Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Lemley, Yarling & Co.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

LEMLEY, YARLING & CO.

Notes to Financial Statements

March 31, 2019

1. Organization and Business

Lemley, Yarling & Co. (the "Company") is an Illinois corporation that is a wholly owned subsidiary of Lemley, Yarling Management Co. (the "Parent"). The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company provides brokerage services to retail customers and clears all customer transactions through a broker on a fully disclosed basis.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"), effective April 1, 2018. There were no material changes in revenue recognition policies and no material impact on the Company's financial statements as a result of the new accounting standard.

Commission revenue and related expenses on equity securities are recorded as earned on an accrual basis.

Income Taxes

The Company has adopted FASB ASC topic 740, which provides guidance regarding how uncertain income tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented, and disclosed in the financial statements. FASB ASC 740 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. FASB ASC 740 also provides guidance on de-recognition of tax benefits, classification on the balance sheet, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition.

As of March 31, 2019, the Company's unrecognized tax benefits were not significant. There were no significant penalties or interest recognized during the year or accrued at year-end. The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. Federal and various state jurisdictions at the consolidated level. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. Federal or state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2015.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and the accompanying notes. Management determined that the estimates utilized in preparing its financial statements are reasonable and prudent. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. Related Party Transactions

The Company has entered into an expense sharing agreement with its Parent. For the year ending March 31, 2019, the Company recorded salary, telephone, professional fees and other expenses totaling $89,920 related to the expense sharing agreement. At March 31, 2019, the Company had a payable to its Parent for salary, telephone, professional fees and other expenses totaling $17,048.

The Company also reimburses its Parent for the Company's share of income taxes. For the year ending March 31, 2019, the Company recorded provision for income taxes totaling $18,470 related to the income tax reimbursements. At March 31, 2019, the Company had income taxes payable to its Parent totaling $782.

LEMLEY, YARLING & CO.

Notes to Financial Statements

4. Receivable from and Payable to Broker-Dealer

The Company has entered into an agreement with RBC Correspondent Services ("RBC"), whereby the Company transacts, on a fully disclosed basis, all customer business through RBC. The Company has guaranteed payment for securities purchased and delivery of securities sold pursuant to this agreement. As part of this agreement, the Company is required to maintain $50,000 on deposit with the broker-dealer, which is classified as cash and cash equivalents on the statement of financial condition.

At March 31, 2019, the Company had a receivable from RBC totaling $46,117, which represents cash, commissions, and trade errors receivable from RBC. At March 31, 2019, the Company had a payable to RBC totaling $25,546, which represents clearing costs not yet paid.

5. Fair Value Disclosure

In accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP"), fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

In determining fair value, the Company uses various valuation approaches. A fair value hierarchy for inputs is used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs reflect the Company's assumption about the inputs market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

Level 1 Inputs – Valuation is based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the reporting date.

Level 2 Inputs – Valuation is based on other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 Inputs – Valuation is based on unobservable inputs for the valuation of the asset or liability. Level 3 assets include investments for which there is little, if any, market activity. These inputs require significant management judgment or estimation.

The availability of valuation techniques and observable inputs can vary from investment to investment and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, the type of investment, whether the investment is new and not yet established in the marketplace, and other characteristics particular to the transaction. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Those estimated values do not necessarily represent the amounts that may be ultimately realized due to the occurrence of future circumstances that cannot be reasonably determined. Because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated values may be materially higher or lower than the values that would have been used had a ready market for the investments existed. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised by the Company in determining fair value is greatest for investments categorized in Level 3. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement in its entirety falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

At March 31, 2019, the Company held no Level 1, Level 2 or Level 3 investments.

Notes to Financial Statements

6. Guarantees

Accounting Standards Codification Topic 460 ("ASC 460"), Guarantees, requires the Company to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. ASC 460 defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying (such as an interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a specified event) related to an asset, liability or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement, as well as indirect guarantees of the indebtedness of others (see Note 8).

7. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15(c)3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain "net capital" equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 and 2/3% of "aggregate indebtedness", as defined. At March 31, 2019, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $52,741 and $5,000, respectively.

8. Off-Balance Sheet Risk

Customer transactions are introduced to and cleared through the Company's broker on a fully disclosed basis. Under the terms of its clearing agreement, the Company is required to guarantee the performance of its customers in meeting contracted obligations. In conjunction with the broker, the Company seeks to control the risks associated with its customer activities by requiring customers to maintain collateral in compliance with various regulatory and internal guidelines and, pursuant to such guidelines, customers may be required to deposit additional collateral, or reduce positions, where necessary.

9. Concentration of Credit Risk

U.S. GAAP requires disclosure of any significant off-balance-sheet-risk, or concentrations of credit risk. The Company currently maintains its cash and cash equivalent balance of $50,000 with one major national financial institution. In addition, the Company has a receivable of $46,117 from the same financial institution. Management does not consider this risk to be significant.

10. Subsequent Events

The Company's management has evaluated events and transactions through May 15, 2019, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, noting no material events requiring disclosure in the Company's financial statements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholder of Lemley, Yarling & Co.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Lemley, Yarling & Co. Exemption Report, in which (1) Lemley, Yarling & Co. (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3:(k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year ending March 31, 2019 without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, therefore, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
