NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2016

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Nature of Business - The Company, a California corporation, is a securities broker-dealer which, through registered representatives and the Company principals, generates commissions through sales of various products and generates fees through investment management and advisory services.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - Unless otherwise indicated, the fair values of all reported assets and liabilities which represent financial instruments (none of which are held for trading purposes) approximate the carrying values of such amounts.

Accounting Method - The Company utilizes the accrual method of accounting for financial statement reporting. Under this method, revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Cash Equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts - The Company considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. There were no commissions written off during the year.

Securities - Marketable securities are valued at market value. The resulting difference between cost and market is included in income.

Depreciation - Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over periods of five to seven years, the useful lives of the furniture and equipment.

Income Tax - The Company uses an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for material differences between the financial statement and tax basis of amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Deferred taxes are provided for unrealized gain on investment securities, depreciation timing differences, and net operating loss carryovers. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax liabilities to the amount due for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2016

- NOTE 2 - The Company is exempt from the computation for determination of reserve requirements for brokers-dealers under rule 15c3-3 because customer accounts are not maintained.
- NOTE 3 - The Company has no liabilities subordinate to the claims of general creditors at March 31, 2016.
- NOTE 4 - Cash and cash equivalents are represented by checking and money market accounts. As of March 31, 2016 the amount of cash balances reflected on various financial institutions' records exceeded the federally insured limits by $423,426.
- NOTE 5 - The Company has contracted for errors and omissions insurance for the period March 29, 2016 through March 29, 2017 for itself and its registered representatives. The total premium for the policy period will be $155,703. As of March 31, 2016 the portion of the premium earned by the insurance provider for three days is not material. The Company has made a down payment of $23,355 and received reimbursements of $19,415. The unpaid balance of the premium has not been included in accounts payable as the Company has the right to cancel the policy at any time and only be obligated to the insurance provider for the earned portion. The Company anticipates recovering substantially all of the premium from its registered representatives. Any excess received from the registered representatives is reflected in the financial statements as a reduction of legal and litigation expenses or as other income.
