Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member
CCG Securities, LLC
Santa Barbara, CA 93101

Opinion on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CCG Securities, LLC, as of December 31, 2017 and the related statements of loss, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and Schedule I, Statement of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1, Schedule II, Determination of Reserve Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3(exemption), and Schedule III, Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 (exemption) (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In my opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CCG Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2017, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of CCG Securities, LLC's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on CCG Securities, LLC's financial statements based on my audit. I am a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and I am required to be independent with respect to CCG Securities, LLC in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

I conducted my audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. My audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. My audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

Elizabeth Tractenberg, CPA
I have served as CCG Securities, LLC's auditor since 2011.

CCG Securities, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

Note 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

CCG Securities, LLC (the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of California on February 19, 2003. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

The nature of the Company’s business is to advise (a) business owners with regard to a sale of some or all of their assets, (i.e. sell-side advisory or) (ii) institutional investors (e.g. private equity), with regard to an acquisition of, or investment in, a company or companies or the assets thereof, (i.e. buy-side advisory), together commonly known as mergers & acquisitions, and (b) the private placement of capital as that term is described under the Securities Act, Regulation D (Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 230, Sections 501-508) (for purposes hereof, “Reg. D”).

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Commerce & Capital Group, LLC (the “Parent”) and operates in Santa Barbara, California.

The Company generated no revenue during the current year. The Company’s ability to generate sufficient cash flows to meet its obligations, either through future revenues and/or additional debt or equity financing, cannot be determined at this time. The Company received capital contributions from the owner to maintain ongoing operations and will continue to do so in the future. Therefore, management believes that there is no going concern issue.

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation – The Company conducts the following types of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises the private placement of securities.

Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) provides an exemption from the SEC's so-called "customer protection rule" for firms that: carry no margin accounts; promptly transmit all customer funds and deliver all securities received in connection with their broker-dealer activities; do not otherwise hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers; and effectuate all financial transactions with customers through one or more bank accounts designated as "Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers" of CCG Securities, LLC.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes - The Company, with consent of its Member, has elected to be a California Limited Liability Company. For tax purposes the Company is treated like a partnership, therefore in lieu of business income taxes, the Member is taxed on the Company’s taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for Federal Income Taxes is included in these financial statements. The State of California has a similar treatment, although there exists a provision for a gross receipts tax and a minimum Franchise Tax of $800. The accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain.

CCG Securities, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies (continued) Income Taxes -

Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all positions taken by the Company in its Federal and State organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Company is subject to examinations by U.S. Federal and State tax authorities from 2014 to the present, generally for three years after they are filed.

Note 3 - Fair Value

Unless otherwise indicated, the fair values of all reported assets and liabilities that represent financial instruments (none of which are held for trading purposes) approximate the carrying values of such amounts.

Note 4 – Related Party

The Company shares its office space with the Parent and has an expense sharing agreement. The Company allocates a monthly amount of $100 for communication expenses (phone and internet) which is treated as due to Parent. In turn, such expenses are paid to vendors directly by the Parent. At December 31, 2017, there were no monies due to parent and $1,200 was converted to capital contribution during the year. It is possible that the terms of the related party's transactions are not the same as those that would result from transactions among wholly unrelated parties.

From time to time, the Parent (a) forms limited liability companies for the special and limited purpose of investing in specific companies or assets thereof or relating thereto or (b) invests in existing companies formed by other, unrelated third-parties (in either case, for the purposes hereof, the "Parent Portfolio Investments"). Consistent with the nature of its business (see Note 1) the Company may provide for a Private Placement of capital for Parent Portfolio Companies.

Unaffiliated third parties sometimes participate in Parent Portfolio Investments. However, such participation (the "Co-investment") in no event occurs without (a) receipt of a subscription agreement from the investor, including a detailed purchaser questionnaire acceptable to the issuer and (b) the suitability of such investment for the investor determined by both the issuer and the Company, typical to the Private Placement of capital under Reg. D. Upon closing, if any, such investor receives the security provided for under the subscription agreement directly from the issuer.

To date, The Company has not charged nor has it received payment of any fees or commissions relating to Private Placement activities involving a Related Party. However, the Parent has established in the past, and expects to continue to establish, a profits' interest (often referred to as "carried interest") applicable to Co-investment in its Parent Portfolio Investments

Note 5 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2017, the Company had net capital of $7,336 which was $2,336 above its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .43 to 1.

CCG Securities, LLC

Note 6 – Exemption from the SEC Rule 15c3-3

Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) provides an exemption from the SEC's so-called "customer protection rule" for firms that: carry no margin accounts; promptly transmit all customer funds and deliver all securities received in connection with their broker-dealer activities; do not otherwise hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers; and effectuate all financial transactions with customers through one or more bank accounts designated as "Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers" of the Company.

Note 7 – SIPC Supplementary Report Requirement

The Company is not required to complete the SIPC Supplementary Report under SEC Rule 17a-5(e) (4) for year ending December 31, 2017 because the Company's SIPC Net Operating Revenues are under $500,000.

Note 8 – Subsequent Events

On January 2, 2018, the Parent made a capital contribution in the amount of $10,000. Management has reviewed the results of operations for the period of time from its year end December 31, 2017 through January 28, 2018, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that no adjustments are necessary to the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm – Exemption Report

To the Member
CCG Securities, LLC
Santa Barbara, CA 93101

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying CCG Securities, LLC (the "Company") Exemption Report in which (1) CCG Securities, LLC identified the following provisions of 17C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the CCG Securities, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: ((k) (2) (i)) ("exemption provisions"), and (2) the CCG Securities, LLC stated that the CCG Securities, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The CCG Securities, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about CCG Securities, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k) (2) (i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Exemption Report – FYE December 31, 2017

RE: CCG Securities, LLC (CRD# 127507)

CCG Securities, LLC (the “Company”) is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, “Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers”). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

- (1) The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 under the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i).
- (2) The Company had no obligations under 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(i) throughout the most recent fiscal year January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017, without exception.
