INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of
Longship Alternative Asset Management
14 Concord Road
Port Washington, NY 11050

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Longship Alternative Asset Management (the Company) as of December 31, 2016. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the statement of financial condition in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the statement of financial condition that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Longship Alternative Asset Management, as of December 31, 2016 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

LONGSHIP ALTERNATIVE ASSET MANAGEMENT, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

DECEMBER 31, 2016

1. Statement of Significant Accounting Policies:

Organization:

Longship Alternative Asset Management, LLC (A Limited Liability Company) was organized under the laws of the state of Delaware and was authorized to do business in New York. The company is registered broker under the Securities and Exchange Commission and became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. formerly the National Associate of Securities Dealers, in October 2003.

Concentration of Risk:

The Company is engaged in various investment and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event these counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the company may be exposed to certain risks. The risk of default depends upon the creditworthiness of the counterparties or issuers of the instrument.

The Company maintains accounts with Chase Bank. The balances at times may exceed the federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

The Company had one (1) customer that made up 100% of consulting revenues for the year ended December 31, 2016. Accounts receivable from this customer were $138,312 as of December 31, 2016.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

Cash equivalents are limited to short term, highly liquid investments that are both readily convertible to known amounts of cash and of an original maturity of three months or less.

Property and Equipment:

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Repairs and maintenance charges, which do not increase the useful lives of assets, are charged to income as incurred.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

DECEMBER 31, 2016

1. Statement of Significant Accounting Policies (continued):

Use of Estimates:

Management uses estimated and assumptions in preparing the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Income taxes:

No provision for federal and state income taxes is made in these financial statements as these taxes are the responsibilities of the members under this form of organization.

2. Property and Equipment

Computer Equipment	$	11,804
Office Equipment		1,491
		13,295
Less: Accumulated depreciation		13,295
	$	-0-

3. Loan Payable:

A member of the Limited Liability Company lent the company $22,000. The loan has no due date and does not have interest.

4. Net Capital Requirements:

Longship Alternative Asset Management, LLC (A Limited Liability Company) is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2016, Longship Alternative Asset Management, LLC (A Limited Liability Company) had net capital of $3,698 after adjustments for non-allowable assets, which was $1,302 in deficient to its required net capital of $5,000.

5. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Credit Risk:

As a broker dealer, Longship Alternative Asset Management, LLC (A Limited Liability Company) is engaged by third party companies to market private placement securities on their behalf. These securities are exempt from registration with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 4(2)-Rule D, No. 506 of the Securities Act.
