LUCIA SECURITIES, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2016

NOTE 1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Lucia Securities, LLC (the "Company") is organized under the laws of the state of Delaware pursuant to the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), an entity created through the consolidation of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD") and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

The Company is an LLC wholly owned by Lucia Capital Group, LLC ("LCG"). Due to the nature of an LLC, its member has limited liability.

The Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) of the Customer Protection Rule. In connection with its activities as a broker/dealer, the Company is an introducing firm and does not hold customer funds or securities.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") and in the format prescribed by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for broker/dealers in securities.

Commissions Receivable

Commissions receivable are due from the Company's clearing broker and other financial service companies. Management has determined that no allowance for doubtful commissions receivable is necessary at December 31, 2016.

Income Recognition

Commission income results from marketing services performed by registered representatives of the Company on behalf of non-affiliated financial services companies. Because the nature of the marketing is to mass audiences, the Company is not able to reasonably estimate the timing or amount of the income. Therefore, these marketing services are recognized as income upon notification of such by the non-affiliated broker/dealer.

Commission income is also earned for marketing services performed for financial services companies whereby the Company acts as the introducing broker/dealer. The Company is not able to reasonably estimate the timing or amount of this income. As such, these marketing services are recognized as income upon notification by the financial services companies.

Other income includes dealer reallowance fees, brokerage ticket charges, alternative purchase fees, underwriting, referral fees, and interest and inactivity fees. The Company is not able to reasonably estimate these fees and as such, these services are recognized as income upon notification by the non-affiliated financial services companies and the clearing broker. Other income also includes distribution reallowances, event sponsorships, and fees billed to independent advisors. The Company is able to reasonably estimate these fees and as such, income from these services is recognized in the period in which the services are performed.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2016

NOTE 1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes

The Company is not subject to federal or state income taxes and, accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The member is required to report any gains, losses, credits or deductions on its individual tax returns. Generally, the Company is subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities during the four year period prior to the period covered by these financial statements. If such examination results in a change in the Company's income tax status, a provision for income taxes may need to be recorded. The Company's management believes that the Company has taken no significant uncertain tax positions.

Deferred Income

The Company enters into agreements with financial services companies for which the Company is a broker of their products and occasionally receives an advance. Such advances are recorded as deferred income to be earned or repaid based on specific criteria.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

Management of the Company has evaluated all subsequent transactions through the date of the independent registered public accounting firm's report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there are no subsequent events that require recognition or disclosure except as included in Note 7.

NOTE 2. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Pursuant to an expense sharing agreement with Lucia Management Company, LLC ("LMC"), the Company is billed personnel related expenses of the operations team and allocated certain general overhead expenses that LMC pays on behalf of the Company. LMC and the Company have common ownership and share office space and other overhead expenses. As such, LMC allocates rent based upon the percentage of total square footage occupied by the operations team divided by the total occupied square footage. Office equipment, depreciation, and other shared expenses are allocated based upon the number of personnel on the operations team divided by the total personnel employed by LMC. During 2016, the Company incurred $1,026,462 in expenses related to compensation and benefits of the operations team, $162,216 in expenses related to occupancy, $46,275 in expenses related to office equipment, and $14,587 in other expenses.

In accordance with the expense sharing agreement, the Company is allocated an amount equal to 90% of the commission revenue generated by advisors employed by LMC and is assessed a fixed monthly amount to cover overhead expenses related to LCG. This amount is paid monthly to LMC who in turn pays it to LCG. During 2016, the management fee totaled $6,154,864. Prior to 2016, the Company had remitted an amount in excess of the expenses due under the agreement, resulting in a receivable due from LMC in the amount of $1,039,914 (remaining amount as of December 31, 2016). This agreement can be terminated by either party at any time.

The Company has an arrangement with Lucia Wealth Services, LLC ("LWS") to pass along the Registered Investment Advisor's portion of the managed account fees billed via their clearing broker to LWS. As of December 31, 2016, the Company remitted an amount in excess of the fees generated in the fourth quarter of 2016, resulting in a receivable due from LWS in the amount of $2,671.

NOTE 3. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, and maintenance of the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not to exceed 15 to 1, and compliance with restrictions on withdrawal of equity capital. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $476,860, which was $426,860 in excess of its required minimum net capital. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.27 to 1.

NOTE 4. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company maintains all cash in bank accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced a loss in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk with respect to cash.

NOTE 5. CLEARING AGREEMENT

In June 2011, the Company entered into a seven-year clearing agreement whereby the clearing broker provides certain services, as defined, to the Company's clients. The agreement provides for, among other things, a one-time incentive fee of $1,500,000 to the Company for execution of the agreement, which was received and recognized in 2011. Additionally, provided that certain milestones are met at the three and five year anniversaries of the first trade date with the clearing broker, the Company may receive additional incentives of $100,000 each at the end of such anniversaries. Neither one of the milestone was met.

The Company is required to have a $100,000 deposit with the clearing broker. The deposit was made in June 2011, when the agreement was in place. Additionally, should the Company breach the terms of the agreement, or terminate the agreement voluntarily, there is a termination fee due to the clearing broker equal to the greater of the quarterly minimum revenue requirement, as defined, or $72,321 per quarter from October 2016 through September 2018.

LUCIA SECURITIES, LLC

NOTE 6. CONTINGENCY

During 2016, certain claimants filed a complaint with FINRA (FINRA Dispute Resolution No. 15-03364) alleging the sale of unsuitable securities and requesting compensatory damages in the amount of approximately $426,000. The Company intends to vigorously defend this matter and believes the chance of an unfavorable outcome is unlikely. An arbitration hearing on this matter is presently set on or about June 12, 2017.

NOTE 7. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On February 6, 2017, the Company made a member distribution of $400,000 to LCG.
