Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of the Stanley Laman Group Securities, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2017, and the related notes. In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2017, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. ### 3. Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 Exemption

The Company operates under the exemptive provisions of Paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as the Company carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds and delivers all securities received in connection with activities as a broker or dealer, and does not otherwise hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers.

The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions related to customer securities. This allows the Company to claim an exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph (k)(1), which relates to the maintenance of special accounts for the exclusive benefits of customers.

4. Related Party Transactions

The Company shares office space with an affiliate under common control and ownership. During 2017, the Company paid fees of $14,018 to the affiliate for its allocated share of rent, utilities and office expenses. The fees are based on the affiliate's estimate of expenses incurred related to the resources utilized by the Company. Management believes that these estimates were made on a reasonable basis. However, the fees are not necessarily indicative of the level of expenses that might have been incurred had the Company contracted directly with third parties. Management has not made a study or any attempt to obtain quotes from third parties to determine what the cost of obtaining such services from third parties would have been.

The Company pays commissions to an officer of the Company for the work that the officer performs in securing sales of variable universal life policies for clients of the Company, generating commission revenue for the Company. Management believes that the payment of these commissions to the officer of the Company are made on a reasonable basis. For 2017, the commissions paid to the officer totaled $407,281. The officer of the Company is contractually required to pay that amount to the affiliated entity.

5. Net Capital Requirement

At December 31, 2017, the Company's net capital was $204,155, which was $199,155 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 13.05% at December 31, 2017.

The Company is exposed to the risk of loss on unsettled customer transactions in the event customers and other counterparties are unable to fulfill contractual obligations. Transactions entered into as of December 31, 2017 settled with no adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.
