NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of business:

Classic, LLC (the Company) was incorporated September 13, 2011. The company is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company became a registered broker-dealer on November 27, 2012. The Company is wholly owned by Classic Holdings, LLC. (Parent Company). Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash accounts, which are not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties, and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash balances in excess of FDIC and similar insurance coverage are subject to the usual banking risks associated with funds in excess of those limits. FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2019

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Revenue Recognition:

Significant Judgments

Revenues include brokerage commissions, fees from the sale of mutual funds and insurance, and advisory fee overrides from an affiliated party (see Note 2). The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; whether revenue should be presented gross or net of certain costs; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Revenue is recognized in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 606 as services are rendered and the contracts identified performance obligation have been satisfied. Commissions and fees received from the sale of mutual funds and variable annuities are recognized at the time the associated service is fulfilled, including the investment company receiving the application which is based on trade date. Advisory fee override is recognized in the period the associated services were provided. There were no unsatisfied performance obligations at December 31, 2019.

Income Taxes:

The Company files consolidated tax returns with its parent, Classic Holdings, LLC. The Company is an LLC and will not be required to recognize income tax expense. The Members of the LLC will recognize tax provisions.

The Company evaluates all significant tax positions as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The federal and state income tax returns of the Company for 2018, 2017, and 2016 are subject to examination by the IRS and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that may affect certain reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2019

NOTE 5. LEASE AND CONTRACT COMMITMENTS (RELATED PARTY)

The Company has a lease with Young Properties, whose owner is an affiliate of the Parent Company. The Company leases approximately 698 square feet of office space under the terms of an operating lease (“the Lease”) entered into on November 1, 2017. There are no commitments and contingencies that would have a material impact as of December 31, 2019.

NOTE 7. RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

On January 1, 2019, the Company adopted ASU 2016-2, Leases – (Topic “842”). ASU 2016-02 recognition of lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet related to the rights and obligations created by lease agreements. Previously, generally accepted accounting principles did not require a lessee to include an asset or liability on its balance sheet with respect to an operating lease. The adoption of Leases – (“Topic 842”) requires a lessee to include on its balance sheet an asset arising from an operating lease. The Company has no leases falling within its scope and adoption of this did not result in any changes to beginning retained earnings for the year ended December 31, 2018 or net income for the preceding year-end.
