These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Note A - Nature of Organization and Operations

First Kentucky Securities Corporation and subsidiary ("the Company"), a Kentucky C-corporation, is a full service broker-dealer with offices in Lexington and Louisville, Kentucky. The Company is registered as a securities broker-dealer and registered investment advisor under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and is a member of Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company specializes in providing financial advisory services to public entities and in the trading and underwriting of Kentucky tax free municipal bonds.

First Kentucky Securities Corporation's wholly owned subsidiary, First Credit Advisors, Inc. provides consulting and advisory services to institutions in states other than Kentucky. The subsidiary had limited activity in fiscal years 2016 and 2015, respectively.

The consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015 include all the transactions for First Kentucky Securities Corporation and First Credit Advisors. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Note B - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

- 1. Basis of Accounting: The consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC"), as produced by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"), is the sole source of authoritative GAAP.
- 2. Use of Estimates: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- 3. Cash and Cash Equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are not segregated and on deposit for regulatory purposes to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents include money market funds and deposits with banks.
- 4. Revenue Recognition and Accounts Receivable: The Company's securities transactions and the related profit or loss are recorded on a trade date basis. Revenues and fees from advisory, consulting, account management and other income are recognized when the related service has been performed by the Company.

The Company uses an independent broker-dealer to serve as their clearing house and customer account record keeper. This broker-dealer processes and settles all of the Company's transactions with the national exchanges. As a result, from time-to-time, the Company will have amounts owed to it from this broker/dealer for commissions and fees earned. As of September 30, 2016 and 2015, the Company had commission's receivable (recorded in accounts receivable) from the clearing house of approximately $218,000 and $212,000, respectively. Other receivables are due from certain financial institutions for whom the Company provides advisory services. The management of the Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded. If the accounts receivable becomes uncollectible, write-offs will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

- 5. Securities Held in Inventory: The Company purchases and holds certain municipal bonds and certain preferred stock that it deems saleable, and records the purchase cost. The Company carries these investments at fair value in accordance with FASB ASC 820. The result in differences between cost and estimated fair value (unrealized gains and losses) are included in the consolidated statements of income at the end of a reporting period. When a security is sold from inventory, a realized gain or loss is recognized. The period of time these securities are held is usually less than sixty days.
- 6. Fair Value Measurements: The Company applies GAAP for fair value measurements of financial assets that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. GAAP also establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.
- 7. Good Faith Deposit: Periodically, the Company will commit to purchase certain municipal bonds upon issuance. As part of the commitment, the Company is often required to make a deposit to secure their buying position.
- 8. Property and Equipment: Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives in accordance with the straight line depreciation method. The cost, accumulated depreciation and net book value of property and equipment are listed in Note E. Depreciation expense was $0 and $7,391 during fiscal years 2016 and 2015, respectively.
- 9. Intangible Asset: Intangible asset is comprised of an acquired company's book of business (customer related). Amortization of intangible asset is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of five years. Amortization expense for fiscal years 2016 and 2015 was $23,800 each year.
- 10. Deposit held with Clearing House: As part of the broker-dealer agreement described in Note B4, the Company is required to maintain a $100,000 cash deposit with the clearing house. The Company has complete ownership and receives interest income on the funds, but is required to maintain the deposit as security until termination of the agreement with the clearing house.
- 11. Deferred Revenue: During 2011, the Company entered into a three year contract extension with RBC Dain for Dain to be the Company's clearing house. In exchange for this extension, the Company received $100,000. The $100,000 received was recognized as revenue over the life of the extension period which concluded during fiscal year 2015. Amounts amortized into income were $0 and $27,778 during fiscal years 2016 and 2015.
- 12. Net Capital Requirements: Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("the Rule"), the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital of not less than $100,000. The Rule also requires that the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceed 15 to 1 as computed under the Rule. The Corporation makes and files the required net capital calculations as necessary. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness at September 30, 2016 and 2015 are shown on page 17 of this report, as a component of supplementary information.

