Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Roc Global, LLC, a Connecticut Limited Liability Company, (the "Company") as of December 31, 2019 and the related notes to the statement of financial condition. In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

The statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the statement of financial condition, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the statement of financial condition. We believe that our audit provides reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2011.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 1 - Summary of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Business Overview

Roc Global, LLC (the "Company") was organized pursuant to the laws of the State of Connecticut and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Roc Global Holdings, LLC (the "Parent"). The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and regulated by Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

The Company is in the businesses of originating and distributing and trading equity-linked securities to investors. The business activities include private placements, acting as an underwriter on a best efforts basis, participating as a selling group participant and as a broker or dealer selling corporate equity-linked securities and convertible securities.

Going Concern Considerations

The Company incurred a net loss for the year ended December 31, 2019 which indicates substantial doubt exists related to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company is in the process of working on various transactions ("Transactions"), which may result in fees earned from investment banking transactions. These Transactions could result in total revenues which would cover its operating costs for the next twelve months. Additionally, the Parent can infuse additional capital into the Company and has historically contributed capital to fund net losses.

There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in closing additional Transactions. If necessary, the Parent will infuse additional capital in order for the Company to continue as a going concern, mitigating the substantial doubt raised by the Company's loss in 2019 and will satisfy its estimated liquidity needs for the twelve months from the issuance of the statement of financial condition.

Basis of Accounting

The Company's statement of financial condition is prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Roc Global, LLC

Revenue from Contracts with Clients

The Company accounts for revenue earned from contracts with clients for services such as investment banking under ASC Topic No. 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASC 606"). As such, revenues for these services are recognized when the performance obligations related to the underlying transaction are completed.

Investment Banking

The Company's activities are primarily arranging the private placement of securities by business entities on a best-efforts basis. Private placements are distributions of securities that do not involve public offerings. The Company also provides advisory services on mergers and acquisitions. Investment banking revenues are composed of origination, distribution, and advisory fees and the related revenues are generally contingent on a successful transaction.

The Company earns revenues from fees arising from private placements. The related revenues from private placements are recognized upon completion of the underlying transaction based upon the terms of the assignment which is on the date of the successful closing of the transaction. The Company believes that the closing date is the appropriate point in time to recognize revenue as there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date and the issuer obtains the control and benefit of the securities offering at that point.

The Company earns revenues from fees arising from advisory service arrangements. The related revenues are generally recognized when the services related to the underlying transaction are completed under the terms of the assignment which is typically the closing of the advisory related transaction.

In certain transactions the Company may be paid a non-refundable retainer or fee, which is recognized as revenue when the services are provided or the requirements for the retainer or fee are satisfied.

Expenses associated with investment banking transactions are recognized when incurred and are recorded in operating expenses, net of client reimbursements.

Principal Transactions

The Company executes transactions as an intermediary (riskless-principal) by serving as a trading counterparty to both the buyer and the seller in matching back-to-back trades. Securities transactions and the related revenues and expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Equipment

The Company expenses any computer and office equipment related costs that are individually $1,500 and below.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a limited liability company and is taxed as a partnership. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal and state income taxes. These taxes are the responsibility of the member who includes the Company's income and deductions in their income tax return.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with ASC Topic No. 740, "Income Taxes". Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available or when an event occurs that requires a change. The amount of unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2019 is $0.

With few exceptions, the statute of limitations for the examination of the Company's tax returns is generally three years from the due date of the tax return including extensions. The tax years subject to examination include the years 2016 and forward.

Fair Value Measurements

ASC Topic No. 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures" ("ASC 820") defines fair value and establishes a framework for measuring fair value. The Company adopted the provisions codified within ASC 820 for financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes fair value hierarchy levels that prioritize the inputs used in valuations determining fair value. Level 1 inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 2 inputs are primarily quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets or inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs based on the Company's own assumptions.

Note 2 - Related Parties

The Parent files a consolidated return for New York City unincorporated business taxes ("UBT"). The Parent charges the Company its share of UBT. As a result of prior net operating loss carryforwards, there were no UBT related expenses for the year ended December 31, 2019.

Note 3 - Net Capital and Other Regulatory Requirements

As a broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC regulations and operating guidelines, which require the Company to maintain a specific amount of net capital, as defined, and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, not to exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital may fluctuate on a daily basis.

At December 31, 2018, the Company had net capital of $295,974 which was $290,974 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 0.067 to 1 at December 31, 2019.

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission since the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities. Therefore, the Company is not required to make periodic computations of the reserve requirements for the exclusive benefit of customers.

Note 4 - Office Space

The Company leases its office facilities under a short-term space and service agreement ("Space Agreement") through March 31, 2020. Future minimum Space Agreement payments as of December 31, 2019 are $16,400 for the period January 1 to March 31, 2020. The Company has elected not to apply the recognition requirements of Accounting Standards Codification Topic 842 ("ASC-842") for the Space Agreement since the Space Agreement meets the ASC-842 definition of a short-term lease. The Company instead will recognize the Space Agreement payments as a cost on a straight-line basis. The monthly base rate payment for this period was negotiated to a contractually based agreed upon amount.

Note 5 - Off-Balance Sheet Risk and Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company has a potential concentration of credit risk in that it maintains cash deposits with one major financial institution. At times, the amount on deposit at this institution may exceed the maximum balance insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Management has determined that the concentration subjects the Company to minimal risk only. At December 31, 2019, there were uninsured amounts.

The Company's customers and counterparties are primarily institutional and consist of banks, hedge funds, mutual funds, pension plans, brokers and dealers, and other financial institutions.

Due to the nature of the Company's business, large transactions with customers may occur each year.

Note 6 - Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events from January 1, 2020 through January 31, 2020, the date the statement of financial condition was available to be issued and has determined there are no events to disclose.
