Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Stockholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The supplemental information on page 10 has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2016

NOTE 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Nature of Business - Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc., ("The Company") is a fully disclosed introducing broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of various exchanges and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company's securities are cleared through a clearing broker-dealer. The Company does not maintain customers' security accounts nor does it perform custodial functions related to customer securities.

Basis of Presentation - The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises several classes of services. The Company's policy is to prepare its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Company charges certain expenses to its brokers including occupancy, insurance, regulatory and exchange fees and professional fees. The expenses in the Statement of Income are presented net of chargebacks.

Securities Transactions - Commission revenues from securities transactions are recognized on a trade-date basis.

Bad Debts - The Company records an allowance for doubtful receivables in amounts equal to the estimated collection losses that will be incurred. Management considers all accounts receivable collectible at December 31, 2016, therefore no allowance is required.

Furniture and Equipment - Furniture and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, primarily 5-10 years, using the straight-line method. Depreciation expense was $5,156 in 2016.

Website Development - Website development costs are amortized on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Investment Advisory Income - Investment advisory fees are recognized as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the contract.

Cash - For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes cash on deposit with federally insured commercial banks, cash on deposit with clearing brokers, and certificates of deposit with original maturities of three months or less.

Use of Estimates - The presentation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Deposits Held In Financial Institutions - The Company maintains its cash balances in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. These accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 per institution and did not exceed the federally insured limit at December 31, 2016.

Subsequent Events - Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 27, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 - Securities Owned

Not Readily Marketable - The Company has investments in two non-publicly traded companies, one consisting of less than 1% of the issued common stock of a real estate investment company and the second consisting of 1% of the issued common stock of Fund Direct Advisors, Inc., a registered investment advisor. These investments are valued at cost, which approximates management's estimate of fair value.

NOTE 3 - Website Development

The following table represents the website development and related accumulated amortization for the year ended December 31, 2016:

Website Development	$ 5,500
Less: Accumulated Amortization	(2,750)
Unamortized Balance	$ 2,750

Amortization expense was $1,833 for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The following table represents future estimated amortization expense for the years ended December 31:

NOTE 4 - Leases

The Company leases its Greensboro office and office equipment under operating lease agreements which expire in 2018. The Company also leases two vehicles under operating leases which expire in 2019. Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 was $31,351. Future minimum lease obligations are as follows at December 31:

2017	$ 51,219
2018	35,406
2019	6,373
	$ 92,998

NOTE 5 - Related Party Transactions

The Company has made unsecured non-interest-bearing advances to stockholders of $34,986 as of December 31, 2016. In addition, the Company receives fees from Fund Direct Advisors, Inc., a related corporation. Fees earned during 2016 were approximately $57,000.

NOTE 6 - Retirement Plan

The Company maintains a Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees of Small Employers. The Company did not contribute to the plan in 2016.

NOTE 7 - Income Taxes

The Company has elected "S" Corporation status. Accordingly, all tax attributes are passed through to the stockholders for both federal and state income-tax purposes.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company implemented the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the positions will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Such tax positions initially and subsequently need to be measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the tax authority assuming full knowledge of the positions and relevant facts. It also provides guidance for derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

As of December 31, 2016, the Company had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements and has incurred no interest or penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state, and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2013.

NOTE 8 - Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $103,118, which was $89,460 in excess of its required net capital of $13,658. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.99 to 1 at December 31, 2016.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Stockholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Statement, in which (1) Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (2)(i) and (2)(ii), and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in paragraphs (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES RELATED TO AN ENTITY'S SIPC ASSESSMENT RECONCILIATION

MAR 01 2017

Washington DC
406

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.:

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7)] on page 3 to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2016, which were agreed to by Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.'s management is responsible for Intercarolina Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2016, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2016, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences; and,
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