13. Income Taxes: The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC provisions for income taxes. Under the asset and liability method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the consolidated financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The ASC standards also require recognition and measurement of uncertain income tax positions using a "more-likely-than-not" approach. There are no deferred income taxes as of September 30, 2016 and 2015.

The Company's policy for interest and penalties on material uncertain tax positions recognized in the consolidated financial statements is to classify these as interest expense and operating expense, respectively. Management has determined that the Company does not have any uncertain tax positions and associated unrecognized benefits that significantly impact the consolidated financial statements or related disclosures.

Since tax matters are subject to some degree of uncertainty, there can be no assurance that the Company's tax returns will not be challenged by the taxing authorities and that the Company will not be subject to additional tax, penalties, and interest as a result of such challenge.

- 14. Advertising Costs: Advertising costs are expensed as incurred except for advertising costs that have a contractual life. Advertising costs with a contractual life are amortized over the life of the contract. Advertising costs included in the accompanying consolidated statements of income were $26,717 and $26,862 for the years ended September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.
- 15. Book Value per Share: Total book value per share was approximately $3,709 and $3,885, as of September 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.
- 16. Subsequent Events: Subsequent events of the Company have been considered through the date of the Independent Auditor's Report which represents the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.
- 17. New Accounting Guidance: The FASB issued new guidance in May 2014 that requires use of a single principles-based model for recognition of revenue from contracts with customers. The core principle of the model is that revenue is recognized upon the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the expected consideration to be received for the goods or services. The guidance is effective for the Company on October 1, 2019 and allows for either a full retrospective or modified approach at adoption. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting the guidance.

The FASB issued new guidance for the accounting for leases in February 2016. The new guidance requires lessees to recognize assets and liabilities arising from substantially all leases. The guidance is effective for the Company on October 1, 2020 and requires a modified retrospective approach at adoption. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting the guidance.

Note C - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The FASB's ASC contains guidance regarding the required disclosures about fair value measurements. In particular, this guidance requires (i) separate disclosure of the amounts of significant transfers in and out of Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements along with the reasons for such transfers, (ii) information about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements to be presented separately in the reconciliation for Level 3 fair value measurements, (iii) fair value measurement disclosures for each class of assets and liabilities and (iv) disclosures about the valuation techniques and inputs used to measure fair value for both recurring and nonrecurring fair value measurements for fair value measurements that fall in either Level 2 or Level 3.

Securities held in inventory are carried at fair value at September 30, 2016 and 2015. Investment income or loss (including interest, dividends, and realized gains and losses) and unrealized gains and losses related to securities held in inventory are reported as gains or losses in the consolidated statements of income.

The Company follows the fair value provisions of the ASC. These provisions define fair value as the price that would be received to sell the asset or paid to transfer the liability to a market participant. They also establish a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. These tiers include the following categories:

- Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. An active market for the asset or liability is a market in which the transaction for the asset or liability occurs with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.
- Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or model-derived valuations.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data. These inputs reflect a company's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Company believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The Company utilizes a clearing house for the valuation of the majority of securities held. This clearing house is an independent, third party vendor recognized to be an industry leader with access to market information who obtains or computes fair values from quoted market prices, pricing for similar securities, recently executed transactions, cash flow models with yield curves and other pricing models. For valuations obtained from the clearing house, the Company performs due diligence to understand how the valuation was calculated or derived, focusing on the valuation technique used and the nature of the inputs.

The following section describes the valuation methodologies used to measure different financial instruments at fair value, including an indication of the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the instrument is generally classified.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The valuation of securities that are actively traded or have quoted prices are classified as Level 1. These securities include money market funds and U.S. Treasury bills.

Securities Held in Inventory

Securities valued using Level 1 inputs would include highly liquid government bonds for which quoted market prices are available. Securities using Level 2 inputs are valued using pricing for similar securities, recently executed transactions, cash flow models with yield curves and other pricing models utilizing observable inputs. Most fixed income securities are valued using Level 2 inputs. Level 2 includes municipal bonds, corporate senior notes and preferred securities.

Assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis are summarized below:
