Professional Broker-Dealer Financial Planning, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

Description of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Company is a registered broker-dealer incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth of Wyoming. The Company is subject to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Security Transactions

PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. does NOT hold nor carry customer accounts, does NOT do any clearing, and does NOT accept any client investment checks payable to PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC.

PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. does business solely by using the specific investment company public subscription application having all clients make all checks payable to the investment company and mailed directly to the investment company who clears the check, the investment company (mutual funds, etc.) holds all client accounts and mails all statements directly to the clients.

Securities owned are valued at market value by the investment company who holds the client assets. Commission income and investment fees and expenses are recorded upon deposit. Expenses are recorded on date of occurrence.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents. All of the Company's cash and cash equivalents are held at high credit quality financial institutions.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial instruments that are subject to fair value disclosure requirements are carried in the financial statements at amounts that approximate fair value and include cash and cash equivalents. Fair values are based on quoted market prices and assumptions concerning the amount and timing of estimated future cash flows and assumed discount rates reflecting varying degrees of perceived risk.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SIPC

The company is a member of SIPC. SIPC important notice states "Independent Accountant's Report on Applying Agreed Upon Procedures Related to an Entity's SIPC Assessment Reconciliation," in accordance with SEC Rule 17a-5(e)(4) states any company is required to file this report if it's total revenue is $500,000 or more. This company's revenue was less than $500,000 thus no report is required for fiscal year 2016.

Income Taxes

The company is an "S" Corporation, and as such has not provided for income taxes.

Comprehensive Income

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, establishes requirements for disclosure of comprehensive income that includes certain items previously not included in the statement of income, including unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities and foreign currency translation adjustment, among others. During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company did not have any components of comprehensive income to report.

2. Securities Owned

Marketable securities owned consist of trading and investment securities as follows:

Money market	$ 158,352
FINRA deposit	1,131
	$159,483

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2016, the Company had capital of $155,185 which was $150,185 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company had no indebtedness at December 31, 2016.

The following is reconciliation between the Company's computation (included in Part II of Form X-17A-5 as of December 31, 2016 of net capital and the computation based on the audited financial statements.

Net capital, as reported in Company's Part II (Unaudited) Focus Report	$155,185
No adjustments were made during audit	0
Net Capital	$155,185

PCAOB AUDIT REPORT

The audit report expressing an opinion on the financial report of a broker or dealer illustrates the report elements described in SEC Rule 17a-5:

PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. does NOT hold nor carry customer accounts, does NOT do any clearing, does NOT accept any client investment checks payable to PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC.

PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. does business solely by investment company (example mutual fund) using their investment company subscription application having all clients make all checks payable to the investment company and mailed directly to the investment company who clears the check, the investment company (mutual funds) holds all client accounts and mails all statements directly to the clients.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. as of 12/31/2016, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended 2016. These financial statements are the responsibility of PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. as of 12/31/16, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The firm's financial reports have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. financial statements. The firm's financial reports are the responsibility of PROFESSIONAL BROKER-DEALER FINANCIAL PLANNING, INC. management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the firm's financial reports reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the firm's financial reports. In forming our opinion on the firm's financial reports, we evaluated whether the firm's financial reports, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the firm's financial reports are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
