REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors of Superior Financial Services, Inc.
Jackson, Wisconsin

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Superior Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2018, and the related statements of operation, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Superior Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2018, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Computation of Aggregate Indebtedness and Net Capital and Form SIPC-7 have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Computation of Aggregate Indebtedness and Net Capital and Form SIPC-7 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2018 AND DECEMBER 31, 2017

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Superior Financial Services, Inc. introduces and forwards, as a broker, all transactions and accounts of customers to another broker or dealer who carries such accounts on a fully disclosed basis. Superior Financial Services, Inc. promptly forwards all funds received from customers in connection with its activities as a broker.

Basis of Statement Preparation

The company's accounts are maintained on the accrual basis of accounting. As such, revenues are recognized when earned, and expenses and related liabilities are recorded in the period incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that directly affect the results of reported assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Uncollectible Accounts

No allowance for uncollectible accounts has been provided since it is believed that the balance in accounts receivable is fully collectible.

Security Valuation

Investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange (or reported on NASDAQ national market) are stated at the last reported sales price on the day of valuation. The first-in, first-out method is used to determine the cost of each security at the time of sale. These securities are subject to off balance sheet risk due to the fact that market values are unpredictable.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are not provided for as the company has elected subchapter "S" status. Any tax liability is passed to the shareholders of the company on a prorated basis of ownership.

Advertising

Advertising costs are charged to operations when incurred.

Subsequent Events

Management evaluated subsequent events through February 1, 2019 the date the financial statements were available to be issued. There are no subsequent events that required recognition or disclosure.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES REPORT ON SCHEDULE OF ASSESSMENT AND PAYMENTS (FORM SIPC-7)

Board of Directors and Shareholders of Superior Financial Services, Inc.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments (Form SIPC-7) to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2017, which were agreed to by Superior Financial Services, Inc., and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of Form SIPC-7. Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s management is responsible for Superior Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

- 1) Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries (SIPC -6 and SIPC -7), noting no differences;
- 2) Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2018, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2018, noting no differences;
- 3) Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers, noting no differences;
- 4) Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences; and
- 5) Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed, noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Superior Financial Services, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which Superior Financial Services, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Superior Financial Services, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 and Superior Financial Services, Inc. stated that Superior Financial Services, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Superior Financial Services, Inc. management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Superior Financial Services, Inc. compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
