MONROE FINANCIAL PARTNERS, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2017 AND 2016

1. THE COMPANY

Monroe Financial Partners, Inc. (Company) is a securities broker/dealer engaged in the purchase and sale of securities, which executes transactions and introduces them to a Clearing Broker, National Financial Services LLC, on a fully disclosed basis. The Company also provides investment banking services and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Monroe Securities Holdings, Inc.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Receivables - The Company has a receivable that arose from trading activity with its Clearing Broker and trade receivables that arose from its investment banking services. Losses from uncollectible receivables shall be accrued when it is probable that a receivable is impaired and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. As of the date of the financial statements, management believes that neither of these conditions exists with regard to receivables and, as such, an allowance for doubtful accounts has not been established.

Securities in Firm Account - Securities in firm account are recorded at fair value in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) regarding fair value measurements and disclosures. The majority of securities in firm account are comprised of stock in banks and bank holding companies that are transacted in thinly traded markets. The firm also has a significant long position (in aggregate) in various preferred stocks issued by utilities that are transacted in thinly traded markets.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 3 to 10 years. When retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are cleared from the respective accounts.

Restricted Deposit with Clearing Broker - Restricted deposit represents the minimum balance required to be maintained in a restricted collateral account pursuant to an agreement between the Company and its Clearing Broker.

Goodwill - Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired at the date of acquisition. In accordance with the ASC regarding goodwill and other intangible assets, goodwill is not amortized, but is evaluated for impairment. The Company performs a qualitative assessment annually to determine whether it was more likely than not that the fair value of its goodwill exceeds the carrying value. As of December 31, 2017, and 2016, the Company determined that it was more likely than not that the fair value of its goodwill exceeds the carrying value and no further impairment testing was required. None of the amount allocated to goodwill will be amortized for tax purposes.

Income Taxes - The Company has elected to be taxed as a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary with its parent, Monroe Securities Holdings, Inc. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal or state income taxes on its taxable income. The Company's income will be reported with its parent and then taxed on the individual income tax returns of the shareholders of Monroe Securities Holdings, Inc.

In accordance with the provisions of the ASC pertaining to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, the Company evaluates tax positions taken for potential uncertainties. Management is not aware of any uncertain tax positions requiring measurement or disclosure in these financial statements. Federal and state tax authorities generally have the right to examine and audit the previous three years of tax returns filed.

MONROE FINANCIAL PARTNERS, INC.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, Continued

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties - Cash is maintained in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash. The Company is also subject to credit risk through its receivables. Credit risk with respect to its receivable from Clearing Broker is minimized as certain losses are insured by SIPC and excess SIPC coverage. Credit risk with respect to its trade receivables is minimized due to the nature of the customer base, which consists of various stable financial institutions. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. The credit risk is minimized as the investment securities are insured against certain losses by SIPC and excess SIPC coverage. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in these financial statements.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The Company accounts for its securities in accordance with the ASC regarding Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. This standard defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by the standard, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Company has the ability to access.
- Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, the use of financial models, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.
- Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT, Continued

Securities that are listed on a national securities exchange are valued at their last sales price as of the last business day of the period. Long securities traded in the over-the-counter markets are generally valued at the published closing bid price. Short securities traded in the over-the-counter markets are generally valued at the published closing offer price.

For securities where there is no readily ascertainable fair value, reference is made to public market, private transactions or valuations for the securities, as well as for similar securities of comparable companies or assets in the relevant asset class when such amounts are available. If such amounts are not available, metrics that are widely used in the banking industry are applied and often include multiples of book value and multiples of earnings. Those estimated values do not necessarily represent the amounts that may be ultimately realized due to the occurrence of future circumstances that cannot be reasonably determined.

The preceding methods may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Company believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table presents the Company's fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2017.
