REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Stockholder
Traderfield Securities Inc.
Staten Island, New York

Opinion of the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Traderfield Securities Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2017, the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended and the related notes to the financial statements and supplemental information (collectively referred to as the financial statements). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2017, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The Computation of Net Capital Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Exemption Provision of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Computation of Net Capital Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Exemption Provision of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2017

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Traderfield Securities Inc. (the "Company") is a New York corporation organized on June 6, 1987. The Company is registered as a broker-dealer in securities transactions under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corp. (SIPC). The Company has adopted December 31 as its year end.

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as an introducing securities broker- dealer.

The Company clears all of its transactions through a security clearing broker. The Company acts as an introducing broker-dealer and is exempt from Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph k(2)(ii).

On May 15, 2017, Traderfield Securities Inc. was sold from PB Trade LLC to Richmond Lane Capital Management. The company is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Richmond Lane Capital Management.

The accompanying financial statements present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the company on a stand-alone basis. The costs incurred by Richmond Lane Capital Management to acquire the stock of the company have not been pushed down to the Company's accounting records.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation: The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") as determined by the

Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC").

The financial statements have been applied on a consistent basis with that of the preceding period.

Cash and cash equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Receivable from Clearing Firm

Receivable from clearing firm consists of amounts from the Company's clearing firm, COR Clearing LLC for income earned on securities transactions. Management has determined that no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary at December 31, 2017.

Revenue Recognition

The Company earns its revenues from commissions for securities transactions. Commission income and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade date basis, as securities transactions occur.

Risks and Uncertainties

Financial instruments which potentially expose the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash. The Company maintains its cash balances in financial institutions insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay federal income taxes on its corporate income. Instead, the stockholder is liable for individual federal income taxes on his share of the Company's income, deductions, losses and credits. Accordingly, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

Income Tax Uncertainties: The Company follows the FASB guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, disclosed and presented in the financial statements. This requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more likely-than-not" or being sustained "when challenged" or "when examined" by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax expense and liability in the current year. The Company is not currently under audit by any tax jurisdiction.

Management has evaluated the effect of guidance surrounding uncertain income tax positions and concluded that the Company has no significant financial statement exposure to uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2017.

Use of Estimates

The financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and prevailing industry practices, both of which require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at December 31, 2017, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year then ended. Estimates, by their nature, are based on judgment and available information.

Management believes that the estimates utilized in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications: Certain prior year balances have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

Subsequent Events: The Company has evaluated subsequent events through March 30, 2018, the date these financial statements were available to be issued. The Company did not identify any material subsequent events requiring adjustment or disclosure in its financial statements.

3. Lease Commitments

The Company leases office space in Staten Island, New York under a long-term lease agreement that expires September 30, 2020. The Company's rent expense was $6,000 for 2017. From January 1st, 2017 through September 30, 2017 the company occupied a building owned by the former owners of the company and was not charged rent during this time.

The following is a schedule of minimum future rental payments under the lease as of December 31, 2017:

| Year | Amount |
|-------------|---------------|
| 2018 | $24,300 |
| 2019 | 25,515 |
| 2020 | 19,485 |
| | $69,660 |

4. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities on a principal and agency basis through a clearing broker.

In connection with these activities, a customer's unsettled transactions may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contractual obligations.

Significant credit exposure may result in the event that the Company's clearing broker is unable to fulfill their contractual obligation.

5. Guarantees

The company has certain obligations to indemnify its management for certain events or occurrences while the individuals are, or were serving at the company's request in such capabilities. The maximum liability under these obligations is unlimited; however, the company's insurance policy serves to limit its exposure.

6. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is a member of the FINRA and subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of $5,000 and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined shall not exceed 15 to 1. Pursuant to that requirement, the management of the Company hereby makes the following assertions:
