable to the Company. Accordingly, no liability for uncertain tax positions has been reflected in these financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Evaluation of Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated the effect which subsequent events may have on these financial statements through February 26, 2016, the date these financial statements became available to be issued.

Note C – Related Party Transactions

MLS and MLC have common Officers and Directors which may result in conflicts of interest (such as allocation of employee time and overhead expenses) in the course of their management of the Company's operations.

MLC or its affiliate will pay MLS a certain agreed upon amount per transaction closed by MLC for its services as a broker dealer. For the year ended December 31, 2015, MLS earned a fee of $20,000 for revenue generated by MLC. MLS has recorded an accounts receivable due from parent of $20,000 as of December 31st 2015 for the amount of revenue received on its behalf by MLC from its client.

MLC and MLS have an agreement whereby MLC or its affiliate will allocate to MLS a certain agreed upon amount of specific expenses incurred for providing certain support services. For the year ended December 31, 2015 a total of $6,460 in expenses was charged by an affiliate of MLC to MLS.

As of December 31, 2015, MLS owed MLC and an affiliate $5,551 and $17,765 respectively for reimbursement of certain expenses paid on its behalf. MLC intends to fund any operating cash needs of the Company through capital contributions at least through 2015. MLS received from MLC capital contributions totaling $30,000 for the year ended December 31, 2015. With limited expenses, it is expected the Company will be able to meet its obligations through at least February 2016.

Note D – Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker/dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the basic method, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness may change on a daily basis. As of December 31st, 2015, the Company had net capital of $15,932 which was $10,932 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as of December 31st, 2015 was 3.10 to 1.
