Notes to Financial Statement November 30, 2017

1 - ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

Aegis Capital Corp. (the "Company") was incorporated on January 30, 1984 under the laws of the State of New York. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aegis Capital Holding Corp. (the "Parent") and maintains branch offices in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Texas, Florida, Oregon, South Carolina, and Puerto Rico.

The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as a broker-dealer pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. It is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

The Company earns commissions on trades executed on behalf of customers as an introducing broker. In addition, the Company executes trades on behalf of clients on a riskless basis where the Company acts as an intermediary for the client and income on these riskless principal transactions are included in commission revenue. All transactions related to publicly traded equity and debt securities are cleared through other broker-dealers (the "Clearing Brokers") on a fully disclosed basis and, therefore, the Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3.

The Company earns fees from its investment banking activities related to capital raising transactions for its clients and fees from syndicate participations in managing certain security offerings as well as providing advisory services related to the placement of corporate debt, bank loans, and other debt instruments.

2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- a. Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all short term debt securities purchased with an original maturity of three months or less as well as money market funds to be cash equivalents.
- b. Securities Transactions - Securities transactions are recorded on the trade date basis, as if they had settled. Marketable securities are valued at fair value.
- c. Use of Estimates - The preparation of a financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions. The estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement.
- d. Investment Valuation - The Company utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of most of its investments on a recurring basis. US GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The three level of inputs are:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates, and similar data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Company's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for securities categorized in Level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased, are valued at the last sale price on the date of determination or, if no sales occurred on such day, at the last closing bid price if held long and at the last closing asked price if held short. Securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date are stated at the last quoted bid price. Other assets and securities for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined by or under the direction of the Company in accordance with US GAAP.

The preceding method described may produce a fair value calculation which may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Company believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial statements could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

- e. Basis of Presentation - The accompanying financial statement and related notes has been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

3 - RECEIVABLES AND PAYABLES TO CLEARING BROKERS

The clearing and depository operations for the Company's and customers' securities transactions are provided by other broker-dealers ("Clearing Brokers") pursuant to clearance agreements. At November 30, 2017, the amount due from the Clearing Brokers represents cash deposits maintained at the Clearing Brokers and commission revenue earned as an introducing broker for its customers, net of clearing expenses.

The amounts receivable from the Clearing Brokers as of November 30, 2017 consist of the following:

Clearing deposits	$ 1,400,968
Cash held in accounts at Clearing Brokers	$ 96,006
Fees and commissions receivable	1,317,530
	$ 1,413,536

Pursuant to clearance agreements with the Clearing Brokers, the Company may offset receivable and payable balances in the accounts held at the respective Clearing Brokers. Liabilities to Clearing Brokers for securities purchased are collateralized by those securities. As of November 30, 2017, the Company has securities in the form of municipal bonds valued at $10,010,830, which are collateralizing the payable to the Clearing Broker for securities purchased in the amount of $8,208,520.

The Company has agreed to indemnify the Clearing Brokers for losses that they may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. Losses, if any, on customer accounts are recorded as an offset to commission income. At November 30, 2017, a reserve of $12,190 was established by the Clearing Brokers to cover such losses on certain accounts and is netted against fees and commissions receivable.

4 - RECEIVABLES FROM REGISTERED REPRESENTATIVES

The Company has advanced monies to registered representatives employed at the Company's branches in anticipation of future commissions to be earned and in fulfilling certain commitments to meet gross commission benchmarks. The Company reserves the right, at the Company's discretion, to be repaid the advances through an offset at any time of the commissions earned and payable to the branches and or its registered representatives. As of November 30, 2017, the $2,308,183 balance of advances receivable from its registered representatives reflects $3,925,403 of commissions earned and payable applied to $6,233,586, which is the balance of monies previously advanced.

5 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS OF SECURITIES OWNED

The following is a summary, by level, of the Company's assets measured at fair value as of November 30, 2017:

	$ 1,000,000

The subordinated borrowings are available in computing net capital under the SEC's uniform net capital rule.

The $750,000 subordinated borrowing will automatically be extended for one year upon maturity in accordance with the subordination agreement since the lender did not give notice on or before July 10, 2017 requesting repayment.

The Company received a FINRA accepted notice regarding request for payment from the lender for the $250,000 subordinated borrowing. This subordinated borrowing will be repaid in February 2018.

8 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company subleases office space located in New York City, from its Parent under an expense sharing agreement which is subject to change annually. As of November 30, 2017, the lease held by the Parent, as tenant, is set to expire May 31, 2022.

In March 2013, the Company entered into a lease agreement for office space located in Miami, Florida set to expire May 15, 2018. In October 2015, the Company entered into a lease agreement for a second office space located in Miami, Florida set to expire December 31, 2020. The rent for office space of all other branch offices are the obligation of those branch offices. The Company is expected to pay minimum future rental payments as follows:

The Company maintains noninterest bearing cash balances at financial institutions. At times during the year, balances have exceeded the FDIC insured limits. The Company maintains these balances at financial institutions that the Company has deemed to be not subject to material risk.

The Company is subject to claims which arise in the ordinary course of business which are the result of lawsuits, arbitrations, and regulatory inquiries. The Company has affirmative defenses and is vigorously defending any claims. As of November 30, 2016 the ultimate outcome of the foregoing claims cannot be predicted with certainty, in the opinion of management. Management of the Company, after consultation with outside legal counsel, believes the resolution of these various claims will not result in any material adverse effect on the Company's financial position. Management has determined that the aggregate claims are covered by its insurance policy.

In June 2017, the Company closed the investigative proceeding brought by FinCEN with no monetary determination or liability. The Company is in discussion with FINRA and the SEC as to their proceedings and no estimate of the effects of an adverse conclusion, if any, can be made as of the date of these financial statements.

9 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During fiscal 2017, the Company paid fees for professional services as general counsel in the amount of $1,355,000 to an entity controlled by one of the Company's officers.

During fiscal 2017, the Company paid to its Parent a management fee for corporate governance and professional expertise in the amount of $3,942,592.

10 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratios of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At November 30, 2017, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $1,881,919, which was $1,669,494 in excess of its required net capital of $212,425. The Company's net capital ratio was 1.69 to 1. Also, at November 30, 2017 excluded from aggregate indebtedness are amounts payable to a clearing broker in the amount of $8,208,520 that are adequately collateralized by securities owned.

11 - INCOME TAXES

The Parent is subject to the New York City General Corporation Tax based on the income of the Company, or its net capital base, whichever is higher.

12 - OFF BALANCE SHEET RISK

Pursuant to clearance agreements, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to Clearing Brokers on a fully-disclosed basis. All of the customers' money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the Clearing Brokers. In accordance with clearance agreements, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Clearing Brokers for losses, if any, which the Clearing Brokers may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the Clearing Brokers monitor collateral on the customers' accounts.

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the trade or contract at a loss.

Securities sold, not yet purchased represent obligations of the Company to deliver securities at a future date. These transactions result in off-balance sheet risk in an amount by which future fair values may exceed the amount reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition. The Company may, at its discretion, purchase the securities at prevailing market prices at any time.
