INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Matrix Capital Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Matrix Capital Group, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2016. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Matrix Capital Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2016, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Organization

Matrix Capital Group, Inc. ("the Company") is a registered broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is incorporated under the laws of the state of New York. The Company, like other broker dealers, is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities, changes in interest rates and securities brokerage services, all of which have an impact on the Company's liquidity.

Matrix 360 Holdings, LLC, a holding company, owns approximately 75% of Matrix Capital Group, Inc. as of February 22, 2017.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are the significant accounting policies followed by the Company in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Revenue – Mutual fund commissions, service fees and distribution fees are recognized when earned.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Company includes as cash and cash equivalents amounts invested in money market mutual funds.

Deferred Income Taxes - The Company provides for amounts of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable as of the date of the financial statements, utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the financial statements for the changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities between years. A valuation allowance is recognized if, based on the available evidence, it is more likely than not that some portion of the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

The Company recognizes and discloses uncertain tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). As of, and during the year ended December 31, 2016 the Company did not have liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Company is no longer subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities prior to 2013.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through February 22, 2017 the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined, except as discussed below, that there were no other subsequent events requiring disclosure in these financial statements.

Matrix Capital Group, Inc.
December 31, 2016

3. Related Party Transactions

A note receivable was executed by a former officer/shareholder in the amount of $406,000. The note is payable in full on December 31, 2019 with an interest rate of 4% per annum. At December 31, 2016, the loan balance was $194,984. Interest receivable on the note was $79,899 at December 31, 2016. See Subsequent Events footnote.

4. Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements

The Company will operate in accordance with the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is a member of the FINRA and is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2016 the Company had net capital and net capital requirements, respectively, of $9,659 which was $4,659 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 6.38 to 1.

6. Income Taxes

The Company has available a loss carry-forward of approximately $403,064. Due to the uncertainty of future profits a full valuation is provided.

7. Subsequent Events

The majority shareholder, Matrix 360 Holdings, LLC, intends to vigorously attempt to collect the note receivable of $194,984 and interest receivable on the note of $79,899 at December 31, 2016.

The Company intends to file Form BDW to withdraw their registration from the Securities and Exchange Commission, Self-Regulatory Organizations and appropriate jurisdictions on or about March 3, 2017.
