Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholder
American Equity Capital, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of American Equity Capital, Inc. as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Equity Capital, Inc. as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The supplemental information contained in Schedules I, II, and III has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information contained in Schedules I, II, and III is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

AMERICAN EQUITY CAPITAL, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended December 31, 2016

(1) Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

American Equity Capital, Inc. (the Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of American Equity Investment Life Holding Company (the Parent), was incorporated on February 16, 1998 and commenced operations on April 1, 1998. The Company operates as a broker-dealer, dealing with the sale of annuity products issued by American Equity Investment Life Insurance Company (American Equity Life), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Parent, and annuity products issued by Eagle Life Insurance Company (Eagle Life), a wholly owned subsidiary of American Equity Life.

(b) Commissions and Concession Fee Income

Concession fee income is derived from an agreement with Eagle Life, an affiliated company, by which the Company is paid a percentage of all non-registered product premiums received by Eagle Life in exchange for providing certain training and educational services. Concession fee income is recognized as it is earned.

(c) Income Taxes

The Company's operating income is included in the nonlife subgroup consolidated income tax return of the Parent. Pursuant to the current tax-sharing agreement signed in 2011, the Company will be reimbursed for its net operating losses to the extent such losses are or have been utilized by the consolidated group.

Deferred income tax assets or liabilities are computed based on the difference between the financial statement and income tax bases of assets and liabilities using the enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred income tax expenses or benefits are based on the changes in the net deferred income tax asset or liability from period to period. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

(d) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. It is possible that actual experience could differ from the estimates and assumptions utilized.

AMERICAN EQUITY CAPITAL, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended December 31, 2016

(2) Income Taxes

The income tax expense computed at the statutory rate of 35% varies from the tax benefit reported in the statement of operations as follows:

	2016
Income tax expense at statutory rate	$ 980,670
Change in valuation allowance	(80,050)
State taxes	182,124
Income tax expense as reported	$ 1,082,744

Deferred income taxes have been established by each member of the consolidated group for the tax effect of temporary differences in the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and net operating losses within each entity. The Company's temporary differences relate to the existence of state tax operating loss carryforwards arising since inception, which have not been used in the consolidated group, of $761,144 at December 31, 2016. Management has released the valuation allowance in full because the Company has generated income for the most recent two years and it is more likely than not the company will be able to fully utilize the net operating loss carryforwards. The tax operating loss carryforwards expire as follows: 2030 - $397,434; 2031 - $113,803; 2032 - $171,202; 2033 - $78,705.

As a result of the tax allocation agreement entered into by the Company in 2011, the Company is entitled to be reimbursed for any net operating losses incurred by the Company and used by other members of the consolidated group. The Company recognized tax expense of $1,082,744 during the year ended December 31, 2016, of which $80,050 represents the amount of net operating losses used, or expected to be used, by members of the consolidated group as well as a reversal of the valuation allowance, offset by current year income taxes incurred of $1,162,794.

The Company has adopted the guidance in FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, regarding accounting for income tax uncertainties. There are no unrecognized tax benefits or accruals for interest or penalties recognized in the statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2016 or in the statement of financial position at December 31, 2016. The amount of unrecognized tax benefits reflected in the financial statements is not expected to significantly increase or decrease within the subsequent 12-month period. Generally, the 2013-2015 tax years are subject to examination by taxing authorities.

(3) Regulatory Requirements

(a) Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker and dealer in securities, the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined therein, not to exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the net capital ratio fluctuate on a daily basis, however, at December 31, 2016, the Company had defined net capital of $2,714,185, which was $2,636,611 in excess of its required net capital of $77,574 and the Company's percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 42.87%.

The Company is exempt from maintaining a special reserve bank account under Rule 15c3-3(k)(1).

AMERICAN EQUITY CAPITAL, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year ended December 31, 2016

(4) Related-Party Transactions

On January 1, 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with Eagle Life under which the Company earns a fee equal to 20 basis points (0.20%) of all premiums received by Eagle Life on sales of nonregistered products in exchange for providing certain training and educational services to Eagle Life. These fees totaled $2,904,085 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The Company is a member of a group of affiliated companies which are engaged in the sales of life insurance and annuities. A portion of the Company's other operating expenses are paid to American Equity Life and Eagle Life, both affiliates, and represent an allocation of shared expenses. These shared expenses, which are allocated based on estimated cost, consist primarily of an allocation of overhead expenses and compensation expenses for employees of affiliates of the Company that spend a portion of their time on Company related tasks. The Company's portion of these shared expenses, which is included in other operating expenses in the statements of operations, was $42,400 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

(5) Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 22, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholder
American Equity Capital, Inc.:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying American Equity Capital, Inc. Exemption Report (the Exemption Report), in which (1) American Equity Capital, Inc. (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3 (k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k)(1) (the exemption provisions); and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the year ended December 31, 2016 without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
