Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.
Greensburg, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. (a Pennsylvania corporation), as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of loss and comprehensive loss, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Computations of Net Capital and Aggregate Indebtedness and Schedule of General and Administrative Expenses have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.'s financial statements. This supplementary information is the responsibility of Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplementary information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplementary information. In forming our opinion on the supplementary information, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Computations of Net Capital and Aggregate Indebtedness and Schedule of General and Administrative Expenses are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. (Company) was organized on June 16, 1986 and incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania. The Company is a non-carrying broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is headquartered in Greensburg, Pennsylvania. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation (SIPC).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding these financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. The accounting policies used conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of these financial statements.

Method of Accounting

These financial statements have been prepared using the accrual method of accounting, recognizing income when earned and expenses when incurred. Securities transactions and related commission revenues are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day after the trade date.

Fully Disclosed Basis

The Company is associated with RBC Correspondent Services, a division of RBC Capital Markets, LLC (RBC) (Clearing Broker), a member of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., on a fully disclosed basis in connection with the execution and clearance of the securities transactions effected by the Company. In accordance with the Clearing Agreement, the Company is required to provide a clearing deposit in the amount of $25,000 as of December 31, 2016, upon which the Clearing Broker pays interest at prevailing rates. The clearing deposit account is listed separately on the statement of financial condition.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Date of Management's Review

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 10, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition - Commissions and Fees

Revenues are recognized in the periods in which the related services are performed provided that persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

Commission and fee revenue represents gross commissions and fees generated by our representatives for their clients' purchases and sales of securities, and various other financial products such as mutual funds, variable annuities, and life insurance policies. We generate two types of commission and fee revenue: front-end sales commissions that occur at the point of sale, as well as trailing fees for which we provide ongoing support, awareness, and education to clients.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

We recognize front-end sales commissions as revenue on a trade-date basis, which is when our performance obligations in generating the commissions have been substantially completed. We earn commissions on a significant volume of transactions that are placed by our representatives directly with product sponsors, particularly with regard to mutual fund, 529 plan, and variable annuity and insurance products. As a result, management must estimate a portion of its commission revenues earned from clients for purchases and sales of these products for each accounting period for which the proceeds have not yet been received. These estimates are based on the amount of commissions earned from transactions relating to these products in prior periods.

Commission and fee revenue includes mutual fund, 529 plan and variable product trailing fees which are recurring in nature. These trailing fees are earned by us, based on a percentage of the current market value of clients' investment holdings in trail-eligible assets, and recognized over the period during which services are performed. Because trail fee revenues are generally paid in arrears, management estimates the majority of trail fee revenues earned during each period. These estimates are based on a number of factors including market levels and the amount of trail fee revenues received in prior periods.

A substantial portion of our commission and fee revenue is ultimately paid to our representatives. We record an estimate for commissions payable based upon payout ratios for each product for which we have accrued commission revenue and fees. Such amounts are recorded by us as commission expense.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. The Company accounts for bad debts using the direct charge-off method, directly expensing receivables which management deems uncollectible, or realizable at less than full value. The direct charge-off method provides results similar to the reserve method in all material respects. Based on management's assessment of the credit history with its customers having outstanding balances and current relationships with them, it has concluded that realization losses on balances outstanding at year end will be immaterial.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Securities Owned

The Company carries securities primarily to help meet its net capital requirement under the Securities Exchange Act. It will also at times in the ordinary course of business receive shares of stock in "venture" type companies as compensation for its role in helping them raise capital. Equity securities classified as "available-for-sale" are reported at their fair values, in accordance with FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement, based upon quoted market prices. Equity securities with no readily available market are carried at cost. Unrealized gains and losses are excluded from earnings and reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity. Realized gains and losses are computed based on specific identification of the securities sold.

Capitalization and Depreciation

Office equipment, in excess of $5,000, is recorded at acquisition cost and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets using the straight-line and accelerated method for financial and tax reporting, respectively.

Advertising and Promotion

The Company expenses the cost of advertising and promotion as incurred. Advertising and promotion expense was $23,769 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due. Deferred income taxes on the temporary differences between the basis of asset and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes have not been recorded in these financial statements due to the immaterial nature of these differences. It is the Company's policy not to take uncertain tax positions.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $50,406, and a net capital ratio (aggregate indebtedness divided by net capital) of 9.53 to 1.

Pursuant to Rule 17a-5, the Company is required to file a computation of net capital as of the audit date. Rule 17a-5(d)(4) requires reporting on any material differences between the audited computation and the Company's computation. At December 31, 2016, there were no material differences.

4. Securities Owned

Securities owned at December 31, 2016 consist of the following:

FDIC insured deposit account		$	41,408
Equity securities - available-for-sale:
Cost	53,343
Net unrealized loss	(25,462)
			27,881
		$	69,289

The unrealized loss is reported as accumulated other comprehensive income as a separate component in stockholders' equity. During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company sold 500 shares of Preferred APT Communities for $7,223, with a cost basis of $5,160, resulting in a capital gain of $2,063, of which $1,380 was reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income.

5. Regulatory Filings

The statement of financial condition filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission is available for inspection at the principal office of the Corporation and at the Washington D.C. and Regional Office of the Commission.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

6. Pension Plan

The Company maintains a SIMPLE plan for eligible employees and will match up to 3% of employees' elective deferrals. The salaries and related benefits account on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss includes $16,919 of matching contributions by the Company.

