Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE A NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Haley Securities, Inc. and notes are representations of the Company's management, who are responsible for the integrity and objectivity of the financial statements. These accounting policies conform to accounting policies generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Nature of Activity

Haley Securities, Inc. is a Nebraska S Corporation that operates as a registered broker-dealer and acts as an agent in the sale of real estate interests for limited partnerships in which the Company's stockholders are a partner or manager. It is regulated by the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) and is under the jurisdiction of FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority). FINRA is the largest independent regulator for all securities firms doing business in the United States.

Basis of Accounting

The Company prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis using generally accepted accounting principles.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes commission revenue when the real estate limited partnership accepts the completed application of the investor, has ensured that the investor meets the qualification standards required by the SEC and has posted the investor's funds to an ownership interest which happens twice per month. At that point the revenue has been earned by the Company.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts, and any resulting gain or loss on disposition is reflected in operations. Repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Expenditures for additions, improvements and replacements are capitalized. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2018 was $4,324.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all time deposits, certificates of deposit, and highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Haley Securities, Inc.

NOTE A NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES – (Continued)

Compensated Absences

Full-time year-round employees are entitled to paid vacations depending on the length of service and other factors. Accrued vacation pay at December 31, 2018 was deemed immaterial and not accrued.

Income Taxes

The Company elected to be taxed under the provisions of subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. The income of the Company is passed through to the individual shareholder who report it on their personal tax returns. Therefore, there is no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes reflected in these financial statements. The income allocable to each shareholder is subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities. In the event of an examination of the income tax returns, the tax liability of the shareholders could be changed if an adjustment in the income is ultimately determined by the taxing authorities.

Certain transactions of the Company may be subject to accounting methods for income tax purposes that differ significantly from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements in the accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, the taxable income of the Company reported for income tax purposes may differ from net income in these financial statements.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, "Accounting for Uncertain Tax Positions". The Company will record a liability for uncertain tax positions when it is probable that a loss has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. The Company continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings. The Company's evaluation revealed no tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements. The Company does not believe that any reasonably possible changes will occur within the next twelve months that will have a material impact on the financial statements.

No interest or penalties have been accrued for the year ended December 31, 2018. The federal and state income tax returns of the Company for 2017, 2016, and 2015 are subject to examination by the IRS and state taxing authorities, generally for 3 years after they are filed.

NOTE B NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer, is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This rule requires the Company to maintain net capital of at least $5,000 or 6 and 2/3 percent of "aggregate indebtedness", whichever is greater. In addition, the Company is not permitted to exceed a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 15 to 1, both as defined in the Rule. At December 31, 2018, the Company had net capital of $279,274, which was $274,274 in excess of its requirement. of Haley Securities, Inc.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
