Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended December 31, 2018

(1) Organization

Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC, (“the Company”), is a wholly owned subsidiary of Lexington Park Group, LLC. Founded in 2011 under the laws of Delaware, the Company is knowledge-based investment firm with the business objective of creating long-term added value for its clients.

Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC. is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and SIPC. The company does not clear securities transactions or carry customer accounts on a fully disclosed basis.

Lexington Park Capital Markets has been formed to provide private placement services to middle market companies and has developed structured programs for arranging financings and effecting M&A transactions. The Company earns service fees as marketing and sales representative with respect to soliciting prospective investors on behalf of clients.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company’s financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies followed by the Company.

(b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers highly liquid financial instruments with maturities of three months or less, at the time of purchase, to be cash and cash equivalents.

The Company maintains its cash in bank account at a highly credit quality financial institution. The balances at times may exceed federally insured limits of $ 250,000.

Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended December 31, 2018

(c) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is stated at its net realizable value, which represents the account balance less an allowance for balances not partially or fully collectable. The Company considers a receivable uncollectible when, based on current information or factors such as age and credit worthiness it is probable that the Company will not collect, in full, the receivable balance. An allowance is established when management believes that collection, after considering relevant factors, is in doubt.

(d) Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(e) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures the financial assets in three levels, based on the markets in which the assets and liabilities are traded and the reliability of the assumptions used to determine fair value. These levels are:

Level 1 – Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, or interest in open-end mutual funds that allow a company to sell its ownership interest back at net asset value (“NAV”) on a daily basis. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets, liabilities or funds.

Level 2 – Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer, or broker markets, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or quoted prices in markets that are not active. Level 2 includes U.S. Treasury, U.S. government and agency debt securities, and mortgage-backed securities. Valuations are usually obtained from third party pricing services for identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Level 3 – Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, such as option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from instrument to instrument and in certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an instrument’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company’s assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement of an instrument requires judgment and consideration of factors specific to the instrument.

Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements

(e) Fair Value of Financial Instruments (continued)

At December 31, 2018, the Company's cash equivalent include only "Cash In Bank" is valued utilizing quoted market prices for identical instruments and are thus categorized in Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

(f) Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, the Company is treated as a partnership for Federal and State income tax purposes. Under subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code, each member is taxed separately on his distributive share of the Company's income whether or not that income is actually distributed. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2018.

(g) Prepaid Expenses

In December the Firm paid its 2019 registration fees of $909 to FINRA

(h) Concentration, Risk and Credit Risk

During the Year End December 31, 2018 the Company derived approximately 100% of revenues from one customer. The account is an affiliated entity.

The company maintains a bank account at one financial institution. The account balance is insured by the Federal Deposit Corporation (FDIC). The balances have not exceeded federally insured limits of $250,000 during the year ended December 31, 2018.

(i) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when services have been rendered and earned. For capital raisings, earned typically means funds have been received by the Company's client. For advisories, revenue is recognized when the Company has completed its work pursuant to the engagement letter and/or the transaction has been completed.

The Company earns revenue from investment banking and consulting in accordance with the provision of the respective agreements. Fees for investment banking and consulting are recognized as services are provided. Investment banking fees are generally based on a percentage of the total value of a transaction and are recognized upon successful completion. There was no fee income receivable at December 31, 2018. The balance of the fee receivable at year end December 31, 2017 was written off as uncollectible.

Lexington Park Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended December 31, 2018

(3) Related Party Transactions

During 2018, the Company incurred costs of $4,400 for the sublease of the two offices to Lexington Park Advisors, LLC. Rajib Das, the 100% Partner of Lexington Park Group, LLC., the parent entity of this Broker Dealer, is also 100% Partner of Lexington Park Advisors, LLC. The rent was treated as a contribution from the Partner on the books of the Company.

(4) Commitments and Contingencies

As of September 2018, the Company amended the sub-lease agreement with Lexington Park Advisors, LLC to $100.00 a month. The sub lease is on a month to month basis with no expiration date, therefore no minimum lease payments are disclosed.

(5) Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2018, the Company had net capital of $8,881 which was $3,811 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. Aggregate indebtedness was $3,495. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital computed in accordance with Rule 15c3-1 was .3967 to 1

(6) New Accounting Pronouncements

In 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") adopted ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which will supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The core principle of this standard is that revenue should be recognized for the amount of consideration expected to be received for promised goods or services transferred to customers. This standard will be effective for the Company for the annual reporting period beginning after December 15, 2018.

The Company has evaluated the new guidance and the adoption is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements and a cumulative effect adjustment under the modified retrospective method of adoption will not be necessary.

(7) Subsequent Event

The Company has evaluated subsequent events for the disclosure purposes through March 26, 2018.
