NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

As of and for the Year Ended November 30, 2017

Income Taxes

The Company is subject to the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes. The tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements, only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position. The Company recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more likely than not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized, upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. When applicable, interest and penalties on uncertain tax positions are calculated based on the guidance from the relevant tax authority and included in income tax expense. The Company did not have any uncertain tax positions as of November 30, 2017. Income tax returns filed or to be filed for the years ended November 30, 2014 through 2017 remain open, and are subject to review by applicable tax authorities.

Deferred Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes arise from temporary differences resulting from income and expense items reported for financial accounting and tax purposes in different periods. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Deferred taxes consist primarily of temporary differences relating to the recognition of certain expenses in different periods for book and tax purposes.

Receivables from Clients

Receivables from clients include payments to be received in cash for consulting fees.

Receivables from clients are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. On a case by case basis, management provides an offset for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge against income and a credit to allowance for doubtful accounts based on its assessment of the current status of individual accountant. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the allowance for doubtful accounts and a credit to trade accounts receivable.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's short-term financial instruments consist of the following: cash, receivables, deposit with clearing broker, investment in restricted stock, accounts payable and accrued expenses. The carrying values of these short-term financial instruments approximate their estimated fair values based on the instruments short-term nature.

For the fiscal year ended November 30, 2017, there have been no changes in the application of valuation methods applied to similar assets and liabilities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

LBMZ SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION As of and for the Year Ended November 30, 2017

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events occurring through January 22, 2018, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued for events requiring recording or disclosure in the Company's financial statements. The Company feels that no material events have occurred through January 22, 2018 that would require disclosure.

NOTE 3 - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Accounting standards define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). The Company utilizes market data or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable. The Company is able to classify fair value balances based on the observability of those inputs. This standard establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy defined by this standard are as follows:

Level 1 – Fair value is based upon quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets in which the Company can participate. Active markets are those in which transactions for the asset or liability occur in sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date. Level 2 includes those financial instruments that are valued using models or other valuation methodologies.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs include significant inputs that are generally less observable from objective sources. These inputs may be used with internally developed methodologies that result in management's best estimate of fair value. At each balance sheet date, the Company performs an analysis of all instruments subject to this standard and includes in level 3 all of those whose fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs.

LBMZ SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

As of and for the Year Ended November 30, 2017

The following table sets forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of November 30, 2017. As required by this standard, financial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement requires judgment, and may affect the valuation of fair value assets and liabilities and their placement within the fair value hierarchy levels.

NOTE 7 - Liabilities Subordinated to Claims of General Creditors

Liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors are payable to the stockholder, bearing interest of 1.6% per annum, and mature on December 7, 2020, $500,000 and February 26, 2021, $500,000. The subordinated borrowings are covered by agreements approved by the NASD and are thus available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). To the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, they may not be repaid.

NOTE 8 - Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash balances in one financial institution located in Illinois, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash deposits. Accounts at each institution are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. At November 30, 2017, the Company had approximately $149,000 of cash balances in excess of the FDIC insured limits. Deposits with clearing organizations and all securities are uninsured. The Company has not experienced losses on these accounts and management believes the Company is not exposed to significant risks on such accounts.

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

NOTE 9 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1.

At November 30, 2017, the Company had net capital of $528,206, which was $468,103 in excess of its required net capital of $60,103. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 2.3 to 1. Below is the reconciliation between the net capital calculated above and the net capital computed and reported in the Company's November 30, 2017 FOCUS filing:
