1. GENERAL BUSINESS

Danske Markets Inc. (the "Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Danske Bank A/S, a Denmark entity (the "Parent"), was incorporated in Delaware on February 12, 2001. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") as a broker-dealer and became a member of the National Futures Association ("NFA") as an introducing broker on May 17, 2017. The Company's primary business activities include acting as agent or riskless principal broker in the purchase and sale of foreign equities and debt securities between U.S. institutional investors and the parent under SEC Rule 15a-6. The Company acts as agent for its Parent in interest rate derivative and foreign exchange transactions with U.S. and non-U.S. customers of its Parent. The Company also participates in securities underwritings and provides merger and acquisition advisory services. The Company does not carry customer accounts and is accordingly exempt from the Act's Rule 15c3-3 (the Customer Protection Rule) pursuant to Provision k(2)(i) of the rule. The Company maintains its office in New York. The books and records are maintained in U.S. dollars.

The Company has entered into Service Level Agreements ("SLA's") with its Parent under which the Parent provides various business support services to the Company. Such support services include information technology, back-office services which encompasses settlement of transactions, legal, accounting, audit and human resources (see Note 4).

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investment Banking

Investment banking revenue includes gains, losses and fees, net of syndicate expense, arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an underwriter or agent. Investment banking management fees, sales commissions and underwriting fees are recorded at the time the underwriting is completed and the income is reasonably determinable.

Securities Transactions

The Company records securities transactions executed for its customers on a settlement-date basis. Related revenues and expenses from these transactions are recorded on a trade-date basis. Transactions denominated in a foreign currency are translated into United States dollars at the prevailing rates of exchange on the date of transaction.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are provided using the straight-line method over the estimated economic lives of assets as follows:

	Estimated Life (Years)
Computer software and hardware	3
Telecommunications equipment	3
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3
Leasehold improvements	Shorter of expected useful life or term of lease

Expenditures for additions, renewals and betterment of property and equipment above $15,000 are capitalized. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred. As assets are retired or sold, the related cost and accumulated depreciation and amortization are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is included in the results of operations.

Income Taxes

The Company evaluates its uncertain tax positions using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance. The amount recognized is subject to estimate and management judgment with respect to the likely outcome of each uncertain tax position. The amount that is ultimately sustained for an individual uncertain tax position or for all uncertain tax positions in the aggregate could differ from the amount recognized.

Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of "temporary differences" by applying enacted statutory tax rates applicable to the differences between the tax and financial reporting bases of assets and liabilities, if applicable. The realization of deferred tax assets, if any, is assessed and a valuation allowance established for the portion of the assets for which it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly-liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fails to Deliver/Receive and Receivable/Payable from (to) Customers

As an agent and/or riskless principal broker, the Company facilitates its customers' securities transactions on a DVP (delivery vs. payment)/RVP (receive vs. payment) basis only. Securities failed to deliver represent receivables for securities sold by customers that have not been delivered, the settlement date has passed, and the cash owed to customers has not been received. Securities failed to receive represent payables for securities purchased by customers not yet received, the settlement date has passed, and the customers have not paid for such securities.

Fair Value Measurements

FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 820, Fair Value Measurement, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). Categorization within the valuation hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Under this standard, fair value is defined as the exit price, or the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date.

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1 inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2 inputs to the valuation methodology include: quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and, inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Topic 606, which supersedes current revenue recognition guidance, including most industry-specific guidance. ASU 2014-09, as amended, requires a company to recognize revenue when it transfers promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services, and may also require enhanced disclosures. The Company has identified its revenues and costs that are within the scope of the new guidance, and continues to evaluate their potential impact on the results of operations and disclosures. As a result of adopting ASU 2014-09, the Company has determined that the new guidance will require investment banking revenues and expenses to be recorded on a gross basis while the current guidance requires recognizing investment banking revenues net of related expenses. The Company will adopt the provisions of this guidance on January 1, 2018 using the modified retrospective approach under which the cumulative effect of applying the standard would be recognized at the date of initial application.

3. INCOME TAXES

The Company's income tax expense for the year ended December 31, 2017, consisted of the following:

The Company's effective tax rate of 41.23% differs from the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to state and local taxes, and the change in the federal tax rate due to the tax reform. The Company files a federal tax return on a stand-alone basis and combined New York State and New York City tax returns with its affiliates. The Company has calculated its financial statements taxes on a stand-alone basis pursuant to a tax sharing arrangement.

At December 31, 2017, the Company had no federal, state and local net operating loss carryforward. The Company's deferred tax asset of approximately $695,000 at December 31, 2017, is primarily related to deferred compensation and depreciation. On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cut and Jobs Act (the "2017 Tax Reform Act") was signed into law. The 2017 Tax Reform Act significantly changes U.S. corporation income tax laws by, among other things, reducing the U.S. corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21% beginning in 2018. As a result, we remeasured our deferred tax assets at the new lower corporate rate and recorded a non-cash tax charge of $399,000 in 2017. At December 31, 2017, the Company had no valuation allowance since management believes that realization of the Company's deferred tax asset is more likely than not based on its 2017 earnings history and projected taxable income in 2018. The Company is no longer liable for Danish national tax since it closed its branch in Denmark.

