REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Members of SFA Financial, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of SFA Financial, LLC as of December 31, 2017, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statement). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of SFA Financial, LLC as of December 31, 2017 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of SFA Financial, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on SFA Financial, LLC's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to SFA Financial, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

SFA Financial, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Nature of Business – SFA Financial, LLC (the “Company”) is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulator Authority (“FINRA”), formerly the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”). The Company was organized under the laws of the State of South Carolina on January 16, 2009 as a limited liability company. The Company engages in the business of selling Mutual Funds, Variable Insurance product’s and 529 College Savings Plans.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – For purposes of reporting cash flows, the company defines cash equivalents as all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

Security Transactions – Securities transactions, commission revenue and commission expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis. Unrealized gains or losses on security transactions, if any, are included in riskless principal transactions in the statement of income. Marketable securities are recorded at market value.

Commissions Receivable – Commissions Receivable are reported at the amount management expects to collect on balances outstanding at year end. Management closely monitors outstanding balances and writes off balances when amounts are deemed uncollectible.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments – The financial instruments of the Company are reported on the statement of financial condition at fair values, or at carrying amounts that approximate fair values because of the short maturity of the instruments.

Commissions - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Business Concentrations – The Company earned revenue from one major Insurance Company that accounted for 62% of the sale of variable annuities for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Note 2. Income Taxes

The Company, as a limited liability company under the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state statutes, has elected to be treated as a partnership for income tax purposes. Any income or loss of the Company flows through to the members to be taxed at the members' respective rates. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal or state income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. Tax years open for examination by Federal and State tax authorities include the years ended December 31, 2014, 2015 and 2016.

SFA Financial, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

Note 3. Related Party Transactions

The Company, as a broker-dealer, has approved Southeast Financial Advisors, LLC (a related party through common ownership) to conduct outside business in the area of investment advisory services. Under this agreement, the related party, at the members' discretion, may pay the Company a portion of total investment advisory fees collected. The financial operations of Southeast Financial Advisors, LLC are not audited. No funds were received during 2017 relating to this agreement.

Note 4. Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standings of each counterparty.

Note 5. Contingencies and Commitments

In some instances, the company can be held liable for trades that have not been closed by certain company representatives. However, management believes the likelihood of such an occurrence is remote, and accordingly, no provision has been recorded in these financial statements. No other contingencies or commitments exist for the yearend December 31, 2017.

Note 6. Net Capital Requirement

As a requirement broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2017, the Company had Net Capital (as defined by Rule 15c3-1 of the securities and Exchange Commission) of $25,197 which exceeds the minimum net capital requirements by $20,197. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.0525 to 1 at December 31, 2017.

Note 7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events and transactions occurring subsequent to the balance sheet date of December 31, 2017, for items that should potentially be recognized or disclosed in these financial statements. The evaluation was conducted through February 5, 2018, the date these financial statements were available to be issued, and there were no subsequent events that required disclosure in these financial statements.
