NOTE 1: GENERAL AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Financial Services International Corp. (the "Company") was incorporated in the State of Washington on December 15, 1994. The Company is a registered broker-dealer in securities under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

The Company is engaged in business as a securities broker-dealer, that provides several classes of services, including the retail sale of corporate debt and equity securities, mutual fund, life insurance policies, and annuities. The Company provides underwriting and investment advisory services to its clientele and is a Registered Investment Advisor.

Under its membership agreement with FINRA and pursuant to Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), the Company is exempt from the requirement of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pertaining to the possession or control of customer assets and reserve requirements.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Management's use of estimates - The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur. Financial advisory fees are recognized as earned on a quarterly basis over the term of the contract and are recorded when received.

Receivables - Commission receivables are stated at face amount with no allowance for doubtful accounts. An allowance for doubtful accounts is not considered necessary because probable uncollectible accounts are immaterial.

NOTE 1: GENERAL AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Income taxes - The Company accounts for its income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. This standard requires the establishment of a deferred tax asset or liability to recognize the future tax effects of transactions that have not been recognized for tax purposes, including taxable and deductible temporary differences as well as net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized as a result of changes in the tax basis of an asset or liability when measured against its reported amount in the financial statements.

Subsequent events - The Company has adopted authoritative standards of accounting for and the disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. These standards require the Company to recognize in the financial statements the effects of all recognized subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet. For non-recognized subsequent events that must be disclosed to keep the financial statements from being misleading, the Company is required to disclose the nature of the event as well as an estimate of its financial effect, or a statement that such estimate cannot be made. In addition, the Company is required to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated. The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the issuance of their financial statements (See Note 9).

NOTE 2: DEPOSIT AT CLEARING ORGANIZATION

The Company has a brokerage agreement with its clearing firm to carry its account and the accounts of its clients as customers of the clearing firm. The clearing firm has custody of the Company's cash balances which serve as collateral for any amounts due to the clearing firm as well as collateral for securities sold short or securities purchased on margin. Interest is paid monthly on these cash deposits at the average overnight repurchase rate. The balance at June 30, 2016 was $33,135.

NOTE 3: INCOME TAXES

The current and deferred portions of the income tax expense (benefit) included in the Statement of

	Current	Deferred	Valuation Allowance	Total

The Company is required to file income tax returns in both federal and state tax jurisdictions. The Company's tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities in the jurisdictions in which it operates in accordance with the normal statutes of limitations in the applicable jurisdiction. For federal purposes, the statute of limitations is three years. Accordingly, the Company is no longer subject to examination of federal returns filed more than three years prior to the date of these financial statements. The statute of limitations for state purposes is generally three years, but may exceed this limitation depending upon the jurisdiction involved. Returns that were filed within the applicable statute remain subject to examination. As of June 30, 2016, the IRS has not proposed any adjustment to the Company's tax position.

NOTE 4: RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company entered into an expense sharing agreement with an affiliated company related by common ownership, whereby the Company has agreed to pay three quarters of the phone, internet, liability insurance, and lease expense. During the year ended June 30, 2016, the Company paid $36,251 for those expenses.

It is possible that the terms of certain of the related party transactions are not the same as those that would result for transactions among wholly unrelated parties.

NOTE 5: RETIREMENT PLAN

The Company established a SIMPLE plan effective January 1, 2005. All employees are eligible to participate. No matching contributions were made for the year ended June 30, 2016.

NOTE 6: STOCK COMPENSATION

In 2005, the Company implemented a stock bonus program for one of its employees. Each year 10% of the previous calendar year's W-2 wages is awarded to the employee in order to purchase restricted stock in the Company. The stock is restricted for seven years from the date of issue. At June 30, 2015, the Company had issued restricted shares totaling 3,339, under this program.

Financial Services International Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2016

NOTE 7: GUARANTEES

FASB ASC 460, Guarantees, requires the Company to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. FASB ASC 460 defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying factor (such as an interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a specified event) related to an asset, liability or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement as well as indirect guarantees of indebtedness of others.

NOTE 8: CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counter-parties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counter-parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counter-party or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counter-party.

NOTE 9: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated events subsequent to the balance sheet date for items requiring recording or disclosure in the financial statements. The evaluation was performed through the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Based upon this review, the Company has determined that there were no events which took place that would have a material impact on its financial statements.

NOTE 10: RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

For the year ending June 30, 2016, various ASUs issued by the FASB were either newly issued or had effective implementation dates that would require their provisions to be reflected in the financial statements for the year then ended. The Company has either evaluated or is currently evaluating the implications, if any, of each of these pronouncements and the possible impact they may have on the Company's financial statements. In most cases, management has determined that the pronouncement has either limited or no application to the Company and, in all cases, implementation would not have a material impact on the financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTE 11: NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change day to day, but on June 30, 2016, the Company had net capital of $28,448 which was $23,448 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000; and the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness ($60,646) to net capital was 2.13 to 1.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Assertions Regarding Exemption Provisions, in which (1) Financial Services International Corp. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which Financial Services International Corp. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Financial Services International Corp. stated that Financial Services International Corp. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.