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740 Income Taxes, which requires recognition of tax benefits or expenses on the temporary differences between the financial reporting and the tax basis of assets and liabilities. If appropriate, deferred tax assets are adjusted by a valuation allowance, which reflects expectations of the extent to which such assets are more likely than not expected to be realized. In accordance with FASB ASC 740, the Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. A tax position that fails to meet the more likely than not recognition threshold will result in either a reduction of current and deferred tax assets, and/or recording of current or deferred tax liabilities. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties, if applicable, related to income taxes as a component of income tax expense. As of December 31, 2017, the Company did not have any uncertain tax positions. As of December 31, 2017, the Company did not have any interest accrued with respect to uncertain tax positions.

The Company's federal, state and local income tax returns are closed to examination through 2013.

4. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company entered into a Service Level Agreement (“SLA”) with its Parent and agreed to act as the U.S. “chaperoning” broker-dealer in accordance with Rule 15a-6(a)(3) under the Act, as defined. The SLA shall continue in effect until terminated by one of the parties with 90 day notification. Under the terms of the SLA, the Company agrees to provide chaperoning services, effect securities transactions, distribute research analysis to U.S. institutional investors and provide general marketing assistance on behalf of its Parent in the U.S. For the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company earned and received $41,667 from the Parent.

The Company, through its Parent, leases office space under a non-cancellable operating lease expiring in June 2021. In accordance with the terms of the lease agreement, the Parent received a nine-month and 10 day lease abatement aggregating approximately $459,000. Under the current agreement with the Parent, the Company reimburses the Parent for 70% of the use of this office space. The effect of the lease abatement and rent escalations is recognized by the Company on a straight-line basis over the lease term, which resulted in a deferred liability of $162,155, which is included in “Other liabilities” on the accompanying statement of financial condition at December 31, 2017.

The following is the Parent’s approximate annual lease payments for the years ending December 31:

2018	$	662,200
2019		662,200
2020		662,200
2021		294,311

4. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS (CONTINUED)

On January 27, 2012, the Company entered into a revolving loan and subordinated debt agreement with its Parent in the amount of $20,000,000. The agreement was renewed and extended for four years on December 11, 2014. Each advance shall be in the aggregate amount of $1,000,000 or integral multiples thereof. Advances are available to be taken by the Company until January 29, 2018. The Company is obligated to repay the aggregate unpaid principal amount on all advances on or before the scheduled maturity date of January 29, 2019. The Company is also obligated to pay a fee of 0.50% on the undrawn amount payable quarterly on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1.

On January 29, 2018, the Company entered into a new revolving loan and subordinated debt agreement with its Parent in the amount of $10,000,000. The new agreement allows advances to be taken by the Company until January 29, 2021 in the aggregate amount of $1,000,000 or integral multiples thereof. The Company is obligated to repay the aggregate unpaid principal amount on all advances on or before the scheduled maturity date of January 29, 2022. The Company is also obligated to pay a fee of 0.50% on the undrawn amount payable quarterly on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1.

At December 31, 2017, a cash balance of $62,520 is held at the Parent. The account is maintained in U.S. dollars.

Unrelated to and separate from the revolving loan and subordinated debt agreement discussed in the third preceding paragraph, the Parent is obligated to the Company in the amount of $3,296,747, related to charges that have been incurred with respect to net amounts due for services rendered by the Company. Such amounts are non-interest bearing and due on demand.

5. DEFERRED COMPENSATION

The Company participates in the Parent's deferred bonus plan whereby certain key employees are entitled to compensation payable in cash and shares of the Parent. Such compensation can be deferred up to three years and are subject to certain adjustments, as defined in the agreement. At December 31, 2017, the accrued bonus amounted to approximately $2,400,000, of which approximately $135,000 will be payable in 2019, and $215,500 will be payable in 2020. The payment terms (deferral period and cash/share payout) of the 2017 bonus of $2,048,500 has not been set by the Parent.

9. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Credit risk is the amount of accounting loss the Company would incur if a counterparty failed to perform its obligation under contractual terms. All of the clearing and depository operations for the Company are performed by the Parent. The Parent and the Company review, as considered necessary, the credit standing of the counterparties with which the Company conducts business. The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with the nonperformance by the counterparties in fulfilling their obligations pursuant to securities transactions can be directly impacted by volatile securities markets, credit markets and regulatory changes.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at two commercial banks. Amounts held in a single account may at times exceed the insurance limit established by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

During 2017, approximately 33% of the Company's revenue came from foreign customers. An adverse change in either economic conditions abroad or the Company's relationship with significant foreign customers could negatively affect the Company's revenue.

10. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 23, 2018. The Company has determined that there are no material events that would require adjustment to and for disclosure in the accompanying financial statements or notes thereto