7. Income Taxes

The Company accounts for deferred taxes using the asset and liability method. The objective of the asset and liability method is to establish deferred tax assets and liabilities for the temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and the tax basis of the Company's assets at enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when such amounts are realized or settled. The asset and liability as computed for these financial statements assumes that the current tax rates and regulations will be in effect for the year the temporary differences reverse. Accordingly, adjustments to the asset will be necessary in the future should the tax laws change.

For Federal and state income tax purposes, the Company has a net operating loss carryforward of approximately $57,400, that may be offset against future taxable income. The Company estimates that the entire amount of both of these net operating loss carryforwards will be utilized prior to expiration in 2036. At December 31, 2016, deferred assets of $14,300 have been recognized.

Current standards require companies to recognize, measure, present, and disclose uncertain tax positions that have been or are expected to be taken. As such, financial statements will reflect expected future tax consequences of uncertain tax positions presuming the tax authorities' full knowledge of the position and all relevant facts. It is the Company's policy not to take uncertain tax positions. The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities until expiration of the related statutes of limitations on those tax returns. As of December 31, 2016, the Company's open audit periods are 2013 through 2016 for both federal and state purposes. In evaluating the Company's tax provisions and accruals, future taxable income, and the reversal of temporary differences, interpretations and tax planning strategies are considered. The Company believes their estimates are appropriate based on current facts and circumstances.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

7. Income Taxes (Continued)

Differences in total income tax expense and the amount of income tax that would result from applying statutory rates to pretax income are due to permanent differences, primarily meals and entertainment, which are only 50% deductible for Federal and state income tax purposes.

The provision for income taxes in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the year ended December 31, 2016 and the deferred tax asset on the statement of financial condition at December 31, 2016 consists of the following component:

Deferred taxes:

Tax benefit of net operating loss carryforward	$ 14,300
--	------------------

8. Lease Commitments

The Company leases office space under a non-cancellable operating lease, which expires February 2018 and provides for monthly lease payments of $4,755 through February 2016 with a 2 1/2% escalation per year over the remainder of the lease term. The lease is renewable for an additional five years following the above termination date, at a lease rate mutually agreeable. For the year ended December 31, 2016, rent expense under this lease amounted to $60,182, which includes an allocation of certain building operating costs.

The future minimum lease payments required by this office lease are as follows:

Year ending December 31

2017	$ 59,700
2018	9,991
	$ 69,691

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

9. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

10. Related Party Transactions

Trustmont Advisory Group, Inc. (TAG) is a registered investment advisory company that has common ownership and utilizes the same employees and office space as the Company. Most of the equipment and furniture used both by the Company and TAG is owned by either TAG or the majority stockholder of the Company.

Errors and omission insurance for the company and its representatives is provided by Provest Indemnity Limited (PIL). PIL is an offshore captive insurance company, as defined in Internal Revenue Code 831(b), in the British Virgin Islands. The majority stockholder of the Company is the sole shareholder of PIL. Payments to PIL during the year ended December 31, 2016 amounted to $250,000, of which $45,000 was charged to TAG and is reflected as other income in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

The Company rents office space from PIL on a month-to-month basis for $2,500 per month. This expense is included in office rent on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss and amounted to $30,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The Company subleases a portion of their office space to various entities owned by certain shareholders of the Company. Rental income under these subleases amounted to $36,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016 and is included in other income on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

11. Fair Value Measurements

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities the Company has the ability to access.
- Level 2 inputs are inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The unobservable inputs should be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances and may include the Company's own data.

The following table presents the Company's fair value hierarchy for those securities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2016:

	Fair Value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Securities owned:
Ameritrade Money Market	$ 41,408	$ 41,408	$ -	$ -
Domestic equities	27,881	27,881	-	-
	$ 69,289	$ 69,289	$ -	$ -

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2016

12. SEC Rule 15c3-3 Exemption

The Company claims exemption (k) (2)(ii) from rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission as a limited business, engaged in the sale of mutual funds and variable annuities. The Company does not carry securities for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, therefore the following schedules required under rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission have not been included in these financial statements: Schedule II - Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3, Schedule III - Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3, and Schedule IV - Schedule of Segregation Requirements and Funds in Segregation for Customers' Regulated Commodities Futures and Options Accounts.

13. Supplemental Cash Flow Disclosure

Interest paid for the year ended December 31, 2016 amounted to $1,311.

Income tax paid for the year ended December 31, 2016 amounted to $617.

14. FINRA Examination

The Company entered into a settlement with FINRA in September 2016 for several rule violations, from 2012 thru 2015, including failure to retain business-related email, failure to inspect and register branch offices, failure to supervise representatives' use of consolidated reports, failure to supervise a representative's radio program and failure to establish an adequate supervisory system for UIT transactions. Management has taken corrective action to ascertain compliance with these violations. The fine of $100,000 has been satisfied and is included in general and administrative expenses on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Exemption Review Report of Independent
Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.
Greensburg, Pennsylvania

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R § 240.15c3-3:(k)(2)(ii) - (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. stated that Trustmont Financial Group, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Trustmont Financial Group, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
