Notes to Financial Statements

For the Year Ended December 31, 2017

(1) Organization

Jones Lang LaSalle Securities, L.L.C. (the Company), a subsidiary of Jones Lang LaSalle Americas Inc., was incorporated in the state of Illinois on April 24, 2002. Jones Lang LaSalle Americas (Illinois), L.P., the founding member of the Company, transferred its membership interest to Jones Lang LaSalle Americas, Inc. (Parent Company and Member) on November 16, 2009.

The Company was created to conduct transactions as a broker or dealer in the securities and investment advisory business and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (the FINRA) (formerly, the National Association of Securities Dealers Regulation, Inc. (the NASD), the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (the MSRB), all states and various territories. The Company's FINRA Membership was approved on June 25, 2002. The company primarily engages as a broker dealer entity that distributes private real estate funds sponsored and/or advised by third parties and participates in investment banking, municipal advisory and limited municipal underwriting activities. The Company operates pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) (the Customer Protection Rule) and does not hold customer funds or safe-keep customer securities.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(b) Limitation on Withdrawal of Equity Capital

The Company's policy is to give written notice to FINRA two business days prior to any equity withdrawals that exceed $500,000 and, on a net basis, exceed 30% of the Company's excess net capital, in any 30-day period. The Company made no equity distributions in 2017.

(c) Fees

The Company recognizes revenues as the related advisory and professional investment banking services are provided unless future contingencies exist. If future contingencies exist, the Company defers recognition of this revenue until the respective contingencies have been satisfied. The Company also earns transaction based revenues through the sale of private placement securities and recognized such revenues upon receiving confirmation of the transaction closing. The Company pays commissions to its representatives for generating both fee and transaction based revenue. The Company records commission expense concurrent with revenue recognition as services are provided.

Notes to Financial Statements

For the Year Ended December 31, 2017

(d) Reimbursable Income

Reimbursable income is comprised of expenses incurred on behalf of and reimbursed by the client. The Company follows ASC Topic 605, 'Principal and Agent Considerations,' when accounting for reimbursements from clients.

(e) Recent Accounting Pronouncements - Revenue Recognition

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-08, Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net), which clarifies the implementation guidance on principal versus agent considerations and together with ASU No. 2014-09 (collectively the "ASUs"), as discussed below, amends and comprises ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. These ASUs, and other related ASUs, will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") when effective. The final standard is effective for annual and interim periods in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017.

We expect to apply the full retrospective approach to adopt ASC Topic 606 beginning January 1, 2018. Our implementation efforts include identifying revenues and costs within the scope of the standard, reviewing contracts and documenting policies under the new standard. Based upon analyses performed, ASC Topic 606 may result in an acceleration of the timing of revenue recognition for certain transaction commissions and advisory services. These services include variable consideration or other aspects, such as contingencies, that preclude revenue recognition contemporaneous with the satisfaction of our performance obligations within the legacy revenue recognition framework. We do not expect the acceleration of the timing of revenue recognition to have a material impact to our Financial Statements.

In addition, based on our implementation efforts to date, we have concluded reimbursed costs incurred by our employees will be presented gross under ASC Topic 606 because we control the ultimate performance of the service. Therefore, we do not expect to change our presentation of certain reimbursable costs from a gross presentation within revenue and expenses.

(3) Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company which is treated for federal and state income tax purposes as a disregarded entity and is not subject to income taxes. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements contain no provision for income taxes. In 2015, the Company and the Parent Company executed an agreement which explicitly excludes taxes from the expense sharing arrangement signed by both parties. The Company had no uncertain tax positions which would require the Company to record a tax exposure liability as of December 31, 2017.

The Company does not have a tax-sharing agreement with the Parent Company and no payments have been made between the Company and its Parent Company for tax reimbursements.

For the Year Ended December 31, 2017

The Company has disclosed a pro forma tax expense as though the Company filed a separate tax return for purposes of its Parent Company reporting. For the year ended December 31, 2017, the income tax expense of $756,882 was computed by applying an estimated tax rate of 42%. The Company has generated no deferred tax liabilities or assets as of December 31, 2017 to be utilized by the Parent Company.

(4) Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of the greater of minimum net capital of $150,000, or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. On December 31, 2017, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $6,412,141 and $150,000, respectively. On December 31, 2017, the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was approximately 0.19 to 1.00.

(5) Limited Liability Company Agreement

Pursuant to the terms of the Amended and Restated LLC Agreement, Jones Lang LaSalle Americas, Inc. is the sole member of the Company and contributes to the management of the operations of the Company.

The Company shall terminate on December 31, 2102, unless terminated earlier as provided in the LLC Agreement.

Except as provided in the Illinois Limited Liability Company Act, a member shall not be personally liable for any debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a member of a limited liability company.

(6) Transactions with Related Parties

The Company and its Parent Company maintain an expense sharing agreement (the Agreement), whereby the Parent Company provides certain services at no cost to the Company. Services under the Agreement include certain compensation and occupancy costs, including lease of office space, the use of furnishings as well as the information technology infrastructure provided by the Parent Company and were approximately $1,719,827 during 2017. The Company has and will continue to record expenses for which it is directly or indirectly liable, such as business licenses, employee commission expense, and professional fees, in its statement of operations. The Company reimburses the Parent Company for commissions paid to employees on its behalf. During 2017, total commissions paid by and reimbursed to the Parent Company were $968,645.

Notes to Financial Statements

For the Year Ended December 31, 2017

(7) Subsequent Events

Subsequent to December 31, 2017 and through February 26, 2018, the date through which management evaluated subsequent events and on which date the financial statements were available to be issued, the Company did not identify any subsequent events.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Member

Jones Lang LaSalle Securities, L.L.C.:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Assertions Regarding Exemption Provisions (the Exemption Report), in which (1) Jones Lang LaSalle Securities, L.L.C. (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3 (k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(i) (the exemption provisions); and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the year ended December 31, 2017 without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Assertions Regarding Exemption Provisions

We, as members of management of Jones Lang LaSalle Securities, LLC ("the Company"), are responsible for compliance with the annual reporting requirements under Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Those requirements compel a broker or dealer to file annual reports with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) and the broker or dealer's designated examining authority (DEA). One of the reports to be included in the annual filing is an exemption report prepared by an independent public accountant based upon a review of assertions provided by the broker or dealer. Pursuant to that requirement, the management of the Company hereby makes the following assertions:

Identified Exemption Provision:

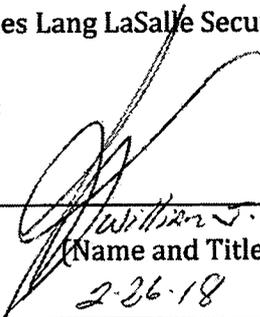

The Company claims exemption from the custody and reserve provisions of Rule 15c3-3 by operating under the exemption provided by 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, Paragraph (k)(2)(i).

Statement Regarding Meeting Exemption Provision:

The Company met the identified exemption provision without exception throughout the period January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017.
