REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

415

To the Member of Bourne Partners Securities, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Bourne Partners Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2016, and the related notes to the financial statements. This financial statement is the responsibility of Bourne Partners Securities, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bourne Partners Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2016 in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016

1. Organization

Bourne Partners Securities, LLC (the Company), a wholly owned subsidiary of Bourne Partners Holdings LLC (Parent), was organized under the laws of North Carolina, and conducts its operations in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Company provides advice and assistance to clients regarding mergers and acquisitions, recapitalizations, private capital placement, private equity investments and other financial assignments. The Company is a registered broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting PoliciesCash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and have a maturity of three months or less when acquired to be cash equivalents. Management believes the cash balances are not exposed to any significant credit risk.

Management's Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fee Revenue

The Company's revenues are generated primarily through providing merger and acquisition and private financing placement-related advisory services. The Company receives a success fee typically paid only upon the closing of a related transaction.

Other revenues relate primarily to billable transaction costs. Billable transactions costs include travel, other out-of-pocket expenses, reproduction and other transaction costs incurred by the Company that are billed to customers under the terms of agreements in place with those customers. These costs are expensed as incurred and billed in accordance with agreed-upon terms.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company in which all elements of income and deductions are included in the tax return of the member of the Company. Therefore, no income tax provision is recorded by the Company. The Company does not believe that there are any material uncertain tax positions and accordingly, it will not recognize any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. For the year ended December 31, 2016, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the Company's financial statements. The Company believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2012.

Member Equity

The Company has one class of member's equity and it is owned 100% by the Parent.

Subsequent Events

The Company has analyzed its operations subsequent to December 31, 2016, through February XX, 2017, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

4. Related Party Transactions

The Company entered into an expense sharing agreement with Bourne Capital Partners, LLC, the sole member of Bourne Partners Holdings, LLC, for its pro-rata portion of rent, utilities, administration, etc. Total fees charged for the period ending December 31, 2016 were $15,720.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of $5,000 and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $12,837 and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.78 to 1.
