REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Director and Managing Members of PACIFIC FINANCIAL ASSOCIATES, NV

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the financial statements of PACIFIC FINANCIAL ASSOCIATES, NV ("Company") which comprise the statement of financial condition as of June 30, 2019, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and schedules (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of June 30, 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

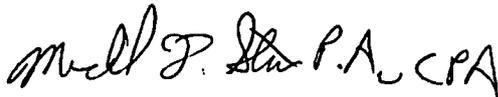

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The information contained in the supplemental schedule listed in the accompanying index has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements.

Supplemental Information

The Computation of Net Capital has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Computation of Net Capital is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Pacific Financial Associates, NV
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2019

Note 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

Pacific Financial Associates, NV (the “Company”) was organized in the State of Nevada on December 8th, 2000. The Company is a registered broker/dealer under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Agency (FINRA) and the Securities Investment Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation – The Company conducts the following types of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises several classes of services, including:

- Mutual fund retailer
- Broker or dealer selling variable life insurance or annuities

Under its membership agreement with FINRA and pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 (k) (1), the Company will not hold customer funds or safe keep customer securities. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from the requirement of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pertaining to the possession or control of customer assets and reserve requirements.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Commissions – Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur and include commissions from sale of mutual funds, variable annuities and insurance products.

Income Taxes – The amount of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable is recognized as of the date of the financial statements, utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the financial statements for the changes in deferred tax liabilities or assets between years. However no such expenses or benefits were recorded as of June 30, 2019 because it is not material.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

Pacific Financial Associates, NV
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2019

Note 2 – Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Statement of Cash Flows - The Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Note 3 - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Unless otherwise indicated, the fair values of all reported assets and liabilities that represent financial instruments (none of which are held for trading purposes approximate the carrying values of such amounts.

Note 4 – Related Parties

The company pays a small salary and commissions to its sole stockholder. During the year salaries paid to the stockholder were $5,925 including related payroll taxes. In addition the stockholder was paid $23,037 in commissions. At year end, commission payable to stockholder was $1,712 and expense reimbursement due to stockholder $7,872.

Note 5 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule SEC Rule 15c3-1(a) (2) (vi), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At June 30, 2019, the Company had net capital of $40,613 which was $35,613 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.24 to 1.

Note 6 - Income Taxes

At June 30, 2019 there was no Federal or State income taxes due. There is no state income tax in Nevada where incorporated and Florida corporate taxes are based on Federal taxes with a $50,000 exemption.

The accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provides accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Company in its Federal and State organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Company is subject to examinations by U.S. Federal and State tax authorities from July 1, 2016 to the present, generally for three years after they are filed.

Pacific Financial Associates, NV
Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2019

Note 7- Exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3

Under its membership agreement with FINRA and pursuant to Rule 15c3 (k)(1), the Company's business that limit their activities (both principal and agent) to transactions in certain redeemable securities of registered investment companies (mutual funds) or insurance products. Under this exemption, the broker-dealer may briefly handle customer funds and/or securities, but must promptly transmit such funds and securities received in connection with its broker or dealer activities. Additionally, it cannot hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers.

Note 8 – SIPC Supplementary Report Requirement

The Company is not required to complete the SIPC Supplementary Report under SEC Rule 17a-5(e) (4) for fiscal year ending June 30, 2019 because the Company's SIPC Net Operating Revenues are under $500,000 and also because it is exempt from SIPC membership.

Note 9 – Subsequent Events

Management has reviewed the results of operations for the period of time from its fiscal year end June 30, 2019 through August 16, 2019, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that no adjustments are necessary to the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements nor have any subsequent events occurred, the nature of which would require disclosure.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
Pacific Financial Associates, NV

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Form Custody exemption report, in which (1) Pacific Financial Associates, NV (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3(k)(1) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on the management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 under the securities Exchange Act of 1934.
