However, deferred taxes payable are not recorded for temporary differences between the recognition of income and expense for tax and financial reporting purposes when such amounts are immaterial. In accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, management is required to evaluate the likelihood that, upon examination by relevant taxing jurisdictions, the Company's income tax positions would be sustained. Based on that evaluation, if it were more than 50% probable that a material amount of income tax would be imposed at the entity level upon examination by the relevant taxing authorities, a liability would be recognized in the accompanying statement of financial position along with any interest and penalties that would result from that assessment. Should any such penalties and interest be incurred, the Company's policy would be to recognize that as operating expenses. No interest or penalties have been accrued or charged to expense for the year ending

D. Basis of Presentation:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Statement of Cash Flows:

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Note 3 - Clearing Arrangements:

As of March 23, 2013, the Company clears security transactions predominantly through First Clearing, whereby First Clearing carries the cash and margin accounts of the Company's customers on a fully disclosed basis. The term of the agreement is seven years. Under specific terms of the agreement, First Clearing executes and reflects transactions in the customers' accounts as requested by the Company, prepares confirmations and summary monthly statements, settles contracts and transactions in securities and performs certain cashing functions, including receipt and delivery of securities.

All uncollectible customer receivables are netted against commissions payable to the Company.

The Company maintains a margin account with First Clearing through which it executes its own principal trading activities.

Under such agreement, the Company is required to maintain a minimum cash deposit of $100,000 on which it receives interest at the prevailing federal funds rate less 25 basis points. The Company may draw on commissions and principal trading gains as they are earned.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Representation Letter of Exemptions, in which (1) Coburn & Meredith, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which Coburn & Meredith, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), and (2) Coburn & Meredith, Inc. stated that Coburn & Meredith, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Coburn & Meredith, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Coburn & Meredith, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I'm not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
