1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Jumpstart Securities, LLC (formerly known as FundAmerica Securities, LLC) (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"). The Company received its approval for membership on October 7, 2011. The Company is a Delaware limited liability company ("LLC"). On February 5, 2013, Arctic Island, LLC acquired Vara Securities, LLC and renamed the company Arctic Island Financial, LLC. The Company then changed its name from Arctic Island Financial, LLC to FundAmerica Securities, LLC effective January 9, 2014. The Company then changed its name from FundAmerica Securities, LLC to Jumpstart Securities, LLC effective July 25, 2016.

The Company operates as a limited purpose broker-dealer and has the ability to participate in investment banking transactions and referrals in privately placed transactions for corporations and other companies with tax flow-through treatment. It may also participate in municipal securities transactions.

Since the Company is an LLC, the members are not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the members have signed a specific guarantee.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and is required by the SEC and FINRA.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed on a straight line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset. The useful life for computer equipment is 5 years.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company is an LLC taxed as a partnership for income tax reporting purposes and as such, is not subject to income tax. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk for cash.

Government and Other Regulation

The Company's business is subject to significant regulation by governmental agencies and self-regulatory organizations. Such regulation includes, among other things, periodic examinations by these regulatory bodies to determine whether the Company is conducting and reporting its operations in accordance with the applicable requirements of these organizations.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized in the month in which the revenue triggering event takes place. This is true for all revenue streams, with the exception of Brokerage Fees earned from contingent offerings. When an offering has a contingency, the Company does not earn its fee until the contingency is met. Once the contingency is met, the brokerage fee on each transaction leading up to the contingency is earned at that point.

Customer Credits and Customer Reserve Accounts

The Company collects funds from investors for specific offerings, which are deposited directly into reserve bank accounts for the exclusive benefit of the customers of the Company. These funds are received in three different methods: ACH, wire, and check. As funds are deposited into these reserve accounts, the firm records liabilities for customer credits. As these funds freely clear the bank's system, the funds are then promptly transferred into the escrow account for that specific offering which are recorded under Segregated Customer Monies.

As funds are distributed from the escrow accounts, to be dispersed via ACH and wire, they are transferred back into the reserve accounts. Once those funds promptly leave the reserve account, the customer credits are thus removed.

Uncollectible Debt

In 2016, the Company wrote off accumulated receivables of $60,603 as uncollectible. These receivables were from 2015 and 2016. The receivables were determined uncollectible after both attempting to collect via ACH with multiple fails and assessment errors. The Company does not normally carry an allowance for uncollectible accounts.

3. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1) under the alternative standard, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of the greater of $250,000 or 2 percent of aggregate debit items based on the reserve formula. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $507,928 which was $257,928 in excess of its required net capital of $250,000.

4. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers, such as clearing and custody agents, trustees and administrators, against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company or its affiliates. The Company also indemnifies some clients against potential losses incurred in the event specified third-party service providers, including subcustodians and third-party brokers, improperly executed transactions. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications. For the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company experienced no material net losses as result of the indemnity.

The Company has evaluated commitments and contingencies in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification 450, Contingencies (ASC 450) and Accounting Standards Codification 440, Commitments (ASC 440). Management has determined that no significant commitments or contingencies exist as of December 31, 2016.

5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

As of December 31, 2016, the Company had a payable of $16,687 due to FundAmerica, LLC, the Company's associated company with certain common ownership. The transactions included in this payable are monthly technology and open escrow account fees. During the year ended December 31, 2016, the company incurred expenses of $559,709 payable to related parties for the services mentioned above as well as rent, professional services, and an allocation of wages for services provided.

6. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date that its financial statements were issued and determined that there are no material subsequent events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements.
