Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member of Hudson Housing Securities LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Hudson Housing Securities LLC as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Hudson Housing Securities LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. Hudson Housing Securities LLC is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Hudson Housing Securities LLC's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Hudson Housing Securities LLC as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The supplemental information contained in Schedules I, II and III has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Hudson Housing Securities LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Hudson Housing Securities LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the information contained in Schedules I, II and III is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016

Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Hudson Housing Securities LLC (the Company), a Delaware limited liability company, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hudson Housing Capital LLC (Hudson). The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company acts as the placement agent for affiliated investment partnerships in which limited partnership interests are sold to third party investors. The Company remains in effect in perpetuity unless earlier terminated in accordance with the Operating Agreement.

Material subsequent events have been considered for disclosure and recognition in these financial statements through February 23, 2017.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Placement Fee Receivable

Placement fees receivable consists of placement fees due from affiliated investor limited partnerships. Management considers placement fees receivable to be fully collectible. If amounts become uncollectible, the amounts are charged to operations in the period in which that determination is made. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the allowance method be used to recognize bad debts; however, the effect of using the direct write-off method is not materially different from the results that would have been realized under the allowance method.

Revenue Recognition

The Company earns substantially all of its revenue through fees earned in connection with the sale of limited partnership interests in investment partnerships managed and syndicated by affiliates. Revenue is recognized in the period in which the services are performed, provided evidence of a contractual arrangement exists, services have been completed and the price is fixed and determinable. Revenue is recognized upon admission of limited partners in the affiliated investment partnerships or upon commitment closing.

Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as a pass-through entity for income tax purposes and, as such, is not subject to income taxes. For tax purposes, the Company is included in the consolidated Hudson tax return and does not file a separate federal or state tax return. All items of taxable income, deductions and tax credits are passed through to and are reported by members of Hudson on their respective income tax returns. The Company's federal tax status as a pass-through entity is based on its legal status as a limited liability company. Accordingly, the Company is not required to take any tax positions in order to qualify as a pass-through entity. Therefore, these financial statements do not reflect a provision for income taxes and the Company has no other tax positions which must be considered for disclosure. Income taxes filed by Hudson are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for a period of three years. While no income taxes are currently being examined by the Internal Revenue Service, tax years since 2013 remain open.

Note 2 - Related Party Transactions

Under an agreement with Hudson, certain operating and administrative costs incurred by the Company are paid by Hudson on behalf of the Company. The agreement is renewed annually and revised as needed. As of December 31, 2016, $0 is due to Hudson for costs paid on behalf of the Company. During the year ended December 31, 2016, these services totaled $1,037,583.

Note 3 - Concentration of Credit Risk

At times during the year, cash balances exceed federally insured limits. Management believes the balances are maintained in a credit-worthy institution.

Note 4 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is in compliance with the net capital requirements of the SEC and FINRA. The Company is subject to the SEC "Uniform Net Capital Rule," which requires the maintenance of a specified amount of minimum net capital, as defined, and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, not exceed 15-to-1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $349,715 which is $344,715 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .04 to 1.

3. Compared the adjustment for commissions paid to other SIPC members reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and documentation.
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 noting no differences; and
5. Observed that there were no overpayments applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed.
